LAST-MINUTE OFFER

Contract Revision Delays San Rafael Property Sale

San Rafael City Council last night postponed selling a portion of corporation yard property along Francisco Boulevard because revised contracts, bringing $98,418 more in cash, weren't ready for signing. (Other San Rafael City Council stories, page 16.)

In the process, it left the door slightly ajar for a last-minute bid to buy the property by an undisclosed local group represented by attorney James M. Kennedy of San Rafael.

Kennedy, who said he wasn't free to disclose the names or number of prospective buyers, said they were willing to pay more than the price offered to the city, and needed time to make a firm offer.

Councilmen offered March 17 to sell 3.25 acres to two automobile dealers, George Dexter and Hercules Viglienzone, for $425,478 and lease an additional frontage acre for $6,888 a year until needed for highway widening.

City Atty. David Menary Jr. reported last night that the leasing arrangement is out and the frontage acre will be sold.

Robert A. Roumiguiere, San Rafael real estate broker, representing Dexter and Viglienzone, said the sale price now totals $523,896.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini said it would take an exceptional offer before he would renege on the offer to sell to the two automobile dealers.

Menary said the city hasn't entered into any contract and wasn't "legally bound to anyone," and Bettini said "it was an oral contract and morally we've accepted the offer."

Menary commented: "I don't think you got enough money and I think the terms are terrible."

Kennedy said the city was selling the property at $3 a square foot and his clients would top that.

Councilman Harry A. Barbier said the property has been on the market for two years, and Kennedy's group could have made its offer before last night.

Kennedy said the understanding until recently was that the price was $4.75 a square foot, and Bettini noted that this was before it was determined that there was an easement across the site.

Councilmen contended that the selling price of $3 a square

San Geronimo Area Amnesty Panel Set

Valley 'Squares,' Hippies Square Off, And Cool Off

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Appointment of an amnesty committee to get "squares" and hippies together for mutual understanding was promised at the conclusion of a San Geronimo Valley mass meeting last night.

The hopeful note came after a meeting that sank at one point deep into ugliness as at least two members of the audience applauded when Richard Green, co-owner of Shirley's Cafe in Forest Knolls, complained that shots had been fired at his place and someone had tried to burn it down.

The multipurpose room of Lagunitas School was filled with nearly 200 people for the meeting, called by the San Geronimo Valley Association. Marin County officialdom was well represented.

It was called to discuss a list of local problems including leash law, litter, housing, welfare, etc. Some of them were never touched. Underneath all ran the hippies-vs.-squares feeling and deep resentment over loud rock and roll music that emanated from the neighborhood of Shirley's Cafe on Easter Sunday and again last Sunday.

Through most of the two and one-half hour meeting, there were boos whenever a good word was said for hippies and their way of life. But at the end, there were no boos as Joseph Furdas, new president of the association, announced a committee would be appointed to try to work out how the opposing groups could get along together.

The first suggestion for a "group of citizens as intermediaries to hear both sides" came from a Forest Knolls man who did not give his name. It was promptly taken up by others, including Terrel Plant of Forest Knolls, who said: "I came to a meeting once before and a committee was formed to get rid of the hippies. We should have a committee to get along with the hippies."

County Supervisor Louis H. Baar, who urged that the solution to the valley's troubles lies in every individual respecting the rights of others, endorsed the committee proposal.

The hopeful note of cooperation was given a boost as Lawrence Baldwin of Lagunitas arose to volunteer his services with his pickup truck to remove rubbish that litters roadsides, yards, and empty houses in the valley — rubbish that County Fire Chief Louis Bloom had pointed out presents a serious fire hazard.

Barely an hour earlier, Baldwin's companion, teenage Sarah Sherman, broke down in tears as she arose to plead: "I just want to know why we can't live together . . . Do you believe we're all children of God? . . . We have to

Planners Split But Send Bolinas Logging Halt On To Supervisors

A new logging control ordinance for the Bolinas Ridge area, which would prohibit commercial logging, won the approval of the Marin County Planning Commission by 4-to-2 vote yesterday. (Other planning commission stories, page 12.)

The action came on a motion by Margaret Azevedo and a second by Dr. William F. Upton, with Chairman Hugh Dougherty and Michael Praszker supporting them.

Walter F. Freitas and Eugene R. Trombley dissented. Niels Schultz Jr. was absent.

The ordinance must now go to the board of supervisors for adoption.

On another motion by Mrs. Azeveda, the planning commissioners voted 5 to 1 to ask the supervisors to extend an interim logging ban, which is in effect for 90 days, to be extended to other areas in the county where the assessor finds marketable timber. An assessor's map shows marketable timber stretching inland into parts of San Geronimo Valley and Nicasio.

Freitas was the lone dissenter on this vote.

Freitas charged that an ordinance prohibiting logging would take private property for public use without compensation. "The only reason for the ordinance is to compel the property owner to leave his trees for passing drivers to enjoy," said Freitas. "I think this is socialistic."

Socialism is relative, replied Praszker. "Putting public goods before private goods — that's a form of socialism." Praszker argued that architectural supervision regulating the color or design of structures are all aimed at pleasing neighbors and passersby.

County Planner Sol Silver outlined the various provisions of the new ordinance and the natural resources protective district which would be established.

Logging, mining, quarrying drilling would be prohibited from Mount Tamalpais State Park to Haggerty Gulch in the north, and from the Pacific Ocean to Samuel P. Taylor Park and Marin Municipal Water District land. Silver said more than half the district would be within the area designated for the Point Reyes National Seashore.

Freitas said the ban on mining, drilling and quarrying would be premature action because such operations can be conducted without injury to anyone else.

"To strangulate an owner for the benefit of the public who isn't paying for it is not honest and not legal."

Trombley said he voted "no" against the logging control ordinance because he favors control but not prohibition.

The logging control ordinance and the recommendation to expand the natural resources protective district will go to the Marin County Board of Supervisors for decision.

Thant Says War Exists In Mideast

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant declared today the U.N. cease-fire along the Suez Canal sector is almost totally ineffective "and a virtual state of active war now exists there."

Thant made the statement in a special report to members of the U.N. Security Council. (See also Mideast story, page 2.)

He did not request a council meeting, but the urgency of the report indicated that members of the 15-nation council would now enter into consultations on what course to follow.

"I feel it necessary to employ the unusual means of a special report from the secretary-general to the Security Council, to call most urgently to the attention of members of the council the prevailing situation in the Suez Canal sector, which, in my view, is very grave," Thant said.

STOLEN MAIL

Ex-Postal Worker Accused In Thefts

A 32-year-old former mail carrier has been accused of mail thefts involving 3,000 to 5,000 pieces of mail that never reached Southern Marin destinations, San Rafael police reported today.

Warren Sielsky, of 9 Taylor Street, San Rafael, has been arrested twice in the past week on suspicion of mail theft, police said.

Inspector Gerald R. Souza said the first hint of Sielsky's activities came April 7 when police raided what appeared to be a narcotics party at 9 Taylor Street and found, besides narcotics, some checks believed stolen.

Sielsky, at the time, was a mail carrier for the Mill Valley Post Office.

Souza said postal inspectors were called in and Sielsky's alleged activities were uncovered through the use of planted mail on his route.

He appeared before the U.S. Commissioner in San Francisco last Monday and was released on $500 bail to return May 1. He was also relieved of his duties at the post office.

On Friday, Souza said, the case took another turn after William J. Canada of 32 Front Street, San Rafael, reported the theft of a color television valued at $800 form his locked apartment.

An anonymous tip led police to an apartment at 45 Woodland Avenue yesterday and the television was recovered. One of the persons at the apartment, Mike Warren Strong, 19, of Rohnert Park and Fort Ord, was booked into Marin County Jail on suspicion of burglary.

In Strong's possession were some more of the checks believed stolen in Southern Marin, police said.

Meanwhile, Bank of America in San Rafael reported a man attempted to cash a $300 check issued to James Lynch of Rohnert Park. Bank officials said the man did not have sufficient identification and the check was held to determine if it was actually Lynch trying to cash it.

Bank officials later identified Strong and he was rebooked at County Jail on suspicion of forgery, Souza said.

Strong, reportedly absent without leave, was also held for the Army.

Under questioning, he revealed Sielsky had given him several checks and had several more in a suitcase. Postal authorities were called back in and arrested Sielsky again.

Souza said Sielsky had apparently continued the thefts although he was no longer with the post office.

Strong appeared in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on the burglary charge and the case was continued until today. Bail was set at $1,250. No bail has been set in the forgery booking.

Mill Valley postal officials said today persons from whom checks were stolen will be contacted as the investigation continues.

There has been no estimate of the amount of money involved in the stolen checks and Souza said some of the mail will probably never be recovered.

Immediate Tax Shifts Only The First Step?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration spokesmen told Congress today President Richard M. Nixon's wide-ranging tax reform proposals are aimed at quickly repairing pressing flaws in the system and more basic changes are planned.

Of equal importance to immediate reform, Treasury Under Secretary Charles E. Walker told the House Ways and Means Committee, are "basic structural changes that go beyond reform" which, however, must be approached more slowly.

He noted in his prepared testimony that the President has ordered a cellar-to-attic review of every aspect of the tax system to point up the areas where simplification—a major goal—may be possible.

Overall, Treasury officials said, revenue losses and gains will cancel each other out at roughly $4 billion each, though there should be a net increase in receipts after the first two years.

Some of the changes are designed to take effect immediately, others by stages, the Treasury officials said. Action on revenue-sharing and the tax incentives programs would not begin for at least a year, they said.

Once the program ending federal taxation of families below the $3,500 line, or individuals earning less than $1,735 a year, is fully operative, they said, the cost will be $665 million a year.

Dirksen Says Reds Given Sole Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, leaving a meeting with President Richard M. Nixon, said today U.S. policy toward protecting American reconnaissance flights is "the traditional one of warning only once."

Dirksen's comments to newsmen came a short time after the Pentagon indicated U.S. electronic surveillance flights off North Korea, halted after a Navy reconnaissance plane was downed last week, apparently have been or are about to be resumed.

One of the topics during the GOP congressional leadership's weekly meeting with Nixon was the status of the Korean situation, Dirksen reported after the nearly two and one-half-hour conference.

Nixon suspended the flights after North Korea MIG fighters shot down an EC121 and its 31 crewmen April 21. But he told his news conference last Friday the flights will be continued and will be protected.

Asked today whether Nixon's statement constituted the warning, Dirksen replied: "Exactly."

Asked whether he was saying the United States is going to protect the flights or hinting there might be retaliation, Dirksen halted the question in midair and said he was saying only the planes will have protection.

Senators Hear Split Views On ABM Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former Pentagon official testified today that if Congress blocks President Richard M. Nixon's Safeguard missile defense system, U.S. negotiators "may be up against extremely adverse odds" in arms control talks with the Soviet Union.

But a University of California scientist said the system would only escalate the arms race—and put greater reliance on computers for "that ultimate decision about whether or not doomsday had arrived."

Former Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze and Dr. Herbert York were among those participating as a lineup of scientists debated the issue before the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Dr. W. K. H. Panofsky of Stanford University challenged both of the strategic assumptions on which Safeguard is based and its technical capabilities of defending Minuteman missile sites.

Noting the power of U.S. nuclear submarines, strategic aircraft and missiles, he said "It appears impossible that the Soviet Union can attain first strike power by the mid-1970s."

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird had testified that recent Soviet long range missile developments indicate the Russians are aiming at a first strike capability knocking out the U.S. ability to retaliate.

York, a physicist at the University of California at San Diego, insisted the Safeguard system would accelerate the arms race, and termed the whole plan "technically questionable."

He questioned how the system could be designed to cope with surprise attack and still have "a stiff trigger so that it will never go off accidentally or without proper authorization."

Nitze, who now is at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, urged prompt arms control talks along with approval of the $490 million the administration seeks for the Safeguard system.

He said the two are mutually supporting.

". . . The executive branch believes it would be in a much stronger position in any talks on limitation of offensive and defensive systems if it had the backing of the legislative branch on its Safeguard program," Nitze said. He said he agrees.

Sirhan Jury Debates Fate

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The longer the jury deliberates life or death for Sirhan B. Sirhan the worse it looks for the slender Arab immigrant convicted of slaying Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, the defense said today.

Sirhan's chief counsel, Grant B. Cooper, said he feels lengthy arguments by the panel which resumed deliberations at 8:02 a.m. today made it less likely it is to be a life sentence.

The penalty phase of the trial went to the jury at noon yesterday after convicting Sirhan of first degree murder last Thursday. Cooper said he would have been optimistic if the panel arrived at a decision shortly after they adjourned to deliberate.

Job Corps Trainees Sue To Save Center

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Eight enrollees at Parks Job Corps Center in Pleasanton filed suit in federal court today to halt the scheduled closure of the center.

The petition, filed in behalf of the eight minors and all others at the center, said the Nixon administration's plan to close the facility July 1 amounted, in effect, to a breach of contract.

Reds Caught At River, 50 Killed

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines caught 150 North Vietnamese trying to cross a river southwest of Da Nang yesterday and killed at least 50 of them with the help of artillery and an aerial gunship, military spokesmen said today. One Marine was wounded.

It was one of two ground battles reported by the U.S. Command. The Viet Cong shelled 17 allied bases and towns last night, and a delayed report told of heavy material damage to the U.S. air base at Nha Trang, 200 miles northeast of Saigon, in an attack with rockets and recoilless rifles Sunday night.

The Marines sprayed the North Vietnamese with machine guns 16 miles southwest of South Vietnam's second largest city as the enemy attempted to cross the Vu Gia River in sampans. Mortar shells and artillery rained on the boats and a Spooky gunship raked them with 6,000 rounds a minute from its miniguns.

The Marines counted 50 enemy bodies floating downriver after the shooting, and only one Leatherneck was wounded, officers said.

In another action 27 miles northwest of Saigon, North Vietnamese regulars attacked a column of armored personnel carriers from the 25th Infantry Division in night bivouac. But they were beaten back in a 15-minute firefight, leaving 21 dead, the U.S. Command said. No American casualties were reported.

Carp were first imported in the United States from England in 1877.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Red Fleet Grows

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — The Soviet navy boosted its Mediterranean fleet to about 60 ships today, roughly the same number participating in North Atlantic Treaty Organization war games in the area.

New Irish Riots

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Rioters stoned two police barracks last night in Belfast and threw flaming gasoline bombs in the streets, but British troops guarding key installations in Northern Ireland stayed out of sight.

Police scattered the crowd of about 100, and by midnight the city was quiet. There were no casualties.

More than 200 British soldiers were stationed at power plants, fuel depots and similar plants to guard against saboteurs.

Air Crash Kills 44

CALCUTTA (AP) — An Indian airliner crashed last night while flying over East Pakistan, killing all 44 persons aboard, all Indians, an aviation ministry official said today.

The plane, a Fokker Friendship model, was on a flight from Silchar, in the East Indian state of Assam, to Calcutta.

Festival Marred

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — About 700 Negores roamed through parts of downtown San Antonio last night, smashing store windows and generally disrupting a river parade that was part of San Antonio's Festival celebration, police said.

Some looting was reported by police, including the ransacking of a pawn shop from which several guns were taken.

Husak To Kremlin

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's new Communist party chief, Gustav Husak, went to Moscow today, and his party's reform faction hoped he would return with some Soviet concessions.

Husak was welcomed at Moscow airport by Soviet party chief Leonid Brezhnev, Premier Alexei Kosygin, President Nikolai Podgorny and other top officials. This red carpet treatment indicated the Kremlin's pleasure that the pro-Moscow Husak had replaced Alexander Dubcek.

Mutiny Squelched

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — A U.S. Coast Guard boarding party took five armed, mutinous crewmen into custody aboard the West German freighter Helga Witt last night off the west coast of Puerto Rico, the Coast Guard reported.

A spokesman said there was no bloodshed. The ship was reported heading for San Juan with the mutineers.

The freighter first radioed a request for a guard for a man taken into custody. Later another message flashed: "Please assist as soon as possible, the men have arms."

Israeli Jets Hit Egyptian Radar Sites

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli warplanes streaked over Jordan again today, and an Israeli military spokesman said they knocked out the major part of Egypt's early warning radar network. Amman Radio said it was Israel's heaviest air attack in more than a year.

A senior member of the Israeli general staff said the attack on two Egyptian radar sites in south Jordan was a partial answer to Egyptian artillery bombardments over the Suez Canal during the past month.

Egypt, meanwhile, reported that its patrols crossed the Suez Canal again during the night to attack Israeli positions on the east bank.

Israel said its planes also hit two Arab guerrilla bases in north Jordan.

The Israelis said one plane was shot down and the pilot was presumed dead. Jordan said two other Israeli jets were damaged, and Red Crescent officials said they had been told the pilot of one parachuted into southern Jordan and was captured by Saudia Arabian troops stationed there.

A Dentist's Tooth Pulling Role—Touchy

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Dentists have to break the news gently when it comes time to pull Americans' teeth. For the patients know it's a sure sign they really are getting old.

Dr. Alex Koper of the University of Southern California school of dentistry said yesterday that "the oral cavity ranks second only to the genitilia in importance to the individual."

He discussed the psychological care and handling of teeth-pulling yesterday at the 99th annual meeting of the California Dental Association. Some 10,000 dentists, hygienists, technicians and students are gathered for the huge conclave.

Dr. Koper said that natives of many nations regard loss of teeth as inevitable. "The American dedication to a cult of youth makes it different here," he added.

"The whole mouth is a very highly emotionally charged part of the body," Dr. Koper added. "At birth, it is already a highly sophisticated instrument for measuring sensations.

"If you've ever noticed when an infant picks up something, he first puts it in his mouth then he looks at it."

Dr. Koper said that because people regard their mouths as kind of "holy area," they resent dentists because of their "intrusion."

Hayakawa Sees Taxpayer Revolt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dr. S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley said last night Californians are refusing to pay more taxes for higher education because they are "alarmed and disillusioned by disruption on one campus after another."

Hayakawa, acting president of San Francisco State College, said in a news conference a taxpayers' rebellion is underway.

Hayakawa denounced the California Democratic Council, which adopted a resolution Saturday asking him to resign. He said the group was wrongly injecting politics into the running of the college system.

Johnson Delays Lectures On Campus

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson has decided to defer until next fall his planned series of lectures at Rice University.

Johnson had hoped to discuss government in a series of talks during the current academic term, but a university spokesman said yesterday he had been unable to fix on a suitable date.

Contra Costa, State Feud Over Delta Plan

MARTINEZ (AP) — Spokesmen for the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors say the proposed San Francisco Bay-Delta Water Quality Program is "an apparent extension of Southern California control policies."

Kerry Mulligan, chairman of the State Water Resources Control Board rebutted yesterday: "I resent some of the implications by the board of supervisors and the congressman from this area that we are doing everything that would be harmful to the Bay-Delta system."

Mulligan told O.T. Smith of the Contra Costa County Water Agency that the state is required to maintain and enhance waters of the state.

Smith said, "Contra Costa County can't and does not accept the Bay-Delta report as written."

He said the report assumes use of the controversial state quality criteria for the delta and that results "could spell the death sentence for existing ecological environment afforded by waters of the Bay-Delta system."

The criticism of the plan being considered by the Water Resources Control Board involved the proposed Antioch termination of the San Luis Drain, which will dump central Valley agricultural waste water.

The Martinez hearing was the second of four being held by the board.

Paul Saltau of the North Bay Advisory Council said consideration should be given to protecting "home rule" of cities and districts within the Bay Area.

Pelicans Facing Extinction Due To Pesticide Drainage

BERKELEY (AP) — Extinction of pelicans and probably other birds along much of the West Coast is threatened by pesticide contamination of ocean waters, says the Institute of Marine Research at University of California.

Dr. Robert W. Risebrough said yesterday that he and a team of researchers found that heavy concentrations of DDT emptying from rivers in farming areas of California were causing near disastrous nesting failures among pelicans.

DDT scooped from plankton and small fish upsets an intricate hormone-enzyme relationship and causes the pelicans to lay eggs so deficient in calcium that they fall apart, he explained.

On Anacapa, one of the Channel islands off Oxnard, the research group found only 12 intact eggs in 298 nests and hundreds of broken eggshells littering the ground.

Many still contained yolk material found in laboratory tests to be heavily infested with DDT, Risebrough said. On a return visit days later, all of the 12 originally intact eggs were found broken.

Many other varieties of sea birds also are being affected by the toxic flows, including cormorants, Risebrough said.

West Coast seagulls are safe for the time being, he added, because much of their diet is garbage from populated areas and "California garbage is probably cleaner than the ocean today."

The flow of pesticides is increasing, he said, and total extinction of many species of marine birds which feed exclusively in the ocean is the grim prospect.

Risebrough said measurement of the broken pelican egg shells at Anacapa and other areas showed they averaged only half as thick as a similar group of pelican eggs collected in the same locality 30 years ago, when 1,000 nests produced 2,000 to 3,000 eggs and young each year.

The average person inhales 438 cubic feet of air in a 24-hour period.

Flood Crest Moves South In Midwest

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The flood crest of the Mississippi River pushed southward today heightening the danger to cities in Iowa, Illinois and Missouri while farther north the waters were receding.

Concerted efforts by the entire populations of some towns, and by elementary, high school and college students at others, had fought back the worst of the flooding.

In Minnesota and the Dakotas, the flood crest had passed, and evacuated residents including more than 12,000 in Minot, N.D., waited for the water to drain away so they could return home.

In Neche, N.D., on one of the few rivers still rising—the Pembina—workers reinforced crumbling dikes.

A score of businessmen and as many convicts from the state prison joined forces in Stillwater, Minn., over the weekend to reinforce dikes threatened with undercutting by the St. Croix River.

The high-river mark of 15.7 feet was reached at La Crosse, Wis., but dropped to 15.5 yesterday. The level was more than two feet below the tops of La Crosse's seven miles of levees.

St. Louis, a few miles downstream of the junction of the Mississippi with the water-swollen Missouri, expected a crest of 32 feet — two feet over flood stage — by tomorrow. But the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers said the crest would not cause extensive damage around St. Louis or points south.

Downstream at the Quad Cities — Moline and Rock Island, Ill., and Davenport and Bettendorf, Iowa — high schoolers helped strengthen dikes in preparation for the crest expected next week.

YARD

foot was in the appraisal range for the site.

They argued that the automobile agencies would return substantial sales tax revenue to the city and would be the best use of the property.

It would bring Dexter's Toyota agency to the city from Larkspur, and would keep Viglienzone's Marin Bay Lincoln Mercury agency, now at Third Street and Lincoln Avenue, in the city, Roumiguiere said.

Councilman Fred E. Jensen, who opposed the sale offer, said the city is "duty bound and legally obligated to get the highest price possible.

Kennedy asked the council to delay the sale until his clients could make a formal proposal, and suggested that the city could take bids on the site.

"What other business could bring in more sales tax than an automobile agency?" asked Barbier.

Kennedy said the city has fiscal responsibility to taxpayers "and should make time available to someone else" to present an offer.

Bettini said there was no secret that the property has been for sale and there was time to make offers, but Jensen said it wasn't known that the city would sell "two pieces."

"I feel we're doing the best thing, with the best rate of return from the sales tax standpoint," said Barbier. "Over the long haul it will be a benefit to the taxpayers."

Councilmen agreed to proceed with the sales contracts in two weeks, but said Kennedy's clients could make their bid, since the door is still open legally.

There was no comment during the evening about the offer by Marin County to discuss exchanging the corporation yard property for the Courthouse Square.

Under the revised proposal Dexter will buy 2.25 acres for $262.143 with $15,000 down and the balance by the end of the year.

Viglienzone will buy two acres at $261,753 with $57,446 down and the balance in 30 months.

Originally Dexter was to buy 1.5 acres for $196,032 and lease a three-quarter acre frontage strip at $4,627 a year, and Viglienzone was to buy 1.75 acres at $229,446 and lease a quarter of an acre at $2.261 a year.

Double Jeopardy Ruling Denied

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court denied yesterday that a San Quentin inmate would be placed in double jeopardy by a trial on a charge of possessing a knife for which he has already been punished at the prison.

Discipline by a prison board does not prevent a person from being tried in a court, he ruled.

Judge Haley set a jury trial for Vido Vatelli for the week of July 28.

Ex-Fireman Faces Jury Trial On Arson

A jury trial has been set for the week of July 28 in Marin Superior Court for Craig James Gomez, 19, a former volunteer fireman charged with arson and entry to commit arson in connection with a fire Jan. 5 at Central School in Sausalito.

Gomez, a former member of the Sausalito Volunteer Firemen's Association, now lives in San Francisco.

George Drejes, 40, of 1934 Centro West, Tiburon, was placed on two years probation, and ordered to spend four days in jail and pay a $120 fine.

New Prison Bill Introduced To Correct Problem

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill to allow prison-made goods to be sold outside the prison, thus correcting a problem in a 1968 law, has been introduced by Assemblyman William M. Ketchum, R-Bakersfield.

It was an amendment to Ketchum's own bill last year that restricted the sales to prison property, thus barring shows of prison art like the one held earlier last year in the Marin County Civic Center.

Ketchum's 1968 bill was simply to allow inmates to have the free use of scrap state material for handicrafts. The restriction was tacked on by the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee on the ground that the private sector needed protection because the inmates would be working with free material.

His new bill (AB 1796) would allow the sale of prison goods in public buildings, fairs or property operated by nonprofit associations.

Held To Answer On Credit Case

Phillip Charles Verheyden, 22, of Corte Madera, yesterday was bound over to Marin Superior Court on three counts of signing another person's name to credit card sales slips.

Judge Hadden W. Roth did not find evidence to hold him on two other similar charges after a preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court.

Verheyden was ordered to appear in Superior Court Monday.

Woman Sentenced For Marijuana Count

Wynn Martinez, 28, of Sausalito yesterday was placed on one year probation by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court and given a 30-day suspended jail sentence for possessing marijuana.

Miss Martinez was arrested Oct. 4 at her home.

Motorcyclist Hurt

Jerry Lewis, 20, of 1521 Buchanan Street, Novato, was reported in good condition today at Novato General Hospital, where he is being treated for a broken knee and vertebra, suffered at 5:05 p.m. yesterday on Sutro Avenue at Center Roas when, according to Novato police, his motorcycle collided with a station wagon driven by Stuart E. Ramsay, 17, of 110 Kaden Drive, Novato. Ramsay was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

VALLEY

work it our somehow. If we can't work it out as civilized people . . . you're vigilantes; you're Ku Klux Klan."

The vigilante mood appeared most plainly as Green took the floor. His cafe was partially burned early yesterday in what Bloom declared was definitely arson. It was at the cafe that an Easter egg hunt for children was organized which preceded the playing of loud rock and roll that disturbed some valley residents on Easter and last Sunday.

The day after Easter, the San Geronimo Valley Association board met in a special session and issued a statement decrying the noise, the egg hunt, and charging that foul language was used over the loudspeaker and indecent literature was passed out at the gathering.

Furdas repeated the indecent literature charge last night, although he later emphasized that nobody was charging Green with responsibility for it.

"During the last three weeks," declared Green, a thin, intense young man dressed in high mod style, "a shotgun blast was fired through the floor of my cafe, two shots were fired through the window." At this point someone applauded.

Turning paler, Green shouted "You are damn fools! Last night my place was set on fire." (Someone clapped again.) "It is open for business. It will remain open for business." (A round of applause.) "I have put up with malicious gossip." (Drop dead!" shouted someone.)

At this point Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, sitting with other county officials at the head table, arose to silence the interrupters. Green continued, shouting: "You've locked yourself into a lead closet, but my music is going to get into your closet and it's going to drive you out." (Shouted a woman: "Are you up for sale?")

As Green continued, defending the Easter happening as a good deed for the valley's children, timekeeper Jean A. Bevans announced loudly, "You're time is up." It was the first time he had called the three-minute rule for speakers which Furdas announced when the meeting opened.

"And your 30 years are up!" shouted back Green. "I have been shot at and I have been burned and I'll damned well take more than three minutes to yell about it."

Green protested he had been "slandered in the newspaper" by a report of the San Geronimo Valley Association's board meeting.

"You're a liar," shouted Furdas, adding, "The I-J is a liar, too." (Winifred C. Frederick of Lagunitas, who later made a plea for understanding between the embattled groups, reminded Furdas he was not present at the board meeting.)

It was after Green's outburst that Plant first took the floor to endores an earlier suggestion by Baar that the loud music lovers had their rights, but should find a better place for their entertainment than the main intersection of Forest Knolls. He and Mrs. Frederick succeeded in turning the meeting from vindictiveness to a search for cooperation.

Besides Baar, the meeting was attended by Supervisors William A. Gnoss and Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. The latter quipped, "I'm glad Bud Baar represents the San Geronimo Valley."

Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales and Mountanos earlier answered questions regarding law enforcement in the valley. Other officials present to answer questions represented county welfare, public works and health departments.

Charge Dismissed In Burglary Case

A burglary charge against Alexander Jose Semons, 20, of San Rafael was dismissed yesterday in Marin Superior Court at the request of District Attorney Bruce B. Bales, who said that Semons is serving a prison sentence from a Monterey County conviction.

Semons was accused of burglarizing a Sausalito residence on June 24, 1968.

Inmate On Work Permit In Custody

San Quentin Prison's new work-furlough program, marred by the disappearance of two of its inmate participants, had a clean slate again today.

Associatiate Warden James W. L. Park reported that William J. Arrowsmith, 25, one of two inmates who fled while out of the prison under the special program, was captured yesterday in Dallas, Tex.

Arrowsmith, who had been due for parole in nine weeks, disappeared Feb. 24 from a San Rafael gas station, where he had been working as an attendant at night, returning to the prison during the day. The next day, David R. Clutts, 31, another work-furlough inmate, fled. He was arrested earlier this month in East Peoria, Ill.

Park said Arrowsmith's arrest was reported by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, but details were not available. A state correctional officer would be sent to bring Arrowsmith back to California if he waives extradition and no charges are pressed against him in Texas, Park said.

There have been 10 inmates in the work-furlough program since it was started five months ago. In addition to the two who fled, two have completed the program and six are currently in it, according to Park.

Bennett Gains Hearing In Gas Antitrust Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today scheduled a hearing in the long standing antitrust suit against El Paso Natural Gas Co. despite the government's decision to drop the case.

The action came on a motion by William M. Bennett, of Kentfield, a former member of the California Public Utilities Commission, who accused the Justice Department of a "shocking disregard" of its responsibilities in failing to pursue the suit.

At issue is a lower court decision ordering El Paso to sell the $231 million Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp., which it acquired in 1956, to the Colorado Interstate Gas Co.

The hearing, set for April 29, also may provide Bennett an opportunity to air his charges concerning services performed for El Paso Natural Gas by a New York law firm of which both President Richard M. Nixon and Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell were partners.

Stolen Syringes Lead To Arrests

Two men were booked into Marin County Jail last night on suspicion of burglary after they were found to have in their car about 10 syringes, believed to have been stolen from Larkspur's Greenbrae Pet Hospital, police said today.

Arrested were Hans Von Atzigen, 20, of 317 Fourth Street, Sausalito, and Barry P. Baukol, 21, of 220 Canal Street, San Rafael, with bail set at $6,250 each.

Police said they questioned the men at 8:45 p.m. in the 2000 block of the Redwood Highway frontage road and the men darted over the highway's pedestrian overcrossing. Corte Madera officer Clifford Niederer, called to assist, found the front door glass smashed at the pet hospital at 2104 Redwood Highway and later police found the syringes in the men's car parked at Lucky Drive and Fifer Road.

Death Is Due To Meningitis

The death of Stephen Peck, 17, of San Anselmo, on April 2, was due to a noncontagious type of meningitis caused by a colitis infection, Dr. Donovan O. Cooke, Marin County coroner said today.

The youth developed an infection in his bloodstream which brought on the meningitis, Dr. Cooke explained.

TAX

for moving expenses, would carry a price tag of $110 million this year and $100 million a year thereafter.

The limit on deductions for charitable contributions, currently 30 per cent of income for all but a few taxpayers, would be raised to 50 per cent at an annual cost in lost revenue of $10 million.

Reforms aimed at tax breaks widely used by the wealthy include imposing a 50 per cent ceiling on the amount of an individual's total income now sheltered from taxation by exemptions and loopholes.

The LPT, or Limit on Tax Preference, plan would tax income now exempted because of allowances for accelerated depreciation on real estate, certain farm losses and intangible drilling expenses in the oil industry.

An even bigger revenue boost, $500 million a year, would result from requiring a taxpayer with more than $10,000 in tax preferences to allocate his itemized deductions between taxed and untaxed income.

Present rules permit application of all deductions against the taxable portion of an individual's income. Under the allocation-of-deductions change, whatever fraction of income is nontaxable would be allocated a corresponding fraction of the deductions.

The administration also proposes treating mineral production payments as loans, increasing revenue after the first year by $200 million annually.

Cracking down on "multiple corporations"—corporate groups that remain fragmented in order to cash in on special tax breaks for small businesses — would eventually bring in $235 million more per year, revenue estimators said.

ABM

Los Angeles acknowledged that the short time for reaction of an ABM system against surprise attack is a severe problem.

"But it seems to me far better to place that burden upon a defensive system which would not trigger a nuclear exchange rather than upon our intercontinental ballistic missiles, which certainly would if they had to be launched on warning," McMillan said.

Youth Nabbed In Drug Probe

A 20-year-old San Rafael youth who, with a companion, parked on the driveway at the home of a Forest Knolls woman Sunday was arrested on suspicion of possession of dangerous drugs, sheriff's deputies said today.

Thelma V. Hansen said that when she arrived home two men in a red Volkswagen drove off from her home. She called a deputy because she said she thought one had a gun.

Deputy Weldon Travis, who stopped the men a short distance from her home, found no gun but said that Robert Sumner Jones Jr., 22, of 870 Estancia Way, San Rafael had five yellow capsules in a tin container tucked into his belt.

His companion, Harvey James Ross, 21, of $364 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, was not arrested.

Jones was freed from jail after paying $315 bail and was to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow.

Burglars Loot Lagunitas Store

Burglars who stacked boxes outside the Lagunitas Store on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Lagunitas Saturday night to get to a high window entered the store and took an undetermined amount of merchandise, sheriff's deputies said today.

The window had been smashed, but the intruders apparently left through a rear door which they pried open.

The owner of the store, W. Michael Scott, had not yet determined what was missing, officers said.

Sen. McCarthy, TV Interviewer Plan To Marry

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, and Elizabeth Ann Nelson of Neskowin, Ore., will be married Saturday afternoon in Humboldt County, his office announced today.

It will be the second marriage for both.

Mrs. Nelson, 43-year-old mother of four, is familiar to Boise, Idaho, residents as a television interviewer and expert and lecturer on the Middle East, according to the senator's office.

McCarthy, 45, a state senator for 19 years, has seven children by his marriage to the former Ursula McCarthy. The couple was divorced last year.

The wedding, at the Benbow Inn near Garberville, will be attended by close friends and performed by Marin County Superior Court Judge E. Warren McGuire.

Although renting an apartment in Sacramento during the legislative session, the McCarthys will make their home in Marin County.

Architect Set For Classrooms

Kentfield School District trustees last night selected the architectural firm of Corlett and Spackman of San Francisco to design the proposed hearing handicapped classrooms at the A. E. Kent School.

The firm, the district's architects for 20 years, was chosen out of five applicants at a four-hour special meeting, Supt. Anthony G. Bacich reported.

The classrooms are sponsored by the County Schools Office, to cost between $175,000 and $200,000 and are expected ot be ready for occupancy in September 1970, Bacich said.

Murder Suspect Demands Only Best Attorney

OAKLAND (UPI)—"I want the best lawyer money can buy," said the Michigan man accused of slaying an Oakland dentist.

"You'll need him," replied Municipal Court Judge Martin Pulich yesterday as he put over until tomorrow the arraignment of Chester Johnson, 21.

Johnson was brought here from Michigan with his girlfriend Terry Phelps, 19. He is suspected of the Feb. 19 shooting of dentist Glenn Ivar Olsen, 54, as the victim pleaded for his life.

"Chester wanted to kill everybody he robbed," Miss Phelps told police. They said she also implicated Johnson in the Southern California slaying of Loren Silliphant, 18, son of TV writer-producer Stirling Silliphant.

TV Antenna Poles Denied

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night refused to grant an encroachment permit for two 30-foot cable television antenna poles on Beach Road at Belvedere Avenue, chairman George V. Banning reported.

The application by Robert D. Lewis of Mill Valley for the two poles to be spaced 18 feet apart was denied because of objections from more than 100 residents in the area, Banning said.

The commission also granted an encroachment permit to Walter G. Andres of 2 Bellevue Avenue to construct a pier across a one-foot strip of city-owned property.

Fire Bonds Backed

The Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce board of directors yesterday endorsed the Tamalpais Fire District's $800,000 bond issue for improvements to water mains and the Homestead Valley fire station, construction of a new station in Tamalpais Valley, two new trucks and a new alarm system, Mgr. Granville L. Beedle reported.

Petaluma Councilman Against Six Districts

The Petaluma City Council last night declared it wants no part of a plan to divide the city into six council electoral districts and that any charter amendament to that effect must come from an initiative petition.

Council candidate Donald P. Petro, who unsuccessfully attempted to gather enough names to place the measure on the June 10 ballot, last night asked the council to include it in the election to avoid a special election to decide it later.

The petition requires 15 per cent of the registered voters who cast ballots in the previous general election, of 1,234 valid names. Petro claims to have gathered 1,224 and promised to continue circulating the petition until he has enough names to call an election. If that is accomplished, the council, under law, must call a special election within 60 days.

City Atty. Edouard E. Robert questioned the legality of the document in circulation and said the district boundaries would be ever changing because of frequent annexations and the fast growth of the city.

Councilman Robert S. Lipman, candidate for mayor, called Petro's request "a last ditch effort" and said he had seen little support for the plan. Lipman urged Petro to refine the plan and prepare a better form for the council elections in 1971.

Councilman Phillip L. Joerger, candidate for reelection, also spoke in opposition, saying that having a councilman responsible to only one district would place the councilan in a bad position. "That's the type of system that creates little dynasties," Joerger said.

Warning the council that the issue will come to a vote no matter what it decides, Petro said, "When I get enough signatures — then it's done — there will be no more arguments."

The Petaluma City Council Also:

BOND ISSUES — Introduced an ordinance that will place five bond issues on the June 10 ballot. They include fire station improvements, police station enlargement, park development, widening of Petaluma Boulevard and the construction of a Caulfield Lane overcrossing of Highway 101 and a Second D Street bridge.

CHARTER—Approved a resotion to present two charter amendments to the voters on June 10. One would allow the library board of trustees to enter into a merger agreement with the county library system and the other would allow the council to introduce an ordinance by a two-thirds vote rather than a majority.

MAP FEES — Adopted an ordinance raising fees for the submission of tentative and final subdivision maps. Tentative maps will cost $5 per lot and final maps, $70 per lot.

BIDS — Awarded a contract for purchase of a pick-up truck to Western Motors at a low bid of $1,907 and the contract for a pool car to Westerterp Brothers with a low bid of $1,879.

APPEAL — Granted the appeal of Jim Rose Chrysler-Plymouth Auto Sales that reversed the planning commission decision that the firm must install public improvements of curbs, gutters and sidewalks at its property at 123 Petaluma Boulevard South.

STAFFING — Received letter from Samuel H. DeLisle, executive manager of the Plumbing, Heating and Cooling Contractors of Marin, Sonoma and Mendocino counties that the city planning and building departments are overworked and understaffed. The council promised to study the problem at a study session next week.

NAME CHANGE — Approved the changing of the name of Garfield Drive off Ely Road to Willow Drive to conform with new plans for the subdivision street design.

PLAYGROUND — Approved a supervised recreational program at Cherry Valley School at a cost of $1,200. The program begins June 16.

BOXING — Heard a request from Larry Forney, council candidate and ex-prizefighter, that he be given authority to form a boxing team to represent Petaluma at the Junior Olympics. The council turned the matter over to the city attorney to study the city's liability in such a program.

EMBANKMENT — Approved plans for the construction of an embankment on Magnolia Avenue and will call for bids. The project was estimated to cost $4,300.

TOUR — Received an invitation from the recreation, music and park commission to tour the city parks on May 7. The group will leave city hall at 6 p.m.

YOUTHS — Heard Lipman request a study session be held next week to review youth problems.

Civic Center Annexation Is Proposed

The 1969 Marin County Grand Jury has, in its first two resolutions, tackled fire and police protection problems of residents of unincorporated areas as well as double taxation which affects city residents.

The jury recommended that the Marin Civic Center be annexed to the City of San Rafael so that it will be protected by the San Rafael Fire Department. This would mean a saving in insurance premiums, the jury added.

There should also be more rigid building requirements in areas where structural fire protection is not available, and a county fire protection district with different zones for areas that most need structural fire protection, according the the grand jury report.

The grand jury further recommends a county police service district for unincorporated areas but indicated that city residents should not have to pay for these services.

The report also requested the board of supervisors to increase county building fees so that the county building inspection department will be self-supporting.

The cost of the county counsel should be apportioned among "its numerous clients," the report continued, and city taxpayers should be relieved of the cost of county subdivision, engineering, maintenance and repair of secondary streets.

The grand jury noted that juries of other years have made similar recommendations and concluded with a request that state legislators re-introduce Assembly Bill 929, (Blackwell Bill) which aimed at solving double taxation for city residents.

Innocent Plea To Drug Possession

John Jeffery Faircloth, 18, of San Francisco, pleaded innocent today in Marin Superior Court to possessing marijuana and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. A jury trial was set for the week of July 21.

Faircloth was arrested with a 14-year-old girl on Mount Tamalpais Dec. 28.

Laser Can Spot Nuclear Tests?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Laser beam instruments beat seismographs in detecting underground nuclear tests, and the new instruments might be profitably used to monitor Soviet subsurface nuclear activity, says a California scientist.

Dr. Joleroy Gauger of McDonnell-Douglas Corp said the laser beam instruments can detect underground tests more quickly and cheaply than seismographs.

"Laser equipment like this costs only about $20,000, whereas a massive array of seismographs which the government has indicated it's using out in Montana to detect Russian tests might run into millions of dollars," he said.

Driver's Condition Is 'Satisfactory'

Harold Robert McAfee of 5 Kristin Lane, Novato, involved in an automobile accident on White's Hill last Wednesday, was reported in "satisfactory" condition today at Marin General Hospital.

McAfee's wife, Marvel, reported that her husband did not drive over the embankment as was reported by the California Highway Patrolmen to the Independent-Journal. He became ill, parked his car in neutral in a parking lot on the hill and fainted, whereupon his car rolled down the 300-foot hillside. Doctors are testing McAfee for possible encephalitis, Mrs. McAfee said.

New Trial Slated In Prison Killing

A new trial was set yesterday for the week of Aug. 4 in Marin Superior Court for an inmate of San Quentin's death row whose conviction for killing a prison factory foreman was overturned by a higher court.

The California Supreme Court ruled on March 10 that Sanchez' confession to stabbing Ralph Canning, 54, of Oakland, was obtained by coercion.

Sanchez was convicted in Marin Superior Court in December, 1965, of the stabbing of Canning, who died of at least 18 stab wounds. The inmate was serving his fourth term for narcotics sales at the time of the stabbing.

Terra Linda Wins At Band Festival

Terra Linda High School's 103-piece band was named the outstanding band at the Central Coast band festival at Monterey during the weekend.

Both the school band and the school orchestra won superior ratings at the festival, which attracted 35 high school bands, reported Gordon Lowe, band director.

MARK OF EXCELLENCE

If you're casting a wider shadow these days you could be in trouble

People in our "Stress Society" tend to over-indulge and as a result overweight and high blood pressure are common problems. If you're in your 40's or 50's the odds are high you have one or both of these problems. If you identify yourself with this group you'd be wise to do something about it. Like getting regular check-ups, finding out your limits, and sticking to them. If you've been thinking about life insurance, and discovered that the cost in your case is high, or even difficult to get, Manufacturers Life may be able to help. We have always believed that life insurance should be available to the largest group of people possible and at the lowest possible price. You will find the Man from Manufacturers well qualified and helpful in your selection of a plan to suit your particular needs. Call him soon.

Today is Tuesday, April 22, the 112th day of 1969 with 253 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn. The evening stars are Mercury and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1889, some 20,000 homesteaders massed along the border of the Oklahoma Territory awaiting the signal to start the Oklahoma Land Rush.

In 1898, Theodore Roosevelt resigned as Assistant Secretary of War to recruit members of his "Rough Riders."

In 1944, Allied forces invaded Dutch New Guinea in World War II.

In 1964, the New York World's Fair was opened by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

A thought for the day: American writer William Dean Howells once said, "They were Americans, and they knew how to worship a woman."

Plastic Bags Are Supplied

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —A. Q. Quinn said he finally got tired of buying postage stamps and then later finding them all stuck together and useless.

Quinn, 79, called on the postmaster and complained that the post office "is the only business I know that sells customers merchandise without a package to put it in." The result: All Memphis post offices now supply stamp purchasers with a plastic bag big enough to hold several 100-stamp sheets.

HEART OPENED

West opened the king of hearts, and East played the encouraging eight. West took the ace of hearts and then obediently led a third heart.

After taking the queen of hearts, a kind-hearted East would cash the ace of clubs and put South out of his misery. But when the hand was played in a tournament some years ago, my friend Charlie Solomon, veteran Philadelphia expert returned a low trump instead of cashing the ace of clubs.

Solomon knew his club trick wasn't going to run away. South couldn't have a singleton club and a void in diamonds because then he would need 12 cards in spades and hearts combined. South had at most seven trumps because East could see three in his own hand and three in the dummy; and South couldn't have started with more than four hearts.

OPTIMISTIC PLAY

South won the trump return with the queen and saw hope for his contract if West had three or four diamonds headed by the king. So South optimistically led his singleton diamond and tried a finesse with dummy's queen.

Solomon took the king of diamonds and cashed the ace of clubs to collect 200 points instead of the 100 he would have earned if he had taken the ace of clubs earlier.

An extra hundred points doesn't mean much at rubber bridge, but a man is willing to harden his heart when it may earn him a national championship.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1-no-trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ Q J 9 8 5 4 3
♡ J 7 6
♦ 4
♣ K Q.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four spades. Since you have nine points in high cards, the combined count must be 25 to 27 points. This should be enough for game, in view of your fine distribution, but is most unlikely to produce a slam. When you know the best final contract, bid it without delay. A long, complicated auction sometimes results in a misunderstanding, and there is no advantage in risking this.

KRUGERSDORP, South Africa (AP) — A white rhinoceros calf named Zibulo helped answer one of the animal world's best kept secrets. Zibulo's birth in a game reserve here enabled zoologists to determine that the gestation period of the rare white rhino is 483 days, (in this case, at least).

GETS AN ESCORT—Purdue University football star Leroy Keyes is escorted off the Lafayette, Ind., campus following his arrest yesterday. He was one of several students arrested for illegally occupying a campus building in a protest to an increase in tuition. (AP Wirephoto)

Sit-Ins, Strikes, Protests Spread In The Ivy League

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sit-ins, strikes and other protests have spread to more than a dozen campuses around the nation, including five Ivy League universities. The protests usually focus on racial or military issues.

About 2,000 students at Yale University voted last night to bar the Reserve Officers Training Corps program from their New Haven, Conn., campus.

The resolution is not binding on the university, whose faculty and trustees recently voted to withdraw academic credit from the ROTC. Yale has 8,300 undergraduate and graduate students.

At Harvard University, members of Students for a Democratic Society and their supporters moved into the administration building for the second time in two weeks. The five-hour sit-in by 100 students ended quietly when the protesters left as the working day ended.

SDS' announced purpose was to stop work in the building, and Harvard officials sent secretaries home and stood about debating the militants. SDS called the "mill-in" after students voted Friday to end a week-long strike, aimed at the administration's use of police to end an April 9 sit-in.

The protesters want ROTC banned from campus. The Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences has voted to make the program an extracurricular activity.

At Princeton University, scattered fistfights broke out when about 100 members of SDS blockaded two Marine Corps recruiters into a campus building. The officers were permitted to leave Clio Hall for lunch, but were prevented from returning.

Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. remained in a "state of emergency" today, as tension of a demonstration by armed blacl militant students pervaded the campus.

About 1,100 faculty members decided last night that the weekend seizure of a campus building by armed members of the Afro-American Society made discussion of discipline problems from earlier demonstrations impossible.

About 70 high school students staged an hour-long sit-in at Columbia University, demanding that the college open its doors unconditionally to graduates of four predominantly Negro high schools in New York City. Columbia officials promised to meet with the students to discuss the issue, which has been backed by SDS.

At Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind., officials granted amnesty to 41 students arrested yesterday in the administration building where they had gathered to protest an increase in tuition.

About 200 students had remained in the building until amnesty was granted. Among those arrected was Leroy Keys, All-American halfback.

Two campuses had a brighter outlook: students at Southern University in New Orleans, La., and at Mount St. Mary's College in Emmitsburg, Md., voted to end class boycotts and return to class.

Militant blacks at Southern University went back to classes after Gov. John McKeithen visited the campus, sa'd he thought their demands were justified, and promised to ask the district attorney to drop criminal charges against 21 students.

Freeway Development Plans Win Approval

The Rohnert Park City Council last night approved plans to develop the west side of Highway 101 and awarded sale of bonds totaling $294,242 to finance the project.

City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan reported that the state Division of Highways has budgeted for 1970-71 to construct exit and entrance ramps on Highway 101 at the Rohnert Park expressway. He said construction will probably begin early next year.

Bonds were approved for sale to Stone and Youngbert at 7 per cent interest. The firm, however, said the sale was contingent upon Gov. Ronald Reagan's signature on Assembly Bill 76, emergency legislation to finance repairs to state highways damaged by floods. The firm said that if the bill isn't signed, some construction money might need to be diverted and that the local ramps may not then be built.

The council said it would consider awarding construction bids at the May 5 meeting. The project includes the construction of a new two-lane frontage road along Highway 101. It is expected that the road will be enlarged to four lanes when the interchange is completed and an overcrossing is under consideration.

The Rohnert Park City Council Also:

REZONING — Approved the rezoning request of Paul Golis to change agricultural zoning to residential on 60 acres south of Highway 101 and east of the city.

MOBILE HOMES — Approved the use permit application of Everett Giffin for a 40-acred mobile home park on Snyder Lane.

APPLIANCES — Approved the temporary use permit requested by Home Appliances Co. for a sales and service operation on the frontage road on the west side of Highway 101.

DEDICATIONS — Set May 17 as the tentative dedication date for the new municipal golf course and May 24 as the tentative dedication date for the community and recreation center.

STANDS — Appropriated $500 to finance the construction of a concession stand and announcing booth at Alicia Park.

SPRUCE-UP — Approved $85 to the chamber of commerce to help finance award decals for winning homes in the annual spruce-up campaign.

Auditorium In Need Of Funds

Another $500,000 will be needed to bring the Veterans Memorial Auditorium into first-class condition, board of directors of Fair-Marin Inc. estimated last night.

The auditorium, now under construction, will have 872 seats. The directors decided it would take another $500,000 in private funds to increase the seating to the full 2,100 and install complete stage, lighting and sound equipment.

The directors, headed by Harold Stockstad, discussed fund-raising possibilities, but reached no decision.

William Carter of the Mountain Play Association, chairman of the services committee, reported that his committee is trying to get an inventory of equipment owned by various performing arts groups in Marin and serve as a clearing house for the scheduling of events for the performing arts.

Healdsburg Driver Injured In Wreck

A Healdsburg man was injured at 2:10 a.m. today in a one-car accident on Highway 101 near Washington Street in Petaluma.

John Mills Jr., 24, was reported in satisfactory condition at Hillcrest Hospital with knee and facial injuries. The California Highway Patrol said Mills fell asleep at the wheel and struck a bridge abutment.

Sets Session

The Kentfield Fire District board will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the fire house. A budget discussion is planned.

Sonoma Jury Repeats On Board's Pay

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — The Sonoma County Grand Jury yesterday reaffirmed its decision that the supervisors' salaries should be increased from $13,200 to $16,000 in 1971, but that they should not receive any pay from any other county agency or board.

The supervisors, led by Ignazio A. Vella of Sonoma, had been considering asking for an amendment to an assembly bill that would pay them $50 per day as directors of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, had said that if the proposed $2,600 salary for the directors is to be part of his bill revamping the water agency, the supervisors must request it by signed letter or by resolution.

The Irate Taxpayers of Sonoma County and the Sonoma County Taxpayers Association had protested both proposed increases.

The supervisors were scheduled to discuss their salaries today.

13th Annual Kite Day Set Saturday

The 13th annual kite day of Marin Country Day School will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at the school's campus at 5221 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera.

Prospective students and their parents may also attend the event which will include a picnic and informal baseball games.

Douglass Anniversary On Bench Is Noted

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Associate Justice William O. Douglas has become one of 11 men who have served 30 years on the Supreme Court.

In a rare departure from strict court procedure, Chief Justice Earl Warren noted yesterday that Douglas joins Associate Justice Hugo L. Black in the elite group. President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed Black Aug. 12, 1937, and Douglas April 17, 1939.

$4,000 Scholarship To Jennifer Davis

Jennifer Davis, a senior at San Rafael High School, has won a $4,000 college scholarship from Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Miss Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis of 112 Rafael Drive, San Rafael, was one of 16 Northern California high school seniors to receive the award at a dinner Sunday night in San Francisco.

Miss Davis plans to major in history or journalism at Stanford University.

At San Rafael High School, she is student body secretary, was editor of the school newspaper last year, has served on the staffs of the school yearbook and literary magazine, is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation.

Runners-up — Jeff Godwin of 130 Highland Avenue, San Rafael, and also a senior at San Rafael High; Brian Carlisle of 2511 Las Gallinas Avenue, San Rafael, a senior at Terra Linda High, and Katherine Colwell, a Marin Catholic High senior of 22 Ida'a Court San Anselmo — each received five shares of PG&E stock.

Merritt Hostage Threat Subsides

OAKLAND (UPI)—A shouting, excited crowd of about 400 students at Merritt Junior College last night threatened to hold nine school trustees hostage.

"Nobody leaves till we get this settled tonight," shouted one of the student leaders, Larry Thomas, who then ordered his followers to block doorways of the auditorium where Peralta Junior College trustees were meeting.

But, the students gave way and allowed the board members to leave a few minutes later after an emotional plea by Merritt College President Dr. Norvel Smith.

'APRIL FOOLIES'

Rehearsing a scene from "April Foolies," a musical comedy by William Carpenter of Novato, are (from left) Mrs. Leonard J. Genetin, Mrs. Leonard Pieraccini, Mrs. Charles Sahl and Mrs. Eugene Cordone, all of Novato. The production will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday at Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church in Novato, sponsored by the Catholic Daughters. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

56-Unit Santa Venetia Apartments Win Nod

A 56-unit apartment project in Santa Venetia, at North San Pedro Road and La Brea Way, won a unanimous go-ahead from the Marin County Planning Commissioners yesterday. (Another planning commission story, page 1.)

The commissioners approved P. J. Tarrant's apartment project on condition that that either a bond or a contract will be drawn up to assure the proper landscaping will be installed by the developer.

Walter Rudolph, president of Gallinas Village Community Services District, and Albert Vaccaro and William Loeber, representing the Gallinas Village Improvement Association, protested. But their protests were not nearly so intense as the battle they put up last December when Western Hosts tried to put in 55 units on the same site. The big difference was that the Western Host plan had three and four-bedroom units, whereas Tarrant's project is one and two-bedrooms.

Marin County Planning Commission Also:

VILLA LAGUNA — Approved plans for a 202-unit apartment complex called Villa Laguna Apartments on 11 acres of land on the north side of Seminary Drive, just east of Ricardo Road, Strawberry Point. Architect Morgan D. Howell of Hayward plans one and two-bedroom units, and recreational facilities including a swimming pool.

SERVICE STATION — Rejected by 5-to-1 vote a request for a service station next to Kentfield Fire Station at Kentfield corners. Michael Praszker dissented without comment. County Planner Wesley Wilkes said the north side of Sir Francis Drake is set aside for residential, and commercial should be concentrated on to the south of Sir Francis Drake and east of College Avenue.

STRAWBERRY COVE — Continued until May 5 a request by Leonard Fleishman of Belvedere to build a 112-unit apartment on seven acres of land south of Seminar Drive, east of Ricardo Road. This would be across the street from Villa Laguna Apartments.

'Swan Lake' Film Due Two Showings

A filmed performance of Margot Fonteyn and Rudolf Nureyev in the "Swan Lake" ballet will be shown at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in the San Rafael High School Auditorium and at 8:15 p.m. Friday in the Fine Arts Building at College of Marin.

The showing is sponsored by the college's community education office. Film distributors have made the movie available to colleges and universities before making it available commercially.

Tenor Substituted In Poulenc Opera

In a last-minute substitutuion, Allen Barker of San Francisco sang the role of the Marquis de la Force in place of David Johnson in the Friday and Saturday evening performances of Poulenc's opera "Dialogues des Carmelities" presented by the Dominican College Opera Theater.

For this reason the Independent-Journal's review on April 19 gave the name of David Johnson as printed on the program instead of Allen Barker.

Troupe To Open 'Impossible Years'

The Ross Valley Players' production of the Broadway comedy "The Impossible Years" opens at the Barn, Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross, this Friday at 8:30 p.m.

The play, starring Roger Garety and Jama Tegler as the antagonists on either side of the generation gap, will be presented at 8:30 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays through May 17.

Benjamin Franklin invented bifocals in 1784.

Planners Eye Better Image For Staffers

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, who was retained on his job by a 3-to-2 vote on the county supervisors last Friday, carried on as usual at the all-day meeting of the Marin County Planning Commission yesterday.

In order to improve the planning department's relations with the public, Commissioner Margaret Azevedo suggested that a document be prepared, "a sort of annual report to let the public know what the department is doing."

Her motion that this be recommended to the county supervisors passed by voice vote. Walter F. Freitas abstained because he said he needs more information.

Another proposal, by Eugene R. Trombley, was tabled for the time being. Trombley wanted to set up a grievance committee among the planning commissioners to listen to anyone who might have complaints about the planning director or staff.

"We already have a committee," said Dr. Upton. He was referring to a committee composed of himself, Chairman Hugh Dougherty and Niels Schultz Jr., to study the 1969 Grand Jury's criticism of the planning director.

State Challenging Title To Tidelands

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The state Attorney General's office has launched a legal campaign against the filling of San Francisco Bay.

Charles A. O'Brien, chief assistant attorney general, said the state has challenged the title to tidelands held by local communities and seeking to block all filling permits for nonmaritime uses.

He said the full-scale campaign was started with a suit filed against Westbay Community Associates, controlled by financier David Rockefeller. The group plan a two-mile long development on bay tidelands between Millbrae and Pal Alto.

The suit challenged local ownership of several hundred acres off Coyote Point in San Mateo County, contending the state granted the tidelands to the cities of San Mateo and Burlingame for prompt development with commercial navigational and fishing projects.

"We are saying the state has title to these lands and that the lands are subject to a trust," O'Brien said. "That trust does not permit the development contemplated by Westbay."

The state grant contemplated commercial maritime developments—such as ports and marinas—and not the residential and industrial sites planned by the Rockefeller group, O'Brien said.

He said if the state wins the Coyote Point case, it will similarly block major developments planned in the East Bay and elsewhere.

No date has been set for the trial, which was filed on behalf of the state Lands Commission against Westbay, San Mateo, Burlingame, San Mateo County and San Francisco.

Savings Association Displaying Photos

An exhibit of award winning photography is on display at American Savings and Loan Association, 550 Las Gallinas Avenue, San Rafael, through May 8.

The display includes the best photographs selected in monthly competition during 1968 by the Professional Photographers of Northern California Inc.

To Share Grant

Dominican College of San Rafael is among 19 California colleges which will share in a grant from the Babcock and Wilcox Co. The firm, which manufacturers such things as nuclear power systems, announced it would grant $178,900 for distribution among not more than 638 schools.

Church Granted School Permit

Valley Baptist Church will get a use permit for an elementary school in Los Ranchitos, but not for 175 children as requested, County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill ruled today.

Cordill announced he will approve the kindergarten-through-eighth grade school to be conducted in existing church buildings at 3 North San Pedro Road, near Merrydale Road. But he will limit total enrollment to between 80 and 100 pupils. "If they go over that, they'll have to have a new hearing and a new review," said Cordill.

The Rev. Warren A. Conrad of Valley Baptist Church asked for a school for 175 pupils, to be operated Monday through Friday.

Introducing
The smoothest whisky ever to come out of Canada!

Compare Windsor with your usual American or Canadian whisky. Once you do, you'll never settle for less, or pay more!

Tonight, make the comparison: make one drink with your "usual," the other with Windsor. You'll be amazed at the sippin' smoothness of this remarkable new import. That's because only Windsor is made from hardy Canadian prairie grains and pure, clear glacial waters. And only Windsor is aged in Canada's mile-high, dry Rocky Mountain air. All this, yet Windsor is priced right in line with leading domestic whiskies because we import it, then bottle it here.

ON TOUR FRIDAY on the Peacock Gap Garden Club house and garden tour will be the newly completed house of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pinkus at 11 San Marina Drive. Upstairs is the loft with a breakfast setting for two and the blue and white master bedroom, furnished with Victorian wicker furniture. The house also features a sculptured cupid from the Old Fox Theater in San Francisco. From left are Mmes Pinkus, the hostess; Donald Schweitzer and James Graddy.

ELEGANCE IS the keynote of the Edward Snygg home at 152 Peacock Drive, which will be among the six houses and gardens on tour Friday at Peacock Gap. Most of its furnishings in the living room have been in the family for many years and a formal dining setting will be shown. Here Mrs. C. Connie Carpou, left, is shown the house by its owner, Mrs. Snygg.

Homes And Gardens On Tour

Sic houses in the Peacock Gap area will be open for the Peacock Garden Club's spring house and garden tour on Friday. Tour hours are 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The tour homes have been selected for their variety of style, decor and family interests, and club members will do appropriate table settings at each residence for the day. Refreshments will be served in the afternoon.

Mrs. Eugene Schenk is ticket chairman, and tickets also will be available at each house during the tour.

Homes on view are:

The John Taylor home with stained glass windows in the double entry doors and a collection of family antiques. Built on the lagoon, the house has a flavor of the past combined with contemporary comforts.

The Joseph Bregante home on a hilltop with a wide view of the bay and hills. The master suite is built for convenience, and the owner has a complete workshop off the laundry area that is separate yet close to the rest of the house. Close by, also, are the pool and its garden courtyard.

The Edward Snygg home is done with a formal elegance featuring an antique Louis XVI console in the dining area and a Treiblj tapestry in the foyer. The breakfast room opens out onto a deck and gardens at the fifth fairway of the golf course.

The Nathan Pinkus home is a new modified A-frame with a fine view of the area from the dining and living room. Upstairs is a loft with the blue and white master bedroom with Victorian wicker furniture.

The James Culp home borders on the golf course and contains an ingenious table fashioned from a golf trophy in its living room. An electronic oven and built-in vacuum are among the house's modern conveniences. A dramatic living room opens onto the deck overlooking the golf course. A birthday party set up will be featured in the children's wing.

The Donald Ingalls home is distinguished by the paintings in the living room and contrasts are provided by the dining area on a balcony setting and the game room with its pool table and old fashioned player piano. It's a townhouse done in exhilerating color and contains objects expressing the originality of its owner family.

A MODIFIED A-frame just completed takes advantage of the wide view from the hill from its living and dining area. It's the Nathan Pinkus home with an interesting combination of furnishings and conversational objects. The house tour will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday. Committee members are Mmes Pinkus, Schweitzer and Graddy. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

Simple, Honest Rules Make Pool Sharing A Happy Time

The infamous man in the play who "came to dinner" has nothing on the people who uninvited and unthinking, invade a man's home to use his swimming pool, and because they are so eager to share this pleasure with him, they bring their friends, also uninvited.

According to the National Swimming Pool Institute, the pool owner who establishes some simple, honest rules for guests as well as family members before the first gallon of water is put in the pool, is the happy host.

FAMILY POOL POLICY

Rule 1. Guests should be invited with a firm indication that only the ones being asked directly are the invited ones.

Rule 2. A time limit should be set on the invitation, and the hostess should indicate whether a mealtime is included.

Rule 3. Each member of the family should have a special time for special guests, and this schedule should be carefully adhered to, unless a family decision is made to change it.

Rule 4. A "Pool Manners" chart should be hung where guests and family alike can read about what constitutes good manners in and around the pool.

GUEST POOL POLICY

Rule 1. Show you're grateful for being invited by not overstaying your time.

Rule 2. Unless you are specifically invited for a meal, don't try to promote one.

Rule 3. If you live close enough, come in your bathing suit with a robe or beach coat.

Rule 4. Be the kind of guest who brings her own beach towel, bathing cap (for females), sun tan oil and slippers.

Rule 5. Remember that pools are kept cleaner if you shower off sun tan oil before going in.

Rule 6. Don't ask to bring other people with you, when you've been invited by yourself or with other members of your family.

Suggestion: after you've been invited a number of times, you've proved yourself as a pool guest. Send or bring a poolside gift that's useful and imaginative.

HELEN HELP US!

New Jersey Group Encourages Self-Help Through SLANT

DEAR HELEN:

Because you have shown concern for the nation's increasing narcotics menace, I would like to bring to your attention the efforts of young people in Hudson County, N.J.

Encouraged by civic officials, teen-agers in high schools and junior highs have formed an organization known as SLANT — (Students' League Against Narcotic Temptation.) Although still in its early stages, SLANT has shown great promise and has become an energetic community endeavor.

Student leaders of SLANT intend it to be a preventive, not a rehabilitation venture. Therefore, we are inviting members of police departments, representatives of the local health board and ex-addicts to give talks at our schools. They are most cooperative.

In my town, North Bergen, town meetings are regularly held to keep the parents informed of the dangers illegal drugs present to their youngsters.

I would like to emphasize that the chief reason for the success of SLANT is that the students operate it. I would be happy to receive letters from interested readers who want to learn more about our organization, perhaps with the hope of starting a chapter in their own schools. — DENNIS E. RHODES

DEAR DENNIS:

Thank you for telling us about an organization which I'm sure will catch hold in many schools. The silent majority is finally making itself heard and this, more than anything else, will perhaps bring the wavering minority back to reason.

For further information about SLANT — "Students' League Against Narcotic Temptation" — please send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

DENNIS E. RHODES
506 - 80th Street
North Bergen, N.J.—H.

P.S. —I would also lke to hear from other schools where similar programs have been started. Hopefully, we can get a nationwide new SLANT on the drug problem, if all you interested students out there will cooperate. Do write! — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Your letter to "Scared" who thought he had VD, stated that in his state "Your parents will have to know if you are underage."

More and more states are changing this law, for it sometimes frightens juveniles away from needed treatment at venereal disease clinics.

In California, since October, 1968, minors 12 years of age or older can be examined and treated for VD without parental consent. This is a service performed by departments of public health at clinics throughout the state. The law states in part, "The consent of the parent, parents, or legal guardian of such minor shall not be necessary to authorize hospital, medical and surgical care related to such disease, and such parent, parents or legal guardian shall not be liable for payment for any care rendered pursuant to this section." — CALIFORNIA PUBLIC HEALTH DOCTOR

DEAR DOCTOR:

Thank you for clarifying my somewhat understated answer. Here's an added note to those who suspect they may have contacted a venereal disease:

Call your public health department or your family doctor and ask information on VD clinics near you. While physicians and health clinics make reasonable attempts to involve parents of minors, in many states these days, your secret will be kept, if you so request. — H.

Youth And Agency Workshop Set On New Methods Of Volunteer Service

Invitations have been sent to Marin agency professional staff members to attend a youth-agency workshop, titled Kaleidoscope, to stimulate social welfare agencies to open new volunteer areas for participation by young people.

The conference will be held tomorrow from 8:30 a.m. at Dominican College, sponsored by the Volunteer Bureau of Marin. The day will open with breakfast at the dining hall and convene in Guzman Hall auditorium with a series of youth speakers who will discuss involvement of young adults in volunteer work.

The workshop will then break into small discussion groups with agency staff and youth to explore new approaches and ideas for volunteer service.

Special guests will represent such volunteer groups as the Mission Rebels, Huckleberry House, San Francisco Switchboard, Western Addition Youth and Community Service Institute of San Francisco State College.

Youth attending have been selected for their interest and involvement in volunteer work and their community.

The special guests will set up informational groups about their volunteer organizations during the afternoon on the lawn area for conference members to visit.

The workshop will end with "an irrelevant flick," says its chairman Alan B. Hansen, who attends Somona State College. Others on the committee are Horace White, Denise and Debby Fox, Christy Fairchild, Joyce Schriedman, Andy Otto, Barbara Figone, Sheryl Bernard, Mmes. William Morris, Lynn Jessup and Harvey N. Black Jr.

William Sarm Marries In Eastern Rite

William Geoffrey Sarm of Tiburon claimed Christine Rapetti as his bride at an 11 o'clock ceremony Saturday at St. Joseph Church in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Margaret Laffey of Swissvale, Pa., was maid of honor. William I. Sarm of Tiburon, the bridegroom's father, was best man. Paul and Edward Rapetti of Fox Chapel, Pa., the bride's brothers, were the ushers.

A reception at the Pittsburgh Field Club followed the marriage service.

Christine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joseph Rapetti of Fox Chapel. Her sisters are Barbara and Jeanne Rapetti of Fox Chapel.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William I. Sarm of Tiburon. He is a graduate of North Reading High School in North Reading, Mass., and of the University of Notre Dame in Notre Dame, Ind. He is employed by the Del Monte Corp. in San Francisco.

The bride was graduated from St. Agnes Cathedral High School in Rockville Centre, N.Y., and from St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind. She has been teaching in Verona, Pa.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii the couple will live in San Francisco.

Mrs. C. J. Gay Elected By Strawberry Guild I

Members of Strawberry Guild I of Sunny Hills have elected a 10-year-member of the guild, Mrs. Charles J. Gay, president.

She previously served as vice president, secretary and has held various chairmanships in the guild. Members are working on plans for the dinner dance to be held in June. The annual event raises funds used to make the candy leis sold by the guild at the Grape Festival.

MRS. CHARLES GAY

"Quite frankly in working for Sunny Hills I gain more than I can ever give," says Lotus Gay.

Her other activities include Cub Scouts, Brownies, Girl Scouts and Peace Lutheran Church where she has served as flower chairman on the altar guild and taught Sunday school. She has also served as a room mother and helped in the library at Strawberry Point School.

The Gays have lived in Marin for 19 years. Charles Gay is a body shop manager for an automobile dealer in San Francisco. Their children are Sharlee, who will be married in the fall; Dennis, 18, a student at General Motors School in San Leandro; and Kerry, 7, a first grade student at Strawberry Point School.

Mrs. Gay's hobbies are cooking, baking, gardening and bicycle riding with Kerry. She says she comes up with brilliant ideas and her husband, the talented one, has to carry them out.

"The latest project is reupholstering the furniture in our family room," Mrs. Gay explains.

Dental Health

Good dental health practices should begin in childhood. Instruct children to eat as many raw fruits and vegetables as possible and cut down on sweets between meals.

LINDA SMITH

Linda Smith To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Smith of San Rafael have announced the engagement of their daughter, Linda Diane Smith, to Gordon Russell Hasler. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hasler of San Rafael.

Linda is the sister of Robert, David, Richard and Debbie Smith of San Rafael. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith of Vallejo are her grandparents. She is a graduate of San Rafael High School and Marinello School of Beauty, San Rafael.

Gordon is the brother of Georgie and Sherry Hasler of San Rafael and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hasler of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. William Tassett of San Francisco.

He also is a San Rafael High School graduate and is attending the College of Marin.

Oct. 25 nuptials are planned.

Parson Forbids Picture-Taking

CROWLAND, England — A village parson has decided he's had enough of flashbulbs in the church.

He is now charging couples $2.50 if they want their photographs taken during wedding ceremonies in his 15th century abbey.

"I have had to do it because some guests think they have the run of the place if they have a camera in their hands," said the Rev. Cutler.

In the future, photographs taken inside the abbey will be allowed only when the bride and groom are standing at the chancel rails.

Use Permit For East San Rafael Dog, Cat Kennel Is Turned Down

San Rafael City Council last night denied a use permit for a dog and cat kennel in East San Rafael where an industrial park is planned. (Another San Rafael City Council story, page 1.)

The decision came after a two-and-one half hour hearing during which two councilmen absented themselves from deliberations.

Councilman Frederick C. Robbins left because he was on the planning commission when the matter was discussed in December, and Councilman Fred C. Jensen left because he spoke as an interested citizen when the commission approved the application Feb. 25.

The applicants, Stanely Goldberg and Robert R. Rudholm, had appealed the conditions attached to the permit, and adjacent land owners appealed the granting of the permit entirely.

Attorney Albert Bianchi, representing the applicants, argued that the kennel for 48 dogs and 20 cats at 535 Jacoby Street, between Jacoby Street and Highway 17, wouldn't be detrimental to the area.

Attorney Hugh Allen, representing Commerce Clearing House, owner of adjacent land being filled by soil and rocks from the Quail Hill development in the Terra Linda area, said the kennel would affect development of the area, he described as one of the main entrances to Marin County.

Robert Marquis, of Marquis and Stoller, architects for Commerce Clearing House, displayed a schematic plan for the area about 175 acres between Highway 17 and the ridgeland indicating an industrial park in the flat area, commercial and administrative - professional offices on higher land and garden apartments and green belts along the slopes. It illustrated potential development.

The land involved is owned by Irving Bartel, Armando Flocchini, Barney Norwitt, Quail Hill Inc. and Joseph Bonzani.

Marquis urged the council to look at total area, rather than act on small parcels in a piecemeal manner.

Councilman John A. Miskimen moved for denial and Mayor C. Paul Bettini and Councilman Harry A. Barbier agreed.

Councilmen authorized approval of state plans for construction of the new Highway 101 viaduct, which will require closing of the connection to Rice Road from the southbound 101 onramp.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen suggested approval not be executed until city staff meets with Division of Highway officials next week to see if an off ramp to Rice Road can be negotiated.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

SETBACK HEARING — Continued until May 5 at 8 p.m. a hearing on appeal of a planning commission decision to grant Allan C. Hock a frontyard setback variance (five feet instead of 15) at 279 Bungalow Avenue after protests from neighbors that it would create a traffic hazzard.

FIREMAN'S GROUP — Formally recognized the San Rafael Fireman's Association as a recognized employee organization for negotiations.

ZONING TEXT — Adopted three changes in the zoning ordinance, one adding ambulance service to uses in the general commercial district requiring a use permit, another correcting printing errors in a prior amendment, and a third to clarify the ordinance on uses requiring a use permit.

TUNNERL ALARM — Postponed until May 5 a proposed agreement with Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co. on placing a fire alarm circuit through the railroad's Puerto Suello Hill tunnel, which was destroyed by fire in July, 1961. City Manager Andersen said the proposed agreement wasn't ready for action.

CARNIVAL — Waived the license fee for a carnival to be sponsored June 7 and 8 by the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce for the benefit of the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum.

SEWER LINE — Granted Vukasin and Rigifion of Lafayette, Contra Costa County, a 60-day extension until June 29, to complete relocation of sewer lines in the vicinity of Clyde Avenue, Clinton Street and Tamlapais Avenue in connection with Highway 101 widening.

HEARING — Set May 5 at 8 p.m. for a hearing on rezoning of 1.89 acres on Northgate Drive, west of Faith Lutheran Church, from unclassified to administrative-professional as sought by Robert H. Busse, as the site for the central offices of Western Travelers Life Insurance Co.

HIRING — Approved the hiring of Mark C. Hedeen as a police cadet at $390 a month, effective April 18.

JOINT MEETING — Adjourned until a joint meeting with the San Rafael Sanitation District board at 7 p.m. tomorrow at West End Villa to discuss sanitation facilities, with the next regular session scheduled at 8 p.m. May 5 at city hall.

Johnson To Will Cash To Palace

SAN FANCISCO (AP) — Walter S. Johnson, who donated $2.3 million to the Palace of Fine Arts, says he is "arranging in my will for a million or two dollars to see that the restoration is finished properly."

Johnson, a retired businessman and financier, made the remark yesterday while opposing the installation of a statue by Spero Anargryos at the palace.

The palace was built for the 1915 Pan Pacific Exposition. Besides the money Johnson gave for its restoration, the state government has put up $2 million and the City of San Francisco $2.6 million.

OFFICE OATHS FOR MAYOR, COUNCILMEN

A mayor, two councilmen and two board of education members, victors in last Tuesday's elections, were sworn into office last night at San Rafael City Hall.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini and Councilmen Harry A. Barbier and Frederick C. Robbins were sworn into office for new terms.

Bettini, who called the margin of their victory a vote of confidence, pledged that the council would meet the city's problems.

Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. and Paul L. Jones, who were unopposed were sworn to new terms on the San Rafael Board of Education.

Seven Marinites Drafted In April

Seven Marin men were inducted into the Army in April by the Marin Selective Service Board, executive secretary Joy M. Kinzer reported today.

They are William H. Steel, William C. Markham and Ronald N. Pearson, all of Novato; James A. Smith Jr. and Bruce K. Billups, Marin City; Bernard J. Noel, San Rafael and Alan J. Mainini, Mill Valley.

The county draft quota for April was 43 while 38 men from Marin County have been ordered for induction in May. The quota is seldom filled, according to Mrs. Kinzer.

Alleged 1965 Bilking Case Set For Trial

The case of an octogenarian who said he was bilked of $120,000 in cash and property by two young women will come to trial in Marin Superior Court tomorrow almost three years after the death of the alleged benefactor.

In October 1965 Max Bootzin, a former Mill Valley man who was then 82 years old, filed the suit against Charmaine Klenman and Joan Taylor.

Bootzin died in June 1966, before the case came to trial, but since that time San Francisco attorney Vincent Hallinan has been named executor of his estate and is now plaintiff in the case.

Bootzin charged in his suit that the women moved into his home at 8 Robertson Terrace, Mill Valley, and that led by the promise Miss Klenman to marry hime, Bootzin gave her cash and property amounting to $120,000.

The suit asks recovery of alleged losses.

Jail, Probation Set

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court yesterday placed Michael Louis Brandt, 22, former Novato resident, on one year probation for having marijuana plants at his apartment on Jan. 18, 1968. He also ordered him to serve 20 days in jail.

Business License Tax To Be Studied

The San Anselmo City Council will hear a report from the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce recommending an increase in the business license tax at its 8 p.m. meeting today.

Other business before the council will be discussion of the animal control ordinance and continued discussion of a citizens committee report recommending acceptance of certain unaccepted streets.

Fleet Shift Curtails Viet Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vietnam naval air operations are being curtailed and the Seventh Fleet stretched to the limit with deployment of a 23-ship task force to protect U.S. reconnaissance missions off North Korea.

"We've got no slack," a Navy officer commented after the Pentagon yesterday announced assignment of an armada to the Sea of Japan where a Navy plane was shot down by North Korea last week.

One aircraft carrier and possibly other war ships of the Seventh Fleet have been pulled from the war effort to form a new Task Force 71 deploying somewhere off North Korea.

Officers said this means the Navy contribution to the U.S. bombing campaign in South Vietnam and Laos will be cut by roughly one-third. The United States has been keeping three aircraft carriers on the firing line in the Gulf of Tonkin; for the time being this will be reduced to two.

The Seventh Fleet's remaining four aircraft carriers are going into Task Force 71 along with three cruisers and 16 destroyers.

Thus, officers pointed out, all fleet carriers are now tied down on two fronts—the Sea of Japan and the Gulf of Tonkin. And officers described the 16 destroyers as a major share of the Seventh's heavy combat vessels.

How long the fleet can maintain both assignments under present conditions is a matter of concern to the Navy. With its six flattops occupied, the fleet has no replacement flexibility.

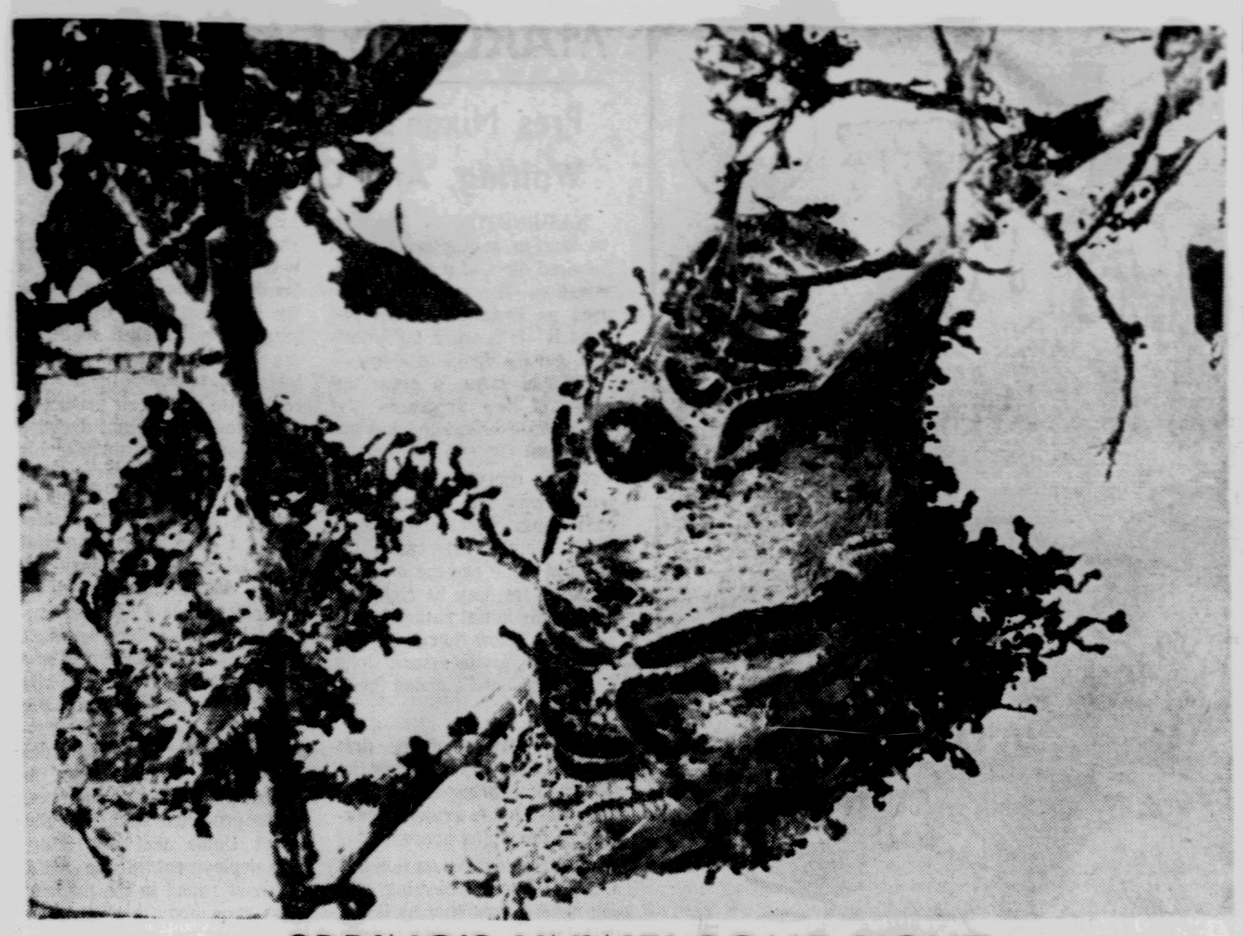
SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY
THIRD SECTION SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1958 17



SPRING'S UNWELCOME SIGHT

A heavy infestation of caterpillars—such as this attack on a tree outside 720 Idylberry Road in Marinwood—has struck Marin this year. The assault has been heavy and early, but officials are uncertain why. Phillip Economon, assistant Marin County agricultural commissioner, says the good weather may be attracting the pests. The larvae attack the foliage of oak, flowering plums and other trees, severely weakening them. Economon, whose department has been flooded with calls from conerned residents, said persons should telephone a pest control operator. If that isn't practical, a chemical named Servin may be bought at nurseries to combat the pests. (Independent-

Agricultural Tax Break Changes Eyed

Marin now has 86,400 acres in agricultural preserves, which enjoys lower tax assessments, Assessor Bert W. Broemmel reported today to the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Total land eligible for agricultural preserve is 214,000 acres out of the 333,000 acres in Marin.

The tax impact, however, is small, said Broemmel. Other taxpayers must now pay an average of about 1 per cent more because of lowered assessments on the preserves. However, rural businesses in West Marin are affected as much as 13 to 20 per cent, said Broemmel.

The supervisors met this morning in a workshop session with Broemmel, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, and rancher Boyd Stewart to discuss agricultural preserves and proposed new legislation.

Rancher Stewart, representing Marin Property Owners Association, reported that some ranchers like himself are staying away from agricultural preserves, mainly because they want to leave their land unclouded in case of death and inheritance taxes.

Supervisors asked Maloney to summarize amendments that are being considered for the California Land Conservation Act, which set up the agricultural preserves.

Work Of Vandals

Vandals who broke into the Sleepy Hollow Homes Association clubhouse Friday night broke windows, emptied fire extinguishers and dismantled sound equipment, sheriff's officers said today.

Bloomfield's Warring Bell Factions Handed Ultimatum

Bloomfield's feuding community club and volunteer fire department were handed an ultimatum last night by Tomales Bay School District trustees, custodians of the embattled Bloomfield bell:

Get together before 8 p.m. May 19 and agree on the bell's future, the warring factions were told, or the trustees will make the decision for them.

The hotly contested bell, which reached California around 1900 via sailing ship, was a part of the Bloomfield School at the time of the school's annexation to the Tomales district.

After annexation, it was spirited away by someone and kept hidden while the club insisted it go on a tower in the community's park and the firemen insisted it adorn their meeting place.

The school district became involved when it sought to mediate, claiming it had the power to do so since it was school property at the time of annexation.

Last night's Solomon-like judgment came at the trustees meeting at the school in the form of a resolution passed by a 3-2 vote, with trustees Robert L. Matteri and Jeanne Vilicich dissenting.

An earlier motion, spelling out what would happen in the event the club and the firemen couldn't agree, was defeated on the same voting lineup with trustees Walton Burbank, A. L. Cunningham and Walter S. Lawson in the majority. That motion would have put the bell up for sale.

Such a decision would have been somewhat in line with the understanding reached April 3 in Sonoma Superior Court. In that arrangement, the club, which had hidden the bell was to surrender it to the Marin County counsel's office by April 13, whereupon it was to be offered to the highest bidder on condition it remain in Bloomfield.

Burbank said that since the Bloomfield Community Club had not turned over the bell until last Saturday, well after the deadline the agreement between the district and the club to auction off the bell was now void.

After the board passed its motion last night, one of the 14 Bloomfield residents in the audience said that the Bloomfield Fire Department and community club could never get together on what to do with the bell.

After postponing the bell decision to their May 19 meeting, the trustees got down to the more usual business of the night:

Upper grade students are about national average, reported Charles R. Billlings, county guidance consultant., according to Supt. Ralph E. Nixon.

The board adopted a resolution presented by Supt. Charles E. McCully of the Shoreline Unified School District board supporting AB 2293 which would add health and welfare benefits to teachers salaries.

The board hired Mrs. Ann Shaw at $7,487 per year for sixth grade teacher next school year.

Nixon reported that the district now had 240 in attendance compared to 213 last year.

Demolition Set For Old Home

An old Oakland mansion, the childhood home of Donald de Fremery, 81, of San Rafael, and his eight brothers and sisters, was scheduled for demolition today to preserve memories of the 92-year-old Victorian residence.

De Fremery, of 35 Dorian Way, the last surviving member of the William Cornelius Bastiaan de Fremery family, said his seven sisters wanted the house demolished after they died. "They didn't want it to become a third-rate rooming house or slum," he explained.

The house has been empty since the death last year of Susan de Fremery, 90-year-old spinster who lived in the 16-room, three-story home until she died. The property, at 77 Fairmount Avenue, a half-mile from Lake Merritt, as been sold to a group of Oakland businessmen who have not yet announced plans for it.

Corte Madera Panel Favors Flood Work

Corte Madera Town councilmen last night voted to urge Marin Junior College District trustees not to attempt to halt the Corte Madera Creek flood control project.

The vote was 4-to-1 with Harold Wagstaff absent.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst said the town had received a letter from the Ross Valley Sanitary District board asking the council to take a position on the project which, though approved over a year ago, has had opposition from a picketing citizen committee and some college students since work began last Tuesday.

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

FIRST AID — Heard that a first aid course will be started for firemen next Tuesday and is also available to the public.

ATTORNEY FEES — Agreed to pay up to $600 in attorney fees for police officer Charles Newman who is named in a conspiracy suit by G. Dale Smith of 360 Corte Madera Avenue. Smith alleges Newman conspired to defraud him since he telephoned Smith asking him to pay his $35 car wax bill after Joseph D. Quinn, owner of Patio Car Wash complained to police that Smith hadn't paid the bill. Colthurst praised Newman saying he had recently been made a life member of the Parent-Teacher Association at Neil Cummins School for his fine work as juvenile officer.

EMERGENCY SERVICES — Adjourned to 7:30 p.m., May 1, to discuss emergency service choices for the town, including recommendations by the chamber of commerce. Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher and any other. Usher announced that copies of his report may be checked out for three-day periods at the Town Hall.

ONE-WAY ROAD — Agreed to make Meadowsweet Drive from Sausalito Street to 240 feet eastward a one-way street for safety reasons.

SOLICITORS ORDINANCE — Voted 4-to-0 to introduce by title a solicitors ordinance, patterned after the City of Larkspur's ordinance and requiring other than charitable solicitors to post a $1,000 bond. Councilman Robert P. Simmons said he did not favor completely prohibiting door-to-door soliciting since the ordinance would prohibit not only the itinerant but also county people who are in business.

PET APPEAL — Granted a 30-day extension to allow Christian V. Peetz and V. Carroll Paulson, time to dispose of their old Madera Pet Hospital building at 5800 Paradise Drive. The Planning Commission had set April 24 as date of disposal.

GREEN BELT — Urged Hidden Valley residents to act immediately once they believe someone is about to cut down trees in a city right-of way, George L. Comsani complaining that it is believed trees, falling within the town's "Green Belt" ordinance were cut at 5 Fairview Avenue.

HEARING — Set 8 p.m., May 5, for hearing on appeal of Corte Madera Town Planning Commission denial of Board of Design application for enclosure of upper rear deck at 48 Mariner Green Drive.

STREET RESURFACING — Approved resolution calling for bids, to be opened May 16, for resurfacing Golden Hinde, Staghound and Diamond Head Passages and a portion of Sausalito Street and Tamalpais Drive. Engineer's estimate is $16,743.

SANITARY BOARD — Sitting as a Town Sanitary Board, approved the proposed Terrence O'Flaherty annexation of one lot on Paradise Drive to the district.

PIXLEY STEPS — Deadlocked 2-to-2 on a motion by Councilman Simmons that $1,500 to construct the Pixley steps be removed from the budget, Simmons saying the project should be done with town forces or not at all. Byron D. White voted with Simmons and H. S. Norville and Colthurst voted "no" and the subject was continued to May 5 for a full council.

5 To 10 Pct. Pay Hikes Recommended

Salary increases for Town of Corte Madera employees in the amount of $26,000 for fiscal 1969-70 were recommended last night to the town council.

They include two-range increases — or 5 per cent — for 13 employees; three-range increases — or 7.5 per cent — for 19 employees and four-range increases — or 10 per cent — for five employees.

No action was taken by the council. A public hearing is set for 7:30 p.m., May 14. The 1969-70 budget is expected to be presented to the council at its next regular meeting, May 5.

The cost of living rise is sufficient to justify the 5 per cent increase which pertains to all employees, according to Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher, who submitted the proposal.

Special considerations should be given to the positions of maintenance man I and police officer to grant them a 7.5 per cent increase. That is to put the maintenance man class at a "reasonable living" salary and a pay for police in recognition of growing complexity of their job requirements.

Ten per cent increases pertain to the chief of police, mechanic, assistant superintendent of public works, finance director and police lieutenant.

Usher recommends that the director of public works should be raised from the $974-$1184 salary range to $1,155-$1,405 range since he has recently been given the added duties of town engineer.

Fringe benefits recommended by Usher include time-and-a-half pay for callback overtime for emergencies in any department at an estimated annual added cost of $630; an increase from $90 to $120 in the uniform allowance to cost a total of $490 and increased insurance coverage from $5,000 for each employee to $10,000 at an annual cost to the town of $750.

Usher recommended to the council that it explore restricted investment plans in which employees might participate, saying this would be an aid to future recruiting, particularly at the department head level. This would be at no cost to the town.

Cost of salaries in the current budget is $331,896.

$6,000 In Funds For Boys Club

A fund drive by high school students to raise money to help the Boys Club of Southern Marin survive for another year may have netted as much as $6,000 Saturday, club officials said yesterday.

Although the estimated contributions were far short of the $40,000 the club needs to run another year, club officials were "very satisfied with what we got," according to Dick Skuse, publicity director for the club.

Preliminary figures indicated that $3,000 had been turned in with another $2,000 or $3,000 expected within the next few days. About 600 high school students helped collect the contributions in a countywide canvas Saturday.

Skuse said the club is working in other areas, including trying to get backing of the club from various big corporations, to raise the rest of the money the club needs.

Students from Tamalpais, Redwood, Sir Francis Drake, San Rafael, Terra Linda, Marin the prevailing situation in the schools participated in the drive.

Novato Parks Panel Backs Pre-History Museum Plans

The Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission last night endorsed the Kiwanis Club's proposed pre-historic museum for Novato Creek Park.

The club has obtained a large old house at the northeast corner of Grant Avenue and Sixth Street which it wants to move onto the Novato Creek Park site near Novato Boulevard. Crocker-Citizens Bank, owners of the house, have offered to donate it for a museum.

The commission heard a report from Edward W. Adams, park and recreation director, saying the city should spend a minimum of $14,000 to construct a service road to the museum.

The commission cut this down to $3,000 for a paved walkway so that it would not take funds away from Pioneer Memorial Park, Adams said.

The commission asked the Boy Scout Council to see if the council could make plans for the half-acre tank site above Vallejo Avenue at Seventh Street for scout purposes. The North Marin County Water District, owners of the property, has given it to the city for a park.

After a joint meeting with the city beautification committee, the commission requested its own chairman, Jack Holsclaw, and the chairman of the beautification committee, William Olsen, to review the Army Corps of Engineers plans to see how they affect the trees along the city's creeks, Adams said.

Small Brush Fire Labelled As Set

A small brush fire behind the F. W. Neads home in Tamalpais Valley yesterday apparently was the act of an incendiarist, Tamalpais Fire district officials said today.

Several rolled-up newspapers were stuck into the ground and set afire in the brush behind the home at 32 Homestead Boulevard. There also were several matches on the ground and the handle on a water spigot had been removed and thrown into the bushes, firemen said.

The fire, shortly after 6 p.m., damaged lawn furniture and a retaining wall.

Preliminary Budget Approved

The Tamalpais Fire Protection District board last night adopted a preliminary 1969-70 budget of $172,716, up from the current budget of $157,000.

Board chairman Carl H. Modell said the board does not anticipated any increase in the current tax rate of 89.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation. He said expected increases in assessed valuation in the district should absorb the increased budget. The district's growth rate has been about 10 per cent annually, he said.

Most of the increased money is reflected in salary increases and the hiring of an additional fireman next fiscal year, Modell said.

Driver's Condition Is Reported Fair

A 27-year-old San Francisco man was reported in fair condition and improving today in Marin General Hospital, where he is under treatment for head injuries suffered Sunday when his car struck a large rock on Shoreline Highway.

The driver, Fred M. Degalan, had been admitted to the intensive care unit at the hospital in poor condition.

Rocks Tossed Over Link Fence At Marin City

Two rock throwing incidents and the shooting out of the windows of an apartment into which a white family was moving yesterday were reported by sheriff's deputies in Marin City today.

Deputies said that several youths heaved rocks over the controversial 12-foot chain link fence along the Highway 101 underpass between Marin City and Sausalito at several Greyhound commuter buses shortly after 4 p.m.

Later, at 9:45 p.m., more rocks were thrown over the fence at passing cars, deputies said.

There was no reported damage and no arrests.

Deputies also said the windows of a low-rent unit at 215 Drake Avenue were shot out with B-B's or similar shot. "This happens about every time a white family moves in," a deputy said.

The shooting was reported by Donald O. Stutsman, executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority.

Alfred Bianchi Heads Dairymen

A Point Reyes dairyman has been re-elected president of the Sonoma-Marin Dairyman's Association.

Alfred J. Bianchi was selected for another term during the group's annual meeting Friday at Point Reyes Station with more than 200 dairymen from 11 counties attending.

Waldo Giacomini of Point Reyes was re-elected second vice president and Ray Gambonini of Petaluma and Armin Truttman of Olema were named new members of the board of directors.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

7½-Hour Amateur Night With Everyone In Cast

It was another epic battle of white hats vs. black hats Friday at the Marin County Civic Center, and, as in all properly scripted westerns, the white hats won.

What they won is another matter.

There was plenty of suspense, centered mostly about a mild-spoken character who had not even figured as a lead player in the advance billing. What appeared to be the audience was really made up of hastily recruited bit players. They were all playing to one man: Supervisor Bill Gnoss. And the suspense during the seven and one-half hour drama hung on how Bill Gnoss would vote.

THE WHITE HATS, as always in Marin, were the Conservationists. The black hats were the (pardon the 10-letter word) Developers.

Through the hall ran the awful rumor that Gnoss had gone over to the black hats. And when the time came to vote, he admitted that it was so. But, returning to rectitude (after counting the house and noting Novato well represented among the white hats), he voted for Conservation. The audience (or bit players) cheered.

WHAT WAS THIS all about? Ostensibly, it was about whether Paul C. Zucker, a young man from the East only a few years in Marin, should retain his job as county planning director. But actually, he was only a symbol. The battle was over whether the forces of Conservation should continue to rule in the House That Wright Built.

They will.

IT IS PERHAPS presumptuous to criticize such a stupendous dramatic production. But there seemed to be a few flaws.

We thought the casting of Zucker as Horatio at the Bridge, single-handedly defying the hordes of Development, a trifle overdone. During the years he has reigned in the county planning department, the developers have not exactly been battering down the bastions to get into Marin. In fact, things have been at pretty much of a standstill in the unincorporated areas, which are all that Zucker controls.

Also, there was a rather odd remark by John Frederick McInnis, captain of the black hats. He said no one questioned the professional competence of Mr. Zucker. It was the man's rudeness and abrasive manner that made him unacceptable, suggested McInnis.

WE SHOULD HAVE thought Zucker's competence was what the ruckus was all about. We should have thought that lack of needed ordinances and specific, clearly spelled out policies to control development might reflect on the competence of the man hired as planning director. We should have thought that lack of planning by a large planning staff might be important.

Not so, it seems. Planning apparently has nothing to do with it. It is all a matter of whether the planning director has a soothing bedside manner.

SO WE HAVE to conclude that the latest white hats vs. black hats drama was considerably overblown. Although it decided (for awhile) who's boss, it decided nothing about any real issue.

But it was a whale of an amateur production—like Marin County planning. And like Marin County planning, it was mostly ad libbed.

Patches Of Gold

Overlooking Highway 101 above Sausalito and at many other places throughout our county, the hills are sprinkled with patches of gorse. These blossoms are a bright lemon yellow at first, turning slowly to a golden orange.

Through some perversity, gorse favors poor hillside soil. It can scrabble a good living out of soil where other weeds would find the living most difficult. Perhaps for this reason, gorse thrives in the dirt-poor regions of Europe, bordering the Mediterranean.

Gorse, with its tough, rubbery, dark green foliage and stems, grows to the size of a large shrub or a small tree. It has lived here for so many generations that it should qualify as a native plant.

"Fellow homo sapiens! As we near the successful conclusion of our total pollution and overpopulation of the earth, let us even now, set our sights on the moon!"

What Jehovah's Witnesses Believe

Would like to thank you for your article of April 12 written by Mr. (Louis) Cassels on the subject of what Jehovah's Witnesses believe. However he misunderstood a few points. We do believe Christ was of divine origin and was the son of Jehovah God. We are not substituting the name Jehovah but restoring it as it was rendered in the original Hebrew text.

Original Records On Bay Discovery

There seems to be a divergence of opinion concerning the discovery of San Francisco Bay and the time of the first ship into the bay. May I offer some substantiated facts on this matter.

I have a copy of a book, "The March of Portola and the Log of the San Carlos" published in 1909 by the California Promotion Committee at the time of the Portola Festival. This book contains detailed information on the march of Portola, the discovery of San Francisco Bay and Carquinez Straits, and a summary of the transcript of the certified copy of the original which is now in the Archives of the Indies, Seville, Spain. It also included a description of the Bay of San Francisco, and a report of the pilot of the San Carlos, Don Jose de Canizares, who wxplored and mapped the bay as far as the junction of the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers. Also included is a copy of the original drawing of the first survey and map of the Bay of San Francisco, which was attached to the log of the San Carlos, a packet boat.

It shows that the first sighting of the bay was made by Ortega (Portola was sick in camp with many others of the expedition), and his attempt to go around the bay to reach Point Reyes, only to be stopped by the Straits of Carquinez. The discovery date was Thursday, Nov. 2, 1769.

The log of the San Carlos shows that Ayala left Monterey July 26, 1775 and anchored at Fort Point on Aug. 5. Subsequent anchorages were made or attempted around Angel Island . . .

Since these records come from a translation of the original, they should be conclusive as to who discovered the bay and when, and what ship entered the bay first, and when.

Zucker Needs Dale Carnegie?

The eight-hour hearing on whether to retain Paul Zucker as Marin's planning director impressed me that a main difference between those supervisors who voted to keep him and those who voted to replace him lay in how much importance was assigned to the "rudeness and arrogance" about which Zucker himself said, "I know I'm outspoken but don't mean to be rude," and County Administrator Alan Bruce said, "He was hired in late 1965 by the supervisors, with full notification from me that he was abrasive and came on strong, and yet today he is being accused of having these same qualities."

In voting to keep Zucker, Michael Wornum said toughness was required of any planning director worth his salt and complaints against him were "normal gripes" from developers. In voting to replace Zucker, John McInnis said he had come to the conclusion that these qualities were "contributing to poorer, rather than better planning in Marin, by discouraging the more capable and responsible developers and leaving those who have no other choice."

Perhaps the answer lies in the suggestion of the spokesman for Gallinas Village Improvement Association, who staunchly defended Zucker and then offered to buy him Dale Carnegie book on winning friends.

Pres Nixon's First 100 Days: Waiting, And One Perilous Act

WASHINGTON — There is no built-in magic in the first hundred days of a new administration. The opener can be used as President Nixon has used it — to order his priorities, get his ducks in a row — or it can mean a great upsurge of new programs, the evidence of creativity and imagination.

Nixon concluded that the public was fed up with the vain sound of promises unfulfilled. Caution, restraint, the lowered voice are the order of the day. He may be right, although his initial rating in the polls was below that of his two immediate predecessors, John F. Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson.

THE THRUST of the first hundred days has, however, an important bearing on momentum. Here is the evident weakness of the Nixon approach.

For President Nixon this has a very special meaning. He can never forget that he is the first incoming president since James K. Polk in 1848 to win election without bringing in majorities, however thin, in both houses of Congress. Nixon must, therefore, confront committee chairmen entrenched through years of seniority, most of them southerners, who have little, if any, sympathy for one of the president's top priorities — rehabilitiation of the cities.

Wilbur Mills of Arkansas, overlord of the House Ways and Means Committee, has announced that he means to make a spending ceiling a condition of keeping the 10 per cent surtax in force. With stopping inflation another top priority set in the first 100 days, Nixon claimed a cut in the Johnson budget of $4 billion and a surplus of $5.8 billion.

Mills calls the surplus merely sleight-of-hand, with the actual reduction in the administrative budget, the budget that counts, only $1 billion. Therefore, the chairman set a target of further cuts of $5 billion. This means the president must dance to the tune of stringent economy in his domestic programs if he is to toe the anti-inflation line.

THE ARITHMETIC of the president's electoral vote in November throws a sharp light on his dilemma. Eight southern and border states gave him 87 electoral votes for his victory. The grand marshal of the southern strategy was Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina. In light of this the president can hardly challenge the entrenched southerners who sit at the toll gates of legislative power. In a very real sense he is their prisoner.

The most important decision the president has made in his first 100 days is to proceed with deployment of the anti-ballistic missile as a "safeguard" for intercontinental ballistic missiles against the threat of Russian first-strike capability. It is a decision cutting across everything he must undertake at home and abroad. Dividing not only the country but his own party, the AMB issue promises to frustrate his principal aims in domestic and perhaps even in foreign policy. It may be true, as the president said, that the Soviet Union will not interpret deployment of the ABM as a new round in the nuclear arms race and, therefore, an impediment to arms negotiation in the early summer. Yet it is hardly a portent of success for those talks.

Sec. of Defense Melvin Laird, the front runner for ABM, put the cost at $6 billion to $7 billion. But like most Pentagon price tags this is only a starter. Along with a whole series of new weapons systems Laird has been persuaded to buy, it is one of the reasons he puts the savings when the Vietnam war is ended at only $7 billion as against nearly three times that amount, which was the estimate of the previous administration.

BY PRESENT count, 11 Republican votes in the Senate are opposed to deploying the ABM or are leaning strongly in that direction. They will provide the majority, currently estimated at 52 or 53, against appropriating funds for deployment.

Arm twisting by the White House and the Republican National Committee may change this count. But a narrow victory of three or four votes can be as harmful for the Nixon administration as a narrow defeat. A case can be made that the latter is even preferable, since it would take the issue out of public notice. A marginal victory on a matter so vital for the future of mankind can scarcely be a reason for dancing in the streets.

GOLDEN GATE VIEW

Three More Super-freeways For Marin On Traffic Plan

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

It may surprise some of the local citizenry to hear that three eight-lane freeways between Highway 101 and West Marin will still be needed in the next decade, according to a new review of the state's freeway and expressway system.

The review by a highway lobby-dominated advisory committee of the California Department of Public Works showed no change in the system's 10-year-old plan, which envisions full freeways roughly along the present alignment of Shoreline Highway, a new Highway 17 west from the San Rafael area, and a Highway 37 west from the Novato area.

The review did not mention the Marin County Board of Supervisors' resolution of January, 1968, asking that Shoreline Highway be a two-lane scenic road. It also was silent on the Novato City Council's adopted master plan, which specifically excluded Highway 37 from Novato.

IT WOULD TAKE legislation to delete the freeways designated in the plan, but the California Highway Commission decided last fall that the supervisors' resolution was "premature until the county's balanced transportation study had progressed to a point where travel desires and transportation modes have been determined."

The study is to be completed in the summer of 1970, so local and state officials can dodge the issue at least until then.

THE SYSTEM included 12,400 miles of roadway as drawn by the Legislature in 1959, but because of sharp inflation in the cost of construction, only 2,800 miles have been improved to the standards in the system, the committee founud. This is only about half as much as was expected by this year, it noted.

The report on its review predicted the system faces a $3.7 billion revenue gap by 1980 — a sure sign that it will be used to bolster the highway lobby's argument for increasing the state's gasoline tax, now at seven cents a gallon.

Alternate modes of transportation, such as rapid transit, were brushed off as unproved "panaceas," perhaps because only one of the 16 members on the committee represented public transit. The committee, incidentally, was set up by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, "father of California freeways."

A BUNCH of flowers goes to the Presidio of San Francisco for changing its working day to start at 7:30 a.m. instead of 7:45 a.m. More than 1,000 cars cross the Golden Gate Bridge from Marin to the Presidio each weekday, and bridge officials report the time change definitely eased morning traffic jams.

Normal Day In Britain With All Unsatisfied

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

For the Labor government of British Prime Minister Harold Wilson it was a fairly normal day.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Roy Jenkins had no good news to impart in his annual budget message. Instead, he told Britons they still were spending too much and demanded even more belt tightening.

Neither the labor unions nor the Conservatives liked government proposals for labor reforms.

Labor was horrified that the government intended to limit its right to strike. Conservatives didn't think the reforms went far enough.

AT AN ENGINEERING plant in Corby in the Midlands, workers pondered the case of a 20-year-old apprentice welder suspended because he refused to trim his shoulder-length hair.

A quickie walkout on the issue had been settled by compromise —the apprentice could keep his long hair but would move to another plant out of sight of management and customers, and would stay out of the company cafeteria. In return he would receive an extra hour at lunch so he could eat at home.

The day's events were not the culmination of Labor's troubles but only part of a chain of happenings which have plagued the Wilson government for more than a year and now threaten a crisis within the party.

A YEAR AGO it was devaluation of the British pound which forced Labor to cut back on its own cherished welfare program.

Wilson's efforts to enter the European Common Market had failed. The question of breakaway Rhodesia remained unsolved and a Wilson trip to Nigeria in an attempt to mediate that civil war also had failed.

The party then had met a string of defeats in parliamentary by-elections and public opinion polls gave the Conservatives better than a 20 per cent edge in popularity over the Laborites.

NOW THE HOTTEST issue was labor reform strongly supported by a public tired of labor abuses.

Since January the country had seen a damaging 24-day strike at the big British subsidiary of Ford Motor Co., affecting Ford production not only in Britain but on the continent as well.

Twenty-four hour strikes had paralyzed mail delivery, slowed telephone service and interrupted banking services.

Ford presented a capsule o British labor turmoil.

It is estimated that 90 pe cent of British strikes are o the wildcat variety, costing th country upwards of $100 mil lion a year.

FORD SUCCESSFULLY ha negotiated with the 15 union in its plants for raises bringin the average weekly wage t $67. Included were vacatio bonuses tied to curtailment c wildcat strikes. Shop steward then defied their leaders, cal ed the bonus agreement "penalty" plan and th walkout began.

An attempt by Ford to tak the unions to court failed whe a judge ruled that labor pact are gentlemen's agreement and not binding contracts.

Proposed governmen reforms are mild by U.S. sta dards, and contain no hard an fast rules to make a labor co tract binding.

If You Like To Look At Phones, New Directory Is For You

Residents of the northern two-thirds of Novato, served by Western California Telephone Co., last week received their new telephone directories.

Instead of being a thing of beauty to attract the eye, the cover was a feeble attempt at being commercial. Other telephone directories to the north and south of Novato have beautiful local pictures on their covers. Not so those of Western California Telephone Co.

Last year the directory had pictures of six telephones on the front; on the back were two men trying to point out how to plan to use more telephones by pointing at a piece of paper.

This year there were pictures of two telephones on the front and five men on the back.

THE NOVATO Teachers Association, affiliated with the California Teachers Association, maintains an office at 7373 Redwood Highway, Novato.

This small office is a beehive of activity after school when the teachers are there. After it closes, the calls that come in are not met with the usual recorded request to leave name and address, along with a message.

Instead, the caller is given a short recorded message on current aspects of education. This may include problems in the Novato district or legislation which concerns education and is pending in Sacramento or Washington.

DEFEAT of the proposed additional 77-cent tax for new buildings in Marin Junior College District leaves the future of the Novato campus in doubt.

The junior college district has a beautiful piece of property at the end of San Jose Boulevard in Novato for this campus. It could be enlarged with much more land that is available in the area.

As Will Rogers used to say, "I see in the papers that . . .", I see where the University of California is reconsidering a possible campus in the North Bay.

With construction of the Novato campus of the junior college fading into the future, it might be well to consider offering the site to U.C. The university could easily add the needed acreage.

A full university campus within the county boundaries might be more of an asset to the county than another two-year college campus.

NEWLY ELECTED trustee Carolyn Crabtree of Novato Unified School District has found a way to perpetuate her name in the city.

She has volunteered to purchase two trees for pioneer Memorial Park if the city will plant them. They are a prunus Caroliniana and a flowering crab tree.

Sex Education At Soda Fountain –Look At What It's Done To Us

WASHINGTON — There is a big flap going on in the United States right now over the question of teaching sex education in our schools. The educators are mostly for it and the ultra-conservatives, including the John Birchers and the DAR, are mostly against it. I usually like to stay out of controversial matters as I hate to answer my mail, but in this case I have to come out for teaching sex education in the schools.

This is a very personal matter with me. I had no formal sex education when I was a student, and everyone knows the mess I'm in. If there had been a Head Start program in sex education when I was going to public school, I might have been a different man today.

WHEN I WAS going to Public School 35 in Hollis, N.Y., we got all our sex education at the local candy store after 3 o'clock. The information was dispensed by 13-year-olds who seemed to know everything there was to know on the subject, and we 11- and 12-year-old believed every word they told us.

Some of it, I discovered later on, did not necessarily happen to be true. For example, I was told as an absolute fact that if a girl necked with you in the rumble seat of a car, she would automatically have a baby.

This kep me out of the rumble seat of an automobile until I was 23 years old.

THERE WERE SOME other canards of the day, including one that the method of kissing a girl on the mouth decided whether she would become pregnant or not. Every time I kissed a girl after that, I sweated for the next time months.

The sex experts at Sam's Candy Store had an answer for every problem that was raised at the soda fountain. These included warnings that if you did certain things you would go insane. Most of us were prepared to be taken off to the booby hatch at any moment.

There was obviously no talk about birds, bees, flowers or animals. We couldn't care less what happened when they were doing it. Our only concern was what happened to human beings, and from what our 13-year-old isntructors could tell us, it was all bad.

THOSE OF US who escaped insanity and shotgun weddings were told we would probably wind up with a horrendous disease that would be passed on to our children and their children for generations to come. There were 25 ways of catching this disease, including shaking hands with someone who knew someone who had it.

You can imagine the nightmares these tales produced. There seemed to be no escape. You were doomed if you did, and you were doomed if you didn't. After one of these sessions at the candy store, I seriously contemplated suicide. There didn't seem to be any other way out.

NOW THE WORST part of my sex indoctrination was that when I turned 13 I became an instructor myself and passed on my knowledge to 11- and 12-year-olds at the same candy store. They listened in awe as I repeated word for word what I had been told by my "teachers," and I was amazed with how much authority I was able to pass on the "facts" of sex education as I knew them.

Upon becoming 13, they in turn taught the younger students. Heaven knows how many generations of Public School 35 alumni went on through life believing everything they had learned about sex at Sam's Candy Store.

The fact is that, while the sex education at Sam's served a purpose, we were all emotional wrecks before we got to high school.

So, on the basis of my own experience, I don't think we have much choice in this country when it comes to sex education. In order to avoid the agony and pain my fellow classmates and I went through, we either have to teach sex in the schools, or close down every soda fountain in the United States.

Salary Report Set

Trustee Curtis P. Kamai will report on current teacher salary negotiations at the Larkspur School District board meeting at 8 o'clock, Thursday, in the district office. The 1968-69 annual audit is also on the agenda for approval.

Simple Majority Is Sought On Sales Of Sewer Bonds

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Legislation to allow sanitary and sanitation districts to sell bonds with approval by a majority of the voters in the district, instead of by two-thirds, has been introduced by Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

The lower vote margin, however, would only be allowed if a district were ordered by a regional water quality control board or by a county health officer to improve its facilities.

Petaluma, $103,370, and Rohnert

In Marin, only the Novato Sanitary District is under an order by the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board to stop polluting Novato Creek and the Petaluma River.

Tougher standards being set and enforced by the regional board could find other Marin districts under pressure to make expensive improvements — which would be easier to finance under McCarthy's bill than under current law.

The other districts that would be affected by his bill are the Ross Valley, Corte Madera, Tiburon, Richardson Bay and Las Gallinas Valley sanitary districts, and the San Rafael Sanitation District.

McCarthy also has introduced a bill to increase from $3,500 to $4,500 the limit of an expenditure for a sanitary district project before it must be put to a competitive bid.

In other legislation, McCarthy introduced a measure to consolidate several state bodies under a new Department of Commerce. The new department, itself to come under the Agriculture and Services Agency, would include the California World Trade Authority, the Division of Economic Development, the Museum of Science and Industry and the Office of Tourism and Visitor Services.

The new department was provided in the governor's omnibus reorganization plan last year, and McCarthy's bill would implement this provision of the plan.

Grand Old House

WITH YOUNG IDEAS

Fine location in the Yolando Adler. 4 bedroom home, probably 50 years old, extensively remodeled in 1965.

Separate formal dining room (12x17'), with plenty of wall space for massive furniture, 23x16' living room, family size kitchen, 2 full baths. The bedrooms are large and attractive, with plenty of light. One of the bedrooms is separate from the others and is adaptable for use as a play room or a den.

Quiet level street, with sidewalks, boulevards and shade trees. $38,500.

Dean Weibel, Realtor 456-9635

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Unruh, Alioto Trailing Reagan; Staged Riot Crackdown Voted

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A private poll taken for Democrats says Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan is regarded much more highly by California voters than his two potential Democratic challengers — Assembly Minority Leader Jesse M. Unhur and San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto.

The poll reported the governor, likely to run for a second term in 1970, is rated highly or mildly favorable by 63.8 per cent of the voters. Considering him in an unfavorable light are 33.3 per cent of those polled.

Unruh, former speaker of the Assembly and a longtime power in party affairs, is considered favorably by 49.2 per cent and unfavorably by 37.6 per cent.

Alioto, a well known antitrust attorney serving his first term as mayor, is given a favorable rating by 44.3 per cent and an unfavorable rating by 19.2 per cent.

Unruh, however, has a better rating among Democrats than Alioto — a key factor if both men compete for the Democratic nomination in next June's primary.

Alioto is considered favorably by 49.7 per cent of the Democrats surveyed compared to 61.8 per cent for Unruh.

The poll, made available to The Associated Press by Democratic sources, was taken early in February among 1,004 people selected throughout the state.

The survey says that Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., who has announced he will run for another term next year, is looked upon either mildly or highly favorably by 57.4 per cent and unfavorably by 30.7 per cent.

Rep. John Tunney, the young Riverside Democrat who has indicated he will challenge Murphy, would enter the race far less known than the incumbent, the poll said.

It reported 87.6 per cent of Republicans and 49.4 per cent of Democrats have a high opinion of Reagan. But 47.6 per cent of Democrats regarded him unfavorably.

On other matters, the polls found that 50.2 per cent of those surveyed considered the Vietnam War the major national problem, with race relations second at 40.8 per cent and social unrest third at 26.4 per cent.

CURB VOTED

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Under a Senate-passed bill, newsmen may find themselves on a journalistic tightrope, fearing the consequences of stories they write or broadcast.

Despite objections that it was suppressing or infringing upon the right of a free press, the Senate voted to penalize newsmen who turn out incorrect stories which could result in violence.

The bill headed for the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee today after it received the minimum 21 votes needed yesterday to clear the upper house. Nine senators were absent or did not vote and 10 voted against the bill.

The most significant section of the measure reads:

"Every person who willfully publishes or causes to be published or broadcasts or causes to be broadcast any statement concerning a breach of peace which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care, should be known to be false or misleading, and which at the time and place of publication or broadcast produces a clear and present danger of breach of peace or unlawful acts of force or violence or the unlawful burning or destroying of property is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Those convicted would face a maximum six months in jail and a $500 fine. Harmer said the measure was prompted by reports of television newsmen enticing persons into staging demonstrations for the benefit of their cameras.

Sen. George Moscone, D-San Francisco, gave a hypothetical case of newman being confronted by a man who has been beaten. The victim contends he was beaten by police but police deny the accusation.

If the newsman reports both sides of the story impartially, violence occurs and the police denial of the beating later turns out to be the truth, the newsman and his editor can face punishment, Moscine said, in objecting to the bill.

"You are placing the burden on the news reporter who does not know if it is false," he said.

WELFARE RULING

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Supreme Court's decision to invalidate residency requirements for welfare recipients will hike welfare costs in California, say several state officials.

Yesterday's decision came as California, appealing a year-old federal court ruling, was seeking to have its own residency provisions reinstated.

The decision seemingly doomed the appeal to the Supreme Court, whose action specifically dealt with the laws of Connecticut, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia but was applicable to similar regulations in about 40 states including California.

Spencer Williams, head of the state's Human Relations Agency, and State Welfare Director John Montgomery both predicted California's welfare costs would continue to rise sharply.

Both said that since the federal court overturned the state's residency requirements a year ago, more than 3,000 persons have joined the welfare rolls. This, they said, has hiked welfare costs by $26 million this fiscal year and will raise them by an estimated $35 million in the next fiscal year.

APPOINTEE STALL

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sen. John C. Schmitz, R-Tustin, says he will conduct a one-man investigation into the sex education views of two of Gov. Ronald Reagan's new appointees to the state Board of Education.

Schmitz, an opponent of sex eduction in the schools, told the Senate yesterday he wanted to question Henry T. Gunderson, San Jose, and Dr. James R. Ford, San Diego, before voting to confirm their appointment.

Other Reagan nominees to various state posts received routine Senate confirmation but the names of Gunderson and Ford were delayed for a vote later.

Schmitz, a member of the John Birch Society, told newsmen later he was concerned about the unanimous vote by which the board earlier in the month approved guidelines for sex eduction from kindergarten through high school. Ford was author of the motion to endorse the guidelines.

BILL CHANGED

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill proclaiming Jan. 14, the birth date of Negro leader Martin Luther King Jr., as "Black American Day" in California has won the approval of the Assembly Education Committee.

The committee yesterday sent to the floor on a split voice vote the measure by Negro Assemblyman Willie L. Brown Jr., D-San Francisco, which also calls for suitable observances in public schools on that day.

The proposal was a sharply amended form of Brown's original bill that would have designated April 4, the date of King's assassination in Memphis, Tenn., as "Martin Luther King Jr. day."

Before approving the amended version, the committee strongly rejected an attempt to eliminate all reference to the Negro advocate of peaceful revolution and simply allow the State Board of Education to fix a date for "Black American Day."

Brown opposed the amendment offered by Assemblymen John Stull, R-Leucadia, and John L. E. Collier, R-Los Angeles.

Mayor Hit On Minority Appointment

Failure of Mayor Dean M. Meyer to appoint a Negro to the Mill Valley Human Rights Commission last night precipitated angry criticism from the commission's acting chairman.

Roger J. Fleischmann told Meyer that his failure to name Iniece Bailey to the commission "seriously affects our own effectiveness."

Fleischmann noted that Mrs. Bailey had been nominated by the commission at Meyer's suggestion that the group might recruit minority members.

Fleischmann criticized Meyer for naming another candidate never mentioned by the human rights group.

Meyer stuck by his appintment of William E. Williams to the vacancy created by the resignation of chairman Charles P. Guichard, saying he had indeed solicited Mrs. Bailey's nomination but in the final choice had selected Williams.

The mayor said he would consider Mrs. Bailey's nomination for the next vacancy.

The council endorsed Williams' appointment on a 4-1 vote with Councilman Rodric L. Robinson dissenting.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE ASSEMBLY

Adjourned in memory of Assemblyman Alan G. Pattee, who died in a weekend auto wreck.

THE SENATE

Bills Passed

Press — Provided criminal penalties for newsmen who publish or broadcast false information that could cause violence-SE 82, Harmer, R-Glendale.

Campus — Makes it a misdemeanor to obstruct students for faculty trying to enter state college or University of California campus; SB 496, Short, D-Stockton.

Physicians — Waives law requiring tests for physicians to permit one physician to be licensed;SB 270, Harmer.

Boards — Forbids junior college board member from serving on high school board in same area;AB 321, Burgener, R-San Diego.

Trustees — Makes appointments to State College Board of Trustees subject to confirmation by two-thirds vote of the Senate; SB 48, Richardson, R-Arcadia.

Mill Valley Debates, Backs Plan For Youth

An ordinance establishing a youth commission for the city was given first-reading approval last night by the Mill Valley City Council on a 4-1 vote.

Dissenting was Councilman Robert H. Andresen, who said he believed there were more imaginative and effective ways to involve youth in city government.

The ordinance will be reviewed again by the council on May 5 before final adoption.

Warning that his statement might be unpopular, Andresen said the council's thinking had been "channelized" and had lacked "original creative thought." If youth is going to serve in government, he said, its participation should be broadcast throughout the city. He suggested instead of an 11-man youth commission, the city appoint youth representatives to each of the city's existing commissions and committees.

"Each of our commissions should serve all segments of the city rather than having the council establishing a commission to serve only one segment," Andresen added. "At this rate I can envision a senior citizens commission, a merchants commission and a dog owners commission."

Councilman Rodric L. Robinson criticized Andresen for presenting his suggestions immediately prior to the vote and following an hour-long debate. "Now it's really almost too late," Robinson said.

Councilman George Wickham, supporting the commmission, said "If the youth of this community are willing to accept the responsibility, then I'm all for it. But if they go off on a tangent, contrary to what's legal and moral, I'll do everything I can to dissolve the commission."

As approved, the 11-member commission will consist of eight persons under 21 years of age and three over 21 with each commissioner serving for a one year term. Adults will be limited to no more than four consecutive terms.

The commission's purpose will be to recommend programs and methods for involving youth at all levels of planning, decision making and implementation of youth-oriented activities.

The only debate came over whether one of the goals suggested should include a phrase which said "to recognize that youth may have standards of behavior which differ from those of the adult community and to encourage acceptance of such standards provided they are legal and moral."

Youth representativies from Tamalpais High School asked that the "and moral" phrase be stricken since it would be difficult to define morality to everyone's satisfaction.

Andresen and Wickham objected to deleting morality and Councilman Jerome C. Hauke suggested instead the entire goal be stricken from the ordinance. The council agreed.

"Well, that's one way to face up to an issue," Robinson commented.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

GARBAGE — Set a hearing for May 5 to discuss the Mill Valley refuse Co.'s request for an extension of its franchise with the city.

STREET LIGHTING — Asked City Engineer Stanley M. Bala to investigate the cost of hiring an independent street lighting consultant for the Miller Avenue street lighting project.

SYCAMORE AVENUE LIGHTING — Tentatively approved the Sycamore Avenue project over the objections of Andresen and asked for clarification of cost details from the city's architectural advisory committee and the Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

BANNER — Approved a request by the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts to hang a banner over East Blithedale Avenue to advertise the group's latest play, "Trojan Women."

APPLICATION — Authorized an application for state flood relief money to repair street and flood damage from the winter's rains.

QUARRY — Approved a request by contractors for the Mill Valley School District to quarry 5,000 cubic yards of soil from the Enchanted Knolls ridge for middle school fill.

POSTPONED — Postponed consideration of the city's park use policy, landscape plans for East Blithedale and Miller avenues and a report on city street needs because of the late hour.

Fairfax Firemen Will Burn Home

The Fairfax Fire Department will burn down a house at 62 Berry Trail Sunday morning, under an agreement with the owner, W. W. Wilcox.

Fire Chief Charles M. Thornton said the house is situated on the side of Manor Hill and the fire will probably be visible throughout a large area.

Permit Approved For Nursery Sales

San Anselmo Planning commissioners last night approved a three-week use permit for Safeway Stores to display and sell sursery stock outside the south side of its store at 900 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The commission also approved a variance application to allow Paul Miersch Jr. to build an addition to his house at 1 Parkside Court to within five feet of the required eight foot sideyard setback, assistant engineer John T. O'Rourke reported.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Denver Surgeon Obtains Good Results In Liver Transplant

VAN DELLEN

Dr. Thomas E. Starzl of Denver and his surgical team have performed 17 human liver transplants. Many of the recipients are still alive, and two lived almost a year before they died.

The results have been basically encouraging since the procedure is loaded with technical difficulties.

One of his youthful patients has undergone two transplants. The first was done as a life-saving measure. But, within a month, it was obvious that the donated liver was not working.

Death threatened for a second time, but another organ was available so the first transplant was removed and replaced.

At the time of this writing the girl is up and about, and very active. This is another first for Dr. Starzl.

THE BEST CANDIDATE for a liver transplant is the person harboring an hepatic malignancy that has not yet spread beyond the liver.

One individual with this type of cancer died 13 months after the operation. The surgeons did not think that the malignancy had spread, but apparently it had. Death was due to metastases from the original tumor.

This person may have lived much longer had the cancer been confined to the liver that was removed.

Victims of progressive liver failure with cirrhosis also may benefit from this operation. Certain requirements, however, must be met. They must be otherwise healthy and not at an age when hardening of the arteries and heart trouble are common.

THE LIVER is second only to the brain in its sensitivity to lack of oxygen. When used as a transplant, it must be removed and cooled within 15 minutes after the death of the donor. After 15 minutes without a blood supply, serious damage occurs.

Timing and planning are crucial.

There is no artificial liver comparable to an artificial kidney or heart to keep alive a person dying from kidney failure (uremia). As a result, 95 per cent of the candidates for liver transplantation are lost before a suitable replacement can be obtained.

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

SKIN SPOTS AND LIVER

A reader writes: I am plagued with liver spots although I haven't eaten liver and onions for years. What other food might be causing these blemishes?

REPLY

These spots have nothing to do with the organ or the food. You are perpetuating an idea that goes back 50 or more years. So-called liver spots are really chloasmic patches that are caused by too much sun and a little age. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on chloasma.

AN INFECTED NAVEL

M. M. W. writes: What would cause the navel of a 56-year-old woman to become red and sore and give off an odor?

REPLY

A fungal infection is a good possibility, assuming the navel is otherwise normal. Some persons develop an opening in the floor of the navel due to a cyst or infected urachus.

PILLS REPLACE INSULIN

D. P. writes: I used to take insulin for diabetes but now the doctor is giving me pills. Is it safe to stop taking insulin?

REPLY

Yes. Many diabetics have been able to switch from insulin to the tablets.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

1.1 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, will receive sealed Proposals until 2:00 p.m., May 5, 1969 for: the furnishing of all labor, materials, equipment, transportation and services required for the alteration and remodeling of the Manzanita School Child Care Center, 620 Drake Avenue, Marin City, Marin County, California.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the Office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Requests for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

1.2 Drawings, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference) and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

1.3 All bids must be submitted on the Proposal Form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guarantees shall be in the form of a Certified or Cashier's Check or a Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the Contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the Contract. Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

1.4 Proposals shall be filed with George H. Gnoss, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Room 315, Administration Building, Marin County Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

1.7 Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, or local law thereto applicable, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which this work is to be performed, for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute this Contract.

WAGE SCALE —Summary

This section lists the minimum wages that may be paid for work on this project in conformance with the Statutes of the State of California.

SCHEDULE EXPLANATION

A. The prevailing rates are based on an eight (8) hour day, forty (40) hour week unless specified otherwise and currently in effect. Existing agreements between the Building Trades and Construction Industry Groups relative to overtime, holidays and other special provisions shall be recognized.

B. Verification and further inquiries with respect to these rates and for classifications or trades not listed should be made at the Building and Trades Council, Marin County, California.

C. The wage scale is kept current by the Building and Trades Council as changes are reported from time to time. The following rates were in effect on July 1, 1968.

D. The attention of the bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications relative to labor.

GENERAL PREVAILING WAGE SCALE, Marin County, California

SKILLED LABOR CLASSIFICATION	RATE PER HOUR
Carpenter	5.710
Electrician	6.750
Glazier	5.250
Laborer, Group III	4.425
Linoleum Layer (per day)	44.800
Painter	5.570
Plumber	7.975

1.8 EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion or transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractor shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to County, the sum of $25.00 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided however that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work. Contractor shall encourage maximum utilization of apprenticeship and other on-the-job training programs to achieve this goal.

TV REVIEW

'Spoon River' Is Lovely, Artful Hour

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Although sharply truncated, CBS-TV's last night production of "Spoon River," adapted from the classic free verse volume by Edgar Lee Masters, was a lovely and artful hour.

The recollections and views by persons buried in a cemetery in a mythical small town in southern Illinois were acted splendidly by Charles Aidman, Jason Robards, Jennifer West and Joyce Van Patten.

SPECIAL POIGNANCE

This quartet, plus the delightful folksinging by Naomi Caryl Hirshhorn and Hal Lynch, brought a special poignance, a rare flavor of Americana and a frequently earthy humor to the long-awaited video production.

As with the stage version of "Spoon River," the driving force behind the television production was Aidman, who not only starred in it but adapted and directed it also.

It was Aidman and Miss Van Patten who produced the dramatized version of Masters' "Spoon River Anthology" while members of the Theater West Workshop in Los Angeles.

CRITICAL HIT

Under the name "Spoon River," the play—basically a collection of acted-out readings—then moved to Broadway, where it was a critical hit in 1963-64.

Masters, who died in 1950 at the age of 82, was a lawyer who once was a partner of the famous defense attorney Clarence Darrow. And the anthology of verse, which caused a literary sensation when published in 1915, enraptured Aidman since his student days at Indiana University a couple of decades ago.

UPSTAGES ROBARDS

As excellent a performer as Robards is, the night's acting honors must go without question to Aidman, whose variety of impressions were indelible.

Miss Van Patten, of course, was very good too. And Miss West, a lady of stunning beauty, is that rare combination of looks and talent.

The mood folk songs that were woven throughout the CBS-TV production grew on the viewer until' at moments, they were sublime. Aidman wrote the lyrics, and Miss Hirshhorn composed the music. And Miss Hirshhorn's soul-piercing voice as an acting feat all by itself.

Nixon Asks General Kept In Top Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army Gen. Earl G. Wheeler, now serving an unprecedented fifth year as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has been nominated for another one-year extension as the Pentagon's top military man.

The Pentagon disclosed yesterday that the Nixon administration has sent a proposed joint resolution to Congress which would retain the 61-year-old four star general as chairman until July 1970.

Powell's Son To Marry Socialite

NEW YORK (UPI) — The mother of Beverly Slocum, Newport socialite and 1960 debutante of the year, confirmed yesterday the engagement of her daughter to Adam Clayton Powell III, son of the controversial Harlem congressman.

Mrs. John J. Slocum, who can trace her ancestry back to Miles Standish, said Beverly, 26, and Powell, 22, would marry sometime in May.

Powell, a producer for the Columbia Broadcasting System, is the son of Pianist Hazel Scott.

Antipollution Penalties To Be Reviewed

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — Proposed penalties against water polluters, including court orders to bar a violating public agency from granting sewer connection permits and from annexing new areas, will be considered for adoption by the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in Napa City Hall, Napa.

Under current law, the regional board can do little about a public agency that defies its orders to cease polluting.

Also on the agenda are reports from San Quentin Prison and the San Rafael Sanitation District on their progress in meeting standards set by the board. Both are to submit time schedules outlining their plans to meet the standards.

Tam Board Approves Curriculum Revisions

The Tamalpais High School District board last night gave hesitating approval to three major revisions to the district's curriculum for the 1969-70 school year.

In a meeting which lasted until after midnight, board members finally approved the unique "On Location Education" program for Tamalpais High School; a new, liberalized English department for Redwood High School and a new optional grading system for all district seniors.

So lengthy was a couple of the reports which preceded action on curriculum, the board was forced to hold over its discussion of the 1969-70 budget until tonight when it will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the district office in a special meeting.

The "On Location Education" program was discussed for nearly 90 minutes before trustees gave approval. The program is aimed basically at non-motivated students who are apparently not deriving any benefit from the regular school program, and are possible dropouts.

Under the program — which will be run by one teacher, Roger A. Griffith — 20 to 25 students will be selected for the class. The students will be exposed to many different situations and learning processes, including many field trips.

Cost of the program will be $2,745 for the coming school year. Tamalpais High will pay the entire cost of the program except for bus transportation, which will be funded by the district.

The new English program at Redwood High calls for many new courses and allows the student much greater latitudes in selecting which courses he would like to take. The department will be broken down into three groups — media, literature and composition.

A student will be required to take at least one course from each grouping, but will then be allowed to sign up for any of the other classes during the last three years of high school.

Included are eight composition courses, ancient literature, modern literature, poetry, myth and epic, dramatic literature, black literature, American literature, American novel, art of the film, mass media, beginning journalism, contemporary books and science fiction and fantasy and satire, to name a few.

Trustee Frank L. Miller led the first resistance to the English program, noting that "today's graduates are already having enough trouble doing the basics, spelling and putting together good sentences," he said.

"I'm all for progressive education, but I feel that there should be more control over what courses a new freshman should have to take."

Miller, however, voted "yes" along with the other three board members present — Gloria Melbostad, Bette Wallace and David D. Ring. Newly-appointed board member Robert W. Corlett, was not present.

The board's approval of the modified grading system will allow senior students to specify whether they want to be graded on the A through F scale or a credit or no credit basis.

The grading system will be optional in each individual class. The new program means that students will be free to take certain classes without risking their grade point average by merely requesting a credit — no credit grading for themselves.

The new grading system is hoped to allow students to "branch out" without jeopardizing the grade average.

The Tamalpais High School District board also:

NEW EMPLOYEES — Hired two new librarians, Virginia G. Richardson of Ross and Richard H. Bradshaw III of San Rafael. Mrs. Richardson will receive $9,530 per year and Bradshaw $10,300. The board also hired a new teacher, Robert A. Piro, Corte Madera, to teach chemistry at Redwood High at $7,750 per year.

APPOINTED — Officially appointed Robert W. Corlett to the board, replacing William B. Lewis who resigned. Corlett was elected April 15 to the board effective July 1, but was appointed to fill out the remainder of the Lewis term.

Water District To Seek Federal Funds

Two applications for federal funds will be considered by the Marin Municipal Water District board at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in the district office, 220 Nellen Avenue, Corte Madera.

The district will ask about $50,000 in land and water conservation funds for recreational facilities and about $20,000 in disaster funds to repair a slide at the Bon Tempe treatment plant, if the board acts favorably on the requests.

Makes Eating With FALSE TEETH Up to 35% Easier

Clinical tests prove you can now eat and chew better—make dentures average up to 35% more effective—if you sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. FASTEETH holds uppers and lowers more firmly so they feel more comfortable. FASTEETH is not acid—doesn't sour. No gummy, pasty taste. Helps check "denture odor". Dentures that fit are essential to health. So see your dentist regularly. Get FASTEETH at all drug counters.

Sausalitan Goes To Vacaville

Richard Bruce Schwartz, 24, of Gate 6 near Sausalito, yesterday was sent by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court to the state medical facility at Vacaville for a 90-day evaluation period.

Schwartz, who was on probation from an earlier conviction, had pleaded guilty to two charges of car theft, possessing a bad check with intent to defraud and possessing a hypodermic needle.

The judge revoked his probation from the earlier case.

Schwartz was arrested Jan. 16 by Mill Valley police.

$200,000 San Francisco Blaze Takes Three Lives

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A 35-year-old mother, her young daughter, and their housekeeper were killed early today when a four-larm fire burst through five sets of flats in the Richmond District doing at least $200,000 damage.

Found dead on the floor of their Arguello Boulevard flat were Mrs. Joan Sutton and her 7-year-old daughter, Susie. The charred body of the housekeeper, Mrs. Elsie De Roche, 57, was found still in bed in an adjoining room.

The first alarm was turned in at 1:50 a.m. and firemen responding to the call found three buildings, including the Sutton residence, already enveloped. Searchlights lit the smoke-filled sky as firemen fought the blaze from aerial ladders. By the time the fire was under control shortly before 3 a.m. 180 firemen and 36 pieces of equipment were on the scene.

A couple who jumped from the second floor of one of the structures received slight ankle injuries. Frank Fee was taken to Mission Emergency Hospital while his wife was treated at the scene. They lived in a flat adjoining the victim's residence.

Two dozen persons were displaced by the blaze, and many of them stood standing coats thrown over their pajamas and watched as their homes were fully or partially destroyed. Red Cross officials on the scene promised to find temporary dwellings for those affected.

Bond Vote Study

The Bolinas-Stinson School board will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. today to discuss whether to cancel the June 10 bond election.

FUTILE CONFRONTATION

Umpire Emmett Ashford and New York Yankee manager Ralph Houk have a verbal go at each other during a second inning rhubarb. Dodgers Dump Giants 7-5; Rematch Tonight In L.A.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Willie Mays is happy with his old, familiar position in the Giant lineup but he's not too enthused about his club's current position in the National League West Division standings.

Especially after what happened to them last night at Dodger Stadium.

Mays was back at his No. 3 spot in the Giant batting order last night—and he responded by collecting two hits in four trips and upping his average to .333. But it was still not enough to overcome a couple of costly errors and timely Dodger hits. All of which added up to a 7-5 Los Angeles victory, their sixth straight at home and one which kept them right on the heels of the league-leading Atlanta Braves.

SADECKI

The two-game series concludes tonight when Ray Sadecki of the Giants opposes Don Drysdale. The game will be televised on Channel 2, starting at 7:55.

"I enjoyed batting leadoff," Mays remarked, "but I think it will be better for the ball club if I bat third. Although I was getting on base (12 times in 19 appearances as a leadoff hitter) I wasn't driving in many runs (3 in 10 games)."

The decision to return Mays to the no. 3 spot was made by Giant manager Clyde King because of Ron Hunt's slump. Hunt has been batting second in the order but has been unable to move Mays along once the ageless Giant super star had gotten aboard.

BONDS

Hunt was not in the starting lineup Monday and Bobby Bonds took over leadoff duties.

"Batting leadoff will help Bonds, too," Mays asserted.

The Giants, now 6-6 and tied for third place in the west division with the Cincinnati Reds, committed two costly errors in the sixth inning when the Dodgers exploded for five runs to move into an irsurmountable 7-0 lead and knock Juan Marichal out of the box for the first time since June 19, 1963.

All five runs in the inning were unearned but the Dodgers also received timely run-producing hits from Ted Sizemore, Andy Kosco and pitcher Bill Singer.

2-0 LEAD

Willie Crawford's second homer of the year and a run-scoring single by Paul Popovich accounted for the first two Dodger runs.

The Giants made it close with a single run in the seventh and finally chased Singer with a four-run burst in the eighth. But Jim Brewer and Al McBean put out the fire.

Singer, meanwhile, chalked up his third straight victory. He struck out eight and walked three before leaving the scene in the eighth with the bases loaded and none out.

Jaycees Expand Golf Tournament

JIM SHORTS:

San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce, which in the past few years has sponsored a San Rafael City golf championship, has expanded it to become the Marin County Men's Amateur Championship.

A 36-hole medal handicap affair, the tourney will be held July 25-26 at San Geronimo National course. Field will be limited to 150 players on a first come, first served basis. Entries will be open sometime in June. It should be a well-run tournament because San Geronimo pro Bob Ellsworth will direct things as they should be directed.

There'll be an estimated $2,000 in merchandise prizes plus a new car and boat for anyone shooting an ace on special holes.

A Modified Hippie Version

SOPHOMORE GOLF pro Ron Cerrudo, who picked up a cool $4,116 in the Tournament of Champions the other day, is pictured in the May issue of Golf Digest in a section devoted to hair — the various fashions seen along the professional tour.

Golf Digest says: "Ron Cerrudo affects an only slightly hippie version."

No Trout For Bon Tempe

THE DEPARTMENT of Fish and Game has canceled plans for stocking trout in Bon Tempe Reservoir, explaining:: " . . . because the water district which operates the reservoir plans extensive use of copper sulfate to control algae. When used in large quantities, copper sulfate is deliterious to fishlife." I guess they mean it's harmful.

FORMER MARIN CITY resident Mel Gray, now a football-track star at University of Missouri, blazed across 100 yards in 9.3 seconds Saturday to break a Kansas Relays record at Lawrence, Kan. A crowd of 20,000 saw the performance which broke the former mark of 9.4, held since 1930 by Cy Leland of Texas Christian and tied only twice by Bobby Whilden of Texas in 1956 and Jim Hine of Texas Southern in 1957.

THAT SUPER STOCK drag meet at Sears Point International Raceway Sunday attracted only 3,500 spectators, a low count attributable to poor advertising and publicity.

Sears officails had nothing to do with the promotion as they contracted the meet to an independent promoter who neglected to notify a large segment of the news media.

Next big deal at Sears is the 150-mile late model stock car race sanctioned by the National Association for Sport Car Auto Racing. Sears is trying to lure a big, BIG name driver from the deep south for this 'un.

Pearson In Front

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., has moved eight points out front in the late model drivers' point standings of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR).

Pearson's third place finish at North Wilkesboro, N.C., Sunday broke the tie with Richard Petty of Randelman, N.C., for the lead in the standings. Petty's engine failed 12 laps from the finish and he placed seventh.

After 15 races of the 1969 season, Pearson has 1,211 points and Petty 1,203.

James Hylton of Inman, S.C., is third with 1,041; Neil Catles of Charlotte fourth with 998 and Elmo Langley of Landover, Md., fifth with 951.

Oaks Romp To Victory Over Bucs

OAKLAND (UPI) — At the rate the Oakland Oaks are going, they're liable to go through the rest of the American Basketball League playoffs without another loss.

And that includes the ABA finals.

The Oaks made it 2-0 in the Western Division finals last night with a 135-124 victory over the New Orleans Buccaneers.

BETTER PLAY

"We're playing better ball overall than we did during the last two months of the season," an elated Alex Hannum said of his Oaks' effort. "Our players are really up now that we're in the playoffs."

Up is the word. Superb reserve guard Henry Logan and Warren Armstrong paced the Oaks in their initial victory. In yesterday's contest, it was the work of forwards Gary Bradds and Doug Moe which paced Oakland.

CONTROL

And again, the Oaks displayed an outstanding all-around game. They controlled the backboards, 76-45, and also outshot the Bucs from the foul line, converting 45 of 64 to 35 of 46 for the Bucs.

Bradds and Moe combined for 31 of Oakland's 41 third quarter points to give the Oaks the needed boost. Bradds pumped in 17 of his game-high 35 markers during the period and Moe got 14 of his 18 total markers.

SLIM LEAD

Oakland held a slim 69-67 halftime lead but after the Bradds-Moe blitz, upped the margin to 110-96 at the three-quarter mark.

Three other Oaks scored in double figures. Logan had 26, Armstrong and Jim Eakins 21 apiece. For New Orleans, Jim Jones had 31. However, 17 of those points came on free throws.

The two teams meet tomorrow and Friday in New Orleans.

ATHLETICS VS. TWINS

Young Fingers Gets Try

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (UPI)—Young Rollie Fingers makes his first major league start today and Manager Hank Bauer couldn't have picked a tougher spot to pitch the Oakland righthander.

The 22-year-old Fingers will be thrown against the slugging Minnesota Twins, who have won seven straight games and are the current leaders in the American League's Western Division.

The Twins, who dropped their first four games of the season, piled up an 8-1 lead on the strength of a five-run, third inning yesterday to dump the A's, 8-4, and keep the streak going.

Two-run singles by Harmon Killebrew and Graig Nettles highlighted the five-run frame off loser Chuck Dobson.

Rick Monday scored the first Oakland run in the sixth when he doubled and came around on an error and Ramon Webster's sacrifice fly.

PUT IT AWAY

But the Twins added two runs in their half of the sixth and another in the eighth to put it away.

Tom Reynolds, who has rapped out six hits in the last three games, started a three-run ninth inning rally for the A's with a double. A wild pitch, walk and Danny Cater's single scored one run and another wild pitch and Monday's hit added the final two runs.

CHANCE WINS

Dean Chance, who pitched hitless ball for five innings, gained credit for the victory, his first of the year. However, he only worked seven innings in the game which was played in 50-mile-an-hour winds.

'Shoe' Wins Anniversary Horse Race

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Bill Shoemaker has earned millions during a spectacular jockey career, but his 5,803rd triumph ranks as one of his memorable ones.

Shoemaker rode his first winner at Golden Gate Fields in 1949. He returned to the California track yesterday for a 20th anniversary assignment and won the $15,000 added Native Diver Stakes aboard Berry Patch.

The three-quarter length victory that beat Slippoo and resulted in a $3.80 payoff was the 464th stakes win for "The Shoe."

"This has to be one of my biggest thrills in racing," Shoemaker said. "It was also a lucky day for me because when my colt ducked over, his saddle slipped and I almost came off."

CONFIDENT BAYLOR SAYS . . .

Lakers Can Stop Celtics

INGLEWOOD (UPI) — Elgin Baylor has accomplished almost everything in his brilliant National Basketball Association career—almost everything but winning a championship.

In his 11 pro seasons, he has been frustrated five times in the NBA finals by defensive genius Bill Russell.

Baylor and the Los Angeles Lakers face Russell and the Boston Celtics tomorrow night in the opener of a best-of-seven game series for the NBA title. But this time Baylor has Wilt Chamberlain on his side.

NULLIFY HIM

"The Celtics are a great team and Russell is a great player but I think Wilt will nullify him," the greatest scorer in NBA playoff history said.

"In past years, Russell has hurt us both offensively and defensively. He was the difference in the playoffs. Now with Chamberlain in there, I don't think we have to worry about Bill's scoring. There's not much doubt that Wilt is the best center we ever had."

For the first time, the Lakers will have the home court advantage in the finals over the Celtics, who won three of the previous five series in seven games and two in six contests including the one a year ago.

24.8 AVERAGE

Baylor, who averaged 24.8 points a game in leading the Lakers in scoring during the regular season, isn't sure how important the home court is.

"The only difference playing at home is the crowd reaction," the 34-year-old veteran said. "Of course, it's always good to have people on your side."

Baylor averaged only 12.2 points a game in the Lakers' first 10 playoff games this season. That compares with his 30.7 playoff record in 10 previous playoff years.

He snapped out of the drought Sunday by pumping in 29 points as the Lakers gained the finals with a 104-96 victory over the Atlanta Hawks.

ROAD TO FINALS

While Los Angeles beat San Francisco and Atlanta to win the finals, Boston got there by eliminating Philadelphia and New York.

The Lakers won the Western Division title while the Celtics, called too old by some, finished fourth in the Eastern Division in the regular season race.

The Forum will be the site of the second game of the series Friday night.

The series moves to Boston for a nationally televised game Sunday afternoon and the fourth contest is set at the Boston Gardens Tuesday night, April 29.

If necessary, the fifth game will be held here Thursday, May 1; the sixth game at Boston Saturday, May 3, and the seventh encounter here Monday, May 5. All would be night games.

HERB MICHELSON

Two Surprises, One Old Problem For Athletics

OAKLAND — The first couple of weeks of the season have produced two small surprises and one continuing, grim reality for the Oakland Athletics.

The nice things have happened to the starting pitching rotation, which was an abomination in the spring, and to second baseman Dick Green, who was marvelous in Arizona but didn't figure to continue hitting like a superstar.

In their first 10 games, for example, the A's had only one sub-par pitching job from a starter—a wild display against Kansas City by Chuck Dodson. And in that same number of games, Greenie was remarkable at the plate — with 10 RBIs and an average near .400, a shade below his springtime work but still rather acceptable.

So much for the goodies.

ON THE gloomy side is the continued failure to hit against — and defeat — left-handed pitchers. This inability against southpaws has passed the allergy stage. It has become a two-year communicable disease among the White Shoes.

Last year Oakland opened with five left-handed hitters, power hopes Rick Monday, Reggie Jackson and Ramon Webster, John Donaldson and "ping" hitter Jim Gosget. So it perhaps made sense that four lefties beat this lineup in the first fortnight of 1968.

Donaldson now plays behind Green; Gosger, who has trouble hitting anybody, is now gone to Seattle. Webster, who spent much of '68 on the farm, is now a reserve first baseman; which leaves Jackson and Monday as the only regular left-handed batters.

THUS ONE is inclined to wonder why opposing managers keep tempting fate by throwing — repeatedly throwing — lefties against the A's. Wonder verbally in front of Kansas City manager Joe Gordon, and he provided this insight:

"The A's main power threats are Monday and Jackson. And lefties can handle them. But another big advantage of using lefties against Oakland is to contain their speed. They have a very fast club — guys like Campaneris and Jackson and Monday — and a southpaw can keep them close to first if they reach."

BILLY MARTIN, who manages the Minnesota Twins, agrees with Gordon's reasoning. But Billy finds another favorable dimension.

"A lefty's fast ball can do some strange things. And on a young club like the A's, the kids just aren't used to seeing those strange hops on the fast stuff."

JACKSON AND Monday, particularly, can look bad on fast balls, although the casual baseball observer might think this is the most hittable pitch.

Not according to St. Louis manager Red Schoendienst. "A real good fast ball is the hardest pitch to hit," sayeth the once fine-hitting Schoendienst, "because you have the least time to react. You can learn to plot the time and course of a curve, and to adjust. But if a good fast ball is fast enough to keep you from getting all the way around on it, there's nothing you can do."

MANAGER HANK BAUER is trying to do something, though. Like bench Jackson against lefties.

And if that doesn't work, if southpaws continue to defeat the A's at the 36-26 rate of 1968 and the same sort of ratio this year, which has been the case so far, Bauer can petition for further rule changes. Perhaps at the Coliseum, lefties should be required to pitch from foxholes.

Heart Fund Net Tourney Slated At Sleepy Hollow

Registrations are now being taken for the first "Tennis for Heart" men's singles tournament.

The tournament will be June 7-8 and 14-15 at San Domenico School for Girls, Sleepy Hollow, proceeds going to the Marin County Heart Association.

Open to Marin County residents and members of Marin County tennis clubs, entries may be obtained from the Marin County Heart Association and Stan's for Sports in San Rafael, and Crocker-Citizens Bank, Montecito branch. Entries, at $10 each, are limited to 64 players, in order received.

Matches will be best of three sets, with first round losers playing in consolation matches. Trophies and prizes will go to winners. Co-sponsoring the event are Stan's for Sports and San Domenico School for Girls.

Entries close June 3, according to tournament director Herb P. Clark, tennis professional at Harbor Point Club in Tiburon.

Redwood Golfers Top Marin 'Cats

Redwood High School's golf team topped Marin Catholic, 215-224, in a Marin County Athletic League golf match at Meadow Club in Fairfax yesterday

Marin Catholic's Glenn Campagna was medalist with a 40.

Redwood Scoring — Steve Hartman 43, Stocky Spooner 41, Art Carewe 43, Arnold Brooks 44, Bob Zimmerman 44. Marin Catholic Scoring — Glenn Campagna 40, Bill Hearn 47, Tom Bertolli 43, Steve Vail 44, Mike London 50.

Sparma Blanks Nats; Stottlemyre 4-0

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Joe Sparma, an in-and-outer during his five-year major league career and a doghouse occupant even in the year of the Detroit Tigers' first world championship in 23 years, thinks he's become a winning pitcher because he has found a new pitch.

Joe calls it a strike.

"My strike pitch," the powerful right-hander shouted last night after pitching a 2-0 victory over the Washington Senators. "My strike pitch is my best pitch."

Sparma, 10-10 last season and almost thrust into outer darkness after criticizing Manager Mayo Smith for giving him a quick hook, held the Senators to two hits last night. He yielded a double to Bernie Allen in the fourth inning and a single to Eddie Brinkman with two out in the ninth while striking out six batters and walking eight.

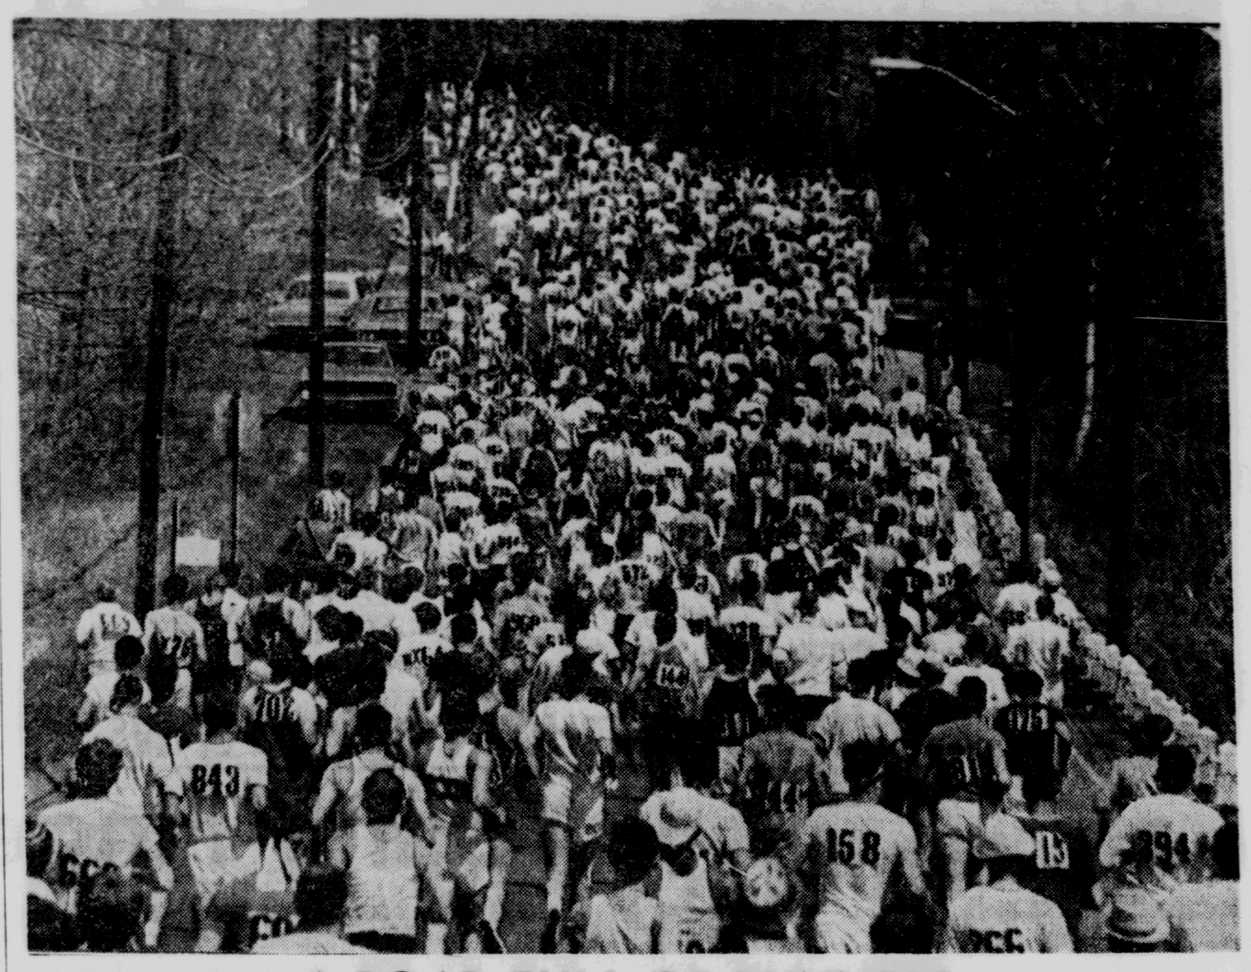
The Tigers gave Sparma a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Willie Horton singled, went to second on a walk and scored on a throwing error by Allen. Al Kaline's third homer of the season produced their other run in the sixth.

The Baltimore Orioles routed the Cleveland Indians 11-0, the Minnesota Twins downed the Oakland Athletics 8-4, the New York Yankees defeated the Boston Red Sox 6-4 and the Seattle Pilots beat the Kansas City Royals 4-1 in other American League games.

Brooks Robinson's two-run double in the fourth inning and Merv Rettenmund's three-run homer in a six-run seventh made it easy for Jim Palmer to win his third straight victory. Palmer, who was sidelined for the entire 1968 season with a back ailment, allowed four hits, struck out five and walked four.

Mel Stottlemyre received credit for his fourth straight victory, with relief aid from Lindy McDaniel, as the Yankees used their new-found speed to help them to victory.

Winning pitcher Mike Marshall hit two run-scoring singles and won his first game of the season although Jack Aker had to get the last putout in the Pilots' victory. Steve Jones suffered the loss for Kansas City.



A ROAD FULL OF RUNNERS

Some of the 1,300 competitors in the 73rd annual Boston Marathon jam the road and jockey for position after the start of the race in Ashland, Mass. Yoshiaki Unetani of Japan won in a record time of two hours, 13 minutes and 49 seconds. (UPI Telephoto)

NATIONAL LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Mays And Brock Back To Normal

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Willie Mays and Lou Brock are back to normal now—and that has to be bad news for the National League pitchers.

Mays was back in his familiar No. 3 spot in the lineup last night after manager Clyde King quietly abandoned his heralded experiment of turning the San Francisco star into a leadoff hitter.

Mays, who hit .317 in 11 games as a leadoff hitter, was .500 in his first game back in the No. 3 spot in a 2-for-4 night that raised his average to .333. But the performance went for naught as the Giants lost to Los Angeles, 7-5.

TWO HITS

Meanwhile, Brock, who started the season in a 4-for-45 slump and was hitting just .089, collected two hits for the second staight game as the St. Louis Cardinals recorded their first victory of the season at home by edging Montreal, 5-4.

Elsewhere in the National League, Philadelphia edged New York, 2-1, Cincinnati clubbed Houston, 11-5, and Atlanta nipped San Diego, 5-2.

The Dodgers scored five runs in the sixth inning, knocking Juan Marichal out of the box with the help of a pair of errors, and built up a 7-0 lead while beating San Francisco.

HOME RUN

Brock homered in the sixth to tie the St. Louis-Montreal game and then started a ninth inning rally with a single that ended when reliever Dan McGinn walked Tim McCarver with the bases loaded and two out to force in the winning run.

Pete Rose, Bob Tolan and pitcher Jim Merritt hit two-run singles to lead Cincinnati to its 11-5 victory over Houston. Tolan wound up with three hits and three RBIs.

BREAK TIE

Tony Taylor singled in Larry Hisle from second base with one out in the 11th inning to snap a 1-1 tie and give the Phils the victory over the Mets. Hisle hit his first major league homer for the Phils' first run.

The Atlanta Braves pounded five San Diego pitchers for 13 hits including homers by Clete Boyer and Orlando Cepeda to beat the Padres. Ron Reed got the victory with a 7 1-3 inning performance.

Cal's Steakhouse, Jaycees Triumph

Cal's Steakhouse and the Jaycees turned up winners yesterday in the slow pitch division of San Rafael Recreation Department softball league yesterday at Albert Field.

Cal's Steakhouse shut out the Harding Gophers 4-0 and the Jaycees topped Wright's Richfield 7-2. In a B division softball game, Salt's Fish and Chips nicked Trailor Boat 5-4.

Arden Jensen, sophomore field goal kicker, set an Army season mark with 11 in 1968. Two of them were 46-yarders.

Ex-Novato Prep Slugs Home Run

Former Novato High School baseball and basketball standout Nick Willard toiled gamely for Bakersfield in the California League yesterday, but his team lost.

Willard slugged a three-run homer in the eighth inning for Bakersfield, but it wasn't enough to avoid a 9-7 Bakersfield loss to league leading Reno, in Reno. The winners got six runs in the ninth inning.

BOWLING TIPS

By MARION LADEWIG

A too-large hole can cause a sore thumb, because it forces the bowler to exert extra pressure to hold onto the ball. The same thing can cause sore fingers. If your ball fits correctly and your fingers are still sore, try a bowling glove, which can take some of this pressure off the thumb and fingers.

Here Are The Reasons For Mussel Quarantine

On April 15 the State Department of Public Health announced a mussel quarantine order to be in effect from May 1 to October 31. This quarantine is established for all species of mussels from Oregon south to Mexico in the ocean, San Francisco Bay and all other bays, inlets and harbors. During this period, mussels may concentrate a toxic material that is highly toxic to man.

In addition, the public is warned that clams should be cleaned and washed thoroughly before cooking. All dark parts of clams should be discarded because the poison present during May through October would be concentrated in the dark parts.

EACH YEAR wardens of the department of Fish and Game receive calls from persons asking about the above toxic material in clams and cockles. We advise to discard the dark parts of all clams. The question, "What causes this toxic condition" is more difficult to answer. Most people have heard about "Red Tide,", but few people really know what causes it, or what it is. I will try and explain.

THIS PHENOMENON is a result of the development of enormous numbers of minute pigmented organisms which give a red color to the water. A sample of red tide held in the sunlight will reveal millions of specks which cause the red color. Always present in small numbers, these organisms multiply to astronomical numbers when conditions are favorable for their growth. All the forms which produce red tide are members of the group called plankton, which are microscopic floating plats, animals and borderline forms of a simple unicellular nature which shellfish filter out of the water.

RED TIDE indicates a nutritious condition of the water, highly favorable to marine life. Tides of a reddish brown color are produced by any one of a number of different organisms, but one called Gonyaulax has produced red tides that were sometimes toxic.

STUDIES IN California showed that mollusks and crabs can develop a potent toxin from ingesting Gonyaulax. Human deaths in California have been attributed to the eating of mussels which had been feeding on Gonyaulax. Typical symptoms of human shellfish poisoning includes a tingling and numbness in the mouth region, followed by headaches and paralysis of the limbs. The severity of the effects depends on the amount and toxicity of the mollusks eaten. Cooking reduces the toxicity and canning even more so. Mussels absorb more of the poison than clams and this is probably the reason that what is dealt with here is called "Mussel Poisoning."

IT IS IMPORTANT to note that the mere appearance of a red tide is no occasion for alarm since a wide variety of innocous forms produce most of our red tides. Only when the red tide is due to the abudnance of Gonyaulax need harvesting operations be suspended until the red tide has disappeared and the shellfish have had time to rid themselves of accumulated poisons. Regular inspections are made by the county and state health departments during the possible periods of red tide occurences.

MARIN SPORTSMEN will be interested to learn that William H. Beckett, skippr of the fishing boat "Paul G.," has been fined $3,500 and sentenced to six months in jail on six counts of chumming with live bait in a prohibited area off the Pacifica Beach, south of San Francisco Bay, and for failing to keep proper records.

Judge Charles Becker of San Mateo County Municipal Court, before whom Beckett was convicted by a jury last month, suspended the jail term, suspended $450 on each of the seven counts and placed Beckett on probation for two years.

Judge Becker also pronounced sentence on three of Beckett's crew who were involved with him in the live chumming case and convicted by the same jury that found Beckett guilty.

Frazier Is Heavy Favorite

HOUSTON (UPI)—Unbeaten Joe Frazier puts his share of the world heavyweight boxing championship on the line tonight against rugged, but unpolished Dave Zyglewicz. Frazier is a decided favorite to make short work of the challenger.

Frazier, recognized as champion in six states and two foreign countries, is so sure of having his way with Zyglewicz that he is already considering a June fight with Jerry Quarry that could bring him a half million dollars.

The fighters weigh in at 1 p.m. EST, and will have at each other over a scheduled 15 rounds beginning at 9:50 p.m. EST.

The fight is expected to bring in a near-capacity crowd at the 12,000-seat Sam Houston Coliseum. The gate is forecast to come to $150,000. Frazier will get 40 per cent of that and Zyglewicz 20 per cent.

The fighters will get the same percentage of the money gained from a 20-city television hookup.

Phoenix Suns Sign Neal Walk

PHOENIX (UPI) — The Phoenix Suns, who were short on height last season, will be looking a little taller next year with the addition of Neal Walk, the No. 2 National Basketball Association draft choice.

Walk was believed to have signed a three-year, $300,000 contract yesterday with the Suns, last place finishers in the Western Division in their first NBA season in 1968-69.

He is 6 feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 240. Walk averaged 24 points and 18 rebounds a game for Florida last season.

He was believed to have turned down a higher money offer from the Carolina Cougars of the rival American Basketball Association.

Race Expected To Draw 1,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — More than 1,000 distance runners are expected May 25 for the 59th annual "Bay to Breakers" race sponsored by the San Francisco Examiner.

Last year, more than 800 runners finished the seven-mile race. It was won by Ken Moore of the Oregon Track Club, who beat Tom Laris of the New York Athletic Club in the last 70 yards.

Entry blanks can be obtained from race director Frank Geis at the Pacific Association-AAU, Room 602, 942 Market Street, San Francisco.

Harrelson To Join Indians?

BOSTON (UPI)—The retirement of Ken "the Hawk" Harrelson in major league baseball was expected to come to an end today.

Harrelson, the defending American League runs-batted-in king, announced Sunday he would retire from baseball rather than accept the trade which sent him and two other Boston players to the Indians in return for two pitchers and a catcher, Boston's weak spots this season.

But the 27-year-old Harrelson, who made almost as big a name with his mod clothes as he did with his bat, had 72 hours from the time he was traded to actually join the club and all indications were he would join the Tribe before today's 4 p.m. deadline.

Telephone negotiations between Cleveland President and General Manager Gabe Paul in Baltimore and Harrelson in Boston yesterday appeared to have convinced the colorful Hawk he should abandon his brief self-imposed exile from baseball.

The expected agreement would unsnarl one of major league baseball's wildest tangles in which Harrelson's plan to retire jeopardized a six-player deal between the Indians and Red Sox.

The Red Sox and Indians were impatiently awaiting Harrelson's decision because of a ruling by Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn that the other five players involved in the deal would not be permitted to play for either team.

Harrelson and pitchers Dick Ellsworth and Juan Pizzaro were traded to Cleveland for catcher Joe Azcue and pitchers Sonny Siebert and Vicente Romo.

HERE'S WHY.
• Silvertown Radials are built a new way. The 4-ply belt reduces tread scuffing. So BFG Radials roll easier. And your car's engine doesn't work so hard.
• BFG Radials deliver up to twice the mileage of our "new-car" tires — yet cost just 40% more. You can save 60% of the cost of tires. Plus hundreds of gallons of gas!
• Also, BFG Radials have flexible sidewalls for better traction and cornering. And a smoother high-speed ride. They resist punctures and blowouts better, too!
BFG Radials are built with Dynacor® Rayon Cord.

GUARANTEE. Every new B.F.Goodrich passenger car tire not branded "second" is guaranteed for the life of the original tread, regardless of age or mileage, against defects in material and workmanship, and in normal non-commercial passenger car service, against failures caused by road hazards (not including repairable punctures, tires irregularly worn, tires damaged by running flat, fire, wrecks, collisions, chain cuts or obstructions on the automobile, nor does it apply to tires when used on vehicles other than a passenger automobile). If such tire fails under this guarantee and is so damaged beyond repair, the owner will receive full allowance for remaining tread toward the purchase of a new tire of our manufacture at the then current retail "trade-in" price.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Adviser Confidence Is Key To Success

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. Last year I invested $30,000 through an investment-counseling service. My goal was to offset inflation. They bought 3M McDonnell Douglas convertible 4¾s of 1991, 5M U.S. bonds, American Standard, Boston Edison, Cincinnati Gas & Electric, IBM, National Steel, Norfolk Steel, Norfold & Western and Union Oil of California. When the U.S. bonds were redeemed in February the service bought Dayco. I wondered why they switched from bonds to stock. I also wonder if these counseling firms have their own interest uppermost when making recommendations. How do you feel about it? — G. J.

A. Any firm offering counsel or advisory service is regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Very strict rules on trading by the firm or any of its employees and their relatives would seriously hamper the unscrupulous person who might try to take advantage of clients.

You appear to have very little confidence in the firm, yet you are entrusting them with the management of a sizable amount of your capital. I would say it was time for you to carefully reappraise your thinking.

Since your stated goal is growth sufficient to keep pace with inflation, the move to common stock was a necessity. The type of short-term bond that was redeemed is often used in order to keep funds earning interest until a suitable investment opportunity presents itself. Bonds do not normally appreciate in price as do stocks. In fact, in recent years the bond market has moved consistently downward as interest rates increased.

Your two utility issues are attractive primarily for their generous yield but could benefit from proposed plans to form holding companies. Norfolk & Western is also an income stock, but real-estate holdings and a pending merger add appeal to the shares.

National Steel, operating in the Midwest, ships 55 per cent of output to the automotive and conatiner industries. Earnings of $5, up from $4.65 a share, are looked for this year. American Standard should benefit from increased construction activities and Dayco from several recent acquisitions. Your other two stocks are fine growth issues and should be held.

G.M. Officers, Directors Lead Auto Pay Salaries

DETROIT (AP) — Officers and directors of General Motors Corp. received a record $17.7 million in salaries and supplemental compensation in 1968.

The increase, disclosed in a proxy statement last Friday, was 18 per cent over 1967's compensation.

James M. Roche, board chairman, received the highest amount, $794,934, including $225,000 salary, $427,500 in cash bonuses and $142,434 in contingency credits payable over five years.

Its 63 officers and directors received salaries totaling $4,936,916, bonuses of $9,896,012 and contengencies worth $2,906,572.

Officers and directors received a total of 14,906,481 in 1967, with $3,938,039 of it in salaries, $8,504,786 in bonuses and $2,463,656 in contengencies.

Ford Motor Co. reported a week ago its 52 officers and directors received $10,009,612 in salaries and supplemental compensation last year.

Henry Ford II, chairman, topped the Ford list with $200,000 in salary and $400,000 in supplementary compensation.

Edward N. Cole, who succeeded Roche as president in 1967, and George Russell, named vice chairman at the same time, were second in the General Motors list, tied at $727,490 each, with $202,500 in salaries and $386,250 in cash bonuses and $128,750 in contingencies.

G.M. executives also were granted options to purchase at below-market prices 101,811 shares of stock, with Roche's 5,211 topping the list.

Travel Service

MINEOLA, N. Y. (UPI) — A new subsidiary called Tra-Vel, Inc., has been formed by Designatronics, Inc., to engage in general travel services.

One share of the new company will be issued to Designatronics shareholders for each two shares held as of May 12. About $2 million in funds is being provided as working captial.

Retirement Cruise For Executives

NEW YORK (UPI) — Retirement can be traumatic, especially for the executive who revels in authority, status and the privileges his position brings.

It's such a fact of corporate life today that two travel companies are betting executives facing retirement will be willing to spend up to $10,000 on an ocean cruise designed to condition them, and their wives, to life away from the executive suite.

Prelude, Inc., of Newark, N.J., and Thomas Cook & Son, the international travel agency, are sponsoring a million-dollar cruise designed as pre-retirement therapy. They say inquiries and some reservations already have been received, even though the cruise is a year away.

Price of the 47-day cruise around South America, for facilities alone, start at $2,310 per person and $4,620 for a couple. Rates go up considerably from those levels.

A faculty of 16 eminent physicians, psychiatrists and other savants will give daily lectures on how an executive and his wife should prepare for a happy retirement during the man's last working year. The fee for this advice will be $2,400 per couple.

Included on the faculty are Dr. Paul Dudley White, the Boston cardiologist who treated the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and Dr. Hans Selye of the University of Montreal, considered the foremost authority on stress and tension. Dr. Prescott Thompson ,director of the retirement and aging study program at the Menninger Foundation in Topeka, Kan., will be from slowdown in activity.

About 200 top-level executives and their wives are expected to sail on the liner Argentina and listen to the daily lectures and discussions on how to develop intellectual and other interests for retirement.

Bad News Continues; Wall Street Declines

NEW YORK (UPI) — President Nixon's request for elimination of the 7 per cent investment credit touched off renewed selling on Wall Street today, and prices on the New York Stock Exchange finished lower for the second consecutive day in moderate turnover.

Also pressuring the list was a drop of more than 4 per cent in new factory orders for durable goods in March, monetary uncertainties in Europe and the virtual state of war in the Middle East.

Shortly before the final bell, the UPI stock market indicator was off 0.38 per cent. Of the 1,540 issues traded, 780 declined and 476 advanced.

Volume approximated 9 million shares.

Marin's Share Of License Fees At $686,710

Marin and Sonoma counties and cities will receive portions of a $139,193,200 vehicle license fee distribution, State Controller Houston I. Flourney has announced.

Marin County will receive $686,710, while Sonoma County's share will be $667,985.

Marin cities and their shares are: Belvedere, $12,133; Corte Madera, $38,268; Fairfax, $34,417; Larkspur, $38,529; Mill Valley, $55,782; Novato, $134,871; Ross, $12,917; San Anselmo, $61,382; San Rafael, $170,353; Sausalito, $31,267, and Tiburon, $28,421.

Southern Sonoma cities and their shares are: Cotati, $6,608; Petaluma, $103,370, and Rohnert Park, $23,450.

The distribution represents 75 per cent of the vehicle license fees the state expects to receive during the six-month period ending May 31, Flournoy said.

Holding Company

NEW YORK (UPI) — Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corp. has announced it proposes to create a new holding company to branch out from manufacturing into various commercial enterprises to be kept independent of the company's large scale government contract work.

Fishing, Camping Equipment Mail Order Firm Sets Opening

A new mail order business to open at Northgate Industrial Park May 1 is International Sportsmen, Inc., now located temporarily at the Merchandise Mart in San Francisco.

The company, headed by Leo T. Schober of Terra Linda, has leased space through William W. Hoey and Co. at 20-30 Mark Drive. It plans to engage in nationwide mail order activities and will specialize primarily in fishing and camping equipment. Advertisements will be run in outdoor magazines, later "flyers" will be mailed out and a full-line catalog is expected to be published about the first of next year.

Schober, formerly of New York, was with Abercrombie and Fitch for 25 years. He formed his own company only last December. Toward the end of May or first of June he plans on looking for part-time help for packing and shipping and possibly clerical.

ANOTHER FIRM to lease space here through Hoey and Sthymmel Realty is S. K. Marine Sales and Service, removed from 111 Verdi Street, San Rafael.

And Hoey has also leased 5,000 sq. feet to Fairchild Semiconductor for additional storage space. This leaves 4,000 square feet in the building still unoccupied.

ALLAN HEMPHILL of Guerneville has been elected president of the Sonoma County Wine Growers Association, succeeding Edmund A. Rossi Jr., who has held the post for four years. Rodney Strong of Healdsburg has been named vice president and Mrs. Esther Gowans of Sonoma has been reappointed secretary-treasurer.

BRUCE M. GLASSNER of Mill Valley has joined the creative staff at the San Francisco office of Meltzer, Aron and Lemen, Inc. He was previously a copywriter for Dailey and Associates, San Francisco and Earle Ludgin and Co., Chicago.

NEW OWNERS are expected to take over Pini Hardware at 1107 Grant Avenue, Novato on May 1.

The 26-year -old business has been purchased from partners Baxter Hovis, C. J. Nelson and D. D. Phillips by another partnership trio — C. B. Young and Arlan Branson of Novato and Edward L. Thompson, co-owner of Marin French Cheese Co., Petaluma. Young expects to close his Marin Interiors business and stock some of his goods at Pini.

Pini Hardware originally was a part of the H. Pini and Co. general store. In 1943 Hovis and Nelson pruchased the hardware portion and operated it on the side of the present Novato Theater. The building burned down in 1945 and the store was operated at Grant and Sherman Avenue until 1947 when the present location was taken.

INSURANCE. Randell W. Sanders of Fairfax has been appointed a consultant at Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. He was recently transferred to Marin County from Chicago. . .

. Bankers Life Nebraska general agent James W. Conley of San Rafael and associates James R. Harvey of Fairfax, Frederick J. Santos of Novato and James C. Tonge Jr. of Corte Madera were among members of the San Francisco agency at a four-day sales leaders seminar in Phoenix last week.

A LECTURE SERIES for retired widows and widowers and those soon to retire will be held next Thursday and the following Wednesday, April 30, at 7 p.m. at the Community Church, 8 Olive Street, Mill Valley. The series is free and is being presented by the investment firm Kelly and Morey, Inc. through account executive Walter E. Steinmann of Mill Valley. I am told that for those who require a ride, transportation will be provided by the Marin Senior Coordinating Council and other civic organizations.

Why paint? Tough baked-on vinyl finish defies the elements—lasts for years. Won't flake, warp, or crack. Rinses clean with just a hose.

18 year transferable guarantee for asphalt roof shingles

If a roof leak should develop because of defective shingles during the first seven years after installation, Montgomery Ward will furnish free replacements to recover the defective section(s). If Montgomery Ward installed the shingles, it will install replacement shingles free during this period.

If a roof leak should develop because of defective shingles during the next eleven years, Montgomery Ward will furnish replacements to recover the defective section(s), charging 1/216 of the then current Montgomery Ward regular price for each month from date of installation. A charge for installation will be made during this period.

All claims should be reported to the Montgomery Ward location where shingles were purchased and are subject to inspection by Montgomery Ward. This guarantee is transferable to subsequent purchasers of the property upon written notice to the Montgomery Ward location where purchased.

20 year transferable guarantee for asphalt roof shingles

If a roof leak should develop because of defective shingles during the first nine years after installation, Montgomery Ward will furnish free replacements to recover the defective section(s). If Montgomery Ward installed the shingles, it will install replacement shingles free during this period.

If a roof leak should develop because of defective shingles during the next eleven years, Montgomery Ward will furnish replacements to recover the defective section(s), charging 1/240 of the then current Montgomery Ward regular price for each month from date of installation. A charge for installation will be made during this period.

All claims should be reported to the Montgomery Ward location where shingles were purchased and are subject to inspection by Montgomery Ward. This guarantee is transferable to subsequent purchasers of the property upon written notice to the Montgomery Ward location where purchased.

LAST-MINUTE OFFER

Contract Revision Delays San Rafael Property Sale

San Rafael City Council last night postponed selling a portion of corporation yard property along Francisco Boulevard because revised contracts, bringing $98,418 more in cash, weren't ready for signing. (Other San Rafael City Council stories, page 16.)

In the process, it left the door slightly ajar for a last-minute bid to buy the property by an undisclosed local group represented by attorney James M. Kennedy of San Rafael.

Kennedy, who said he wasn't free to disclose the names or number of prospective buyers, said they were willing to pay more than the price offered to the city, and needed time to make a firm offer.

Councilmen offered March 17 to sell 3.25 acres to two automobile dealers, George Dexter and Hercules Viglienzone, for $425,478 and lease an additional frontage acre for $6,888 a year until needed for highway widening.

City Atty. David Menary Jr. reported last night that the leasing arrangement is out and the frontage acre will be sold.

Robert A. Roumiguiere, San Rafael real estate broker, representing Dexter and Viglienzone, said the sale price now totals $523,896.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini said it would take an exceptional offer before he would renege on the offer to sell to the two automobile dealers.

Menary said the city hasn't entered into any contract and wasn't "legally bound to anyone," and Bettini said "it was an oral contract and morally we've accepted the offer."

Menary commented: "I don't think you got enough money and I think the terms are terrible."

Kennedy said the city was selling the property at $3 a square foot and his clients would top that.

Councilman Harry A. Barbier said the property has been on the market for two years, and Kennedy's group could have made its offer before last night.

Kennedy said the understanding until recently was that the price was $4.75 a square foot, and Bettini noted that this was before it was determined that there was an easement across the site.

Councilmen contended that the selling price of $3 a square

Planners Split But Send Bolinas Logging Halt On To Supervisors

A new logging control ordinance for the Bolinas Ridge area, which would prohibit commercial logging, won the approval of the Marin County Planning Commission by 4-to-2 vote yesterday. (Other planning commission stories, page 12.)

The action came on a motion by Margaret Azevedo and a second by Dr. William F. Upton, with Chairman Hugh Dougherty and Michael Praszker supporting them.

Walter F. Freitas and Eugene R. Trombley dissented. Niels Schultz Jr. was absent.

The ordinance must now go to ahe board of supervisors for adoption.

On another motion by Mrs. Azeveda, the planning commissioners voted 5 to 1 to ask the supervisors to extend an interim logging ban, which is in effect for 90 days, to be extended to other areas in the county where the assessor finds marketable timber. An assessor's map shows marketable timber stretching inland into parts of San Geronimo Valley and Nicasio.

Freitas was the lone dissenter on this vote.

Freitas charged that an ordinance prohibiting logging would take private property for public use without compensation. "The only reason for the ordinance is to compel the property owner to leave his trees for passing drivers to enjoy," said Freitas. "I think this is socialistic."

Socialism is relative, replied Praszker. "Putting public goods before private goods — that's a form of socialism." Praszker argued that architectural supervision regulating the color or design of structures are all aimed at pleasing neighbors and passersby.

County Planner Sol Silver outlined the various provisions of the new ordinance and the natural resources protective district which would be established.

Logging, mining, quarrying drilling would be prohibited from Mount Tamalpais State Park to Haggerty Gulch in the north, and from the Pacific Ocean to Samuel P. Taylor Park and Marin Municipal Water District land. Silver said more than half the district would be within the area designated for the Point Reyes National Seashore.

Freitas said the ban on mining, drilling and quarrying would be premature action because such operations can be conducted without injury to anyone else.

"To strangulate an owner for the benefit of the public who isn't paying for it is not honest and not legal."

Trombley said he voted "no" against the logging control ordinance because he favors control but not prohibition.

The logging control ordinance and the recommendation to expand the natural resources protective district will go to the Marin County Board of Supervisors for decision.

San Geronimo Area Amnesty Panel Set

Valley 'Squares,' Hippies Square Off, And Cool Off

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Appointment of an amnesty committee to get "squares" and hippies together for mutual understanding was promised at the conclusion of a San Geronimo Valley mass meeting last night.

The hopeful note came after a meeting that sank at one point deep into ugliness as at least two members of the audience applauded when Richard Green, co-owner of Shirley's Cafe in Forest Knolls, complained that shots had been fired at his place and someone had tried to burn it down.

The multipurpose room of Lagunitas School was filled with nearly 200 people for the meeting, called by the San Geronimo Valley Association. Marin County officialdom was well represented.

It was called to discuss a list of local problems including leash law, litter, housing, welfare, etc. Some of them were never touched. Underneath all ran the hippies-vs.-squares feeling and deep resentment over loud rock and roll music that emanated from the neighborhood of Shirley's Cafe on Easter Sunday and again last Sunday.

Through most of the two and one-half hour meeting, there were boos whenever a good word was said for hippies and their way of life. But at the end, there were no boos as Joseph Furdas, new president of the association, announced a committee would be appointed to try to work out how the opposing groups could get along together.

The first suggestion for a "group of citizens as intermediaries to hear both sides" came from a Forest Knolls man who did not give his name. It was promptly taken up by others, including Terrel Plant of Forest Knolls, who said: "I came to a meeting once before and a committee was formed to get rid of the hippies. We should have a committee to get along with the hippies."

County Supervisor Louis H. Baar, who urged that the solution to the valley's troubles lies in every individual respecting the rights of others, endorsed the committee proposal.

The hopeful note of cooperation was given a boost as Lawrence Baldwin of Lagunitas arose to volunteer his services with his pickup truck to remove rubbish that litters roadsides, yards, and empty houses in the valley — rubbish that County Fire Chief Louis Bloom had pointed out presents a serious fire hazard.

Barely an hour earlier, Baldwin's companion, teenage Sarah Sherman, broke down in tears as she arose to plead: "I just want to know why we can't live together . . . Do you believe we're all children of God? . . . We have to

Thant Says War Exists In Mideast

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant declared today the U.N. cease-fire along the Suez Canal sector is almost totally ineffective "and a virtual state of active war now exists there."

Thant made the statement in a special report to members of the U.N. Security Council. (See also Mideast story, page 2.)

He did not request a council meeting, but the urgency of the report indicated that members of the 15-nation council would now enter into consultations on what course to follow.

"I feel it necessary to employ the unusual means of a special report from the secretary-general to the Security Council, to call most urgently to the attention of members of the council the prevailing situation in the Suez Canal sector, which, in my view, is very grave," Thant said.

STOLEN MAIL

Ex-Postal Worker Accused In Thefts

A 32-year-old former mail carrier has been accused of mail thefts involving 3,000 to 5,000 pieces of mail that never reached Southern Marin destinations, San Rafael police reported today.

Warren Sielsky, of 9 Taylor Street, San Rafael, has been arrested twice in the past week on suspicion of mail theft, police said.

Inspector Gerald R. Souza said the first hint of Sielsky's activities came April 7 when police raided what appeared to be a narcotics party at 9 Taylor Street and found, besides narcotics, some checks believed stolen.

Sielsky, at the time, was a mail carrier for the Mill Valley Post Office.

Souza said postal inspectors were called in and Sielsky's alleged activities were uncovered through the use of planted mail on his route.

He appeared before the U.S. Commissioner in San Francisco last Monday and was released on $500 bail to return May 1. He was also relieved of his duties at the post office.

On Friday, Souza said, the case took another turn after William J. Canada of 32 Front Street, San Rafael, reported the theft of a color television valued at $800 form his locked apartment.

An anonymous tip led police to an apartment at 45 Woodland Avenue yesterday and the television was recovered. One of the persons at the apartment, Mike Warren Strong, 19, of Rohnert Park and Fort Ord, was booked into Marin County Jail on suspicion of burglary.

In Strong's possession were some more of the checks believed stolen in Southern Marin, police said.

Meanwhile, Bank of America in San Rafael reported a man attempted to cash a $300 check issued to James Lynch of Rohnert Park. Bank officials said the man did not have sufficient identification and the check was held to determine if it was actually Lynch trying to cash it.

Bank officials later identified Strong and he was rebooked at County Jail on suspicion of forgery, Souza said.

Strong, reportedly absent without leave, was also held for the Army.

Under questioning, he revealed Sielsky had given him several checks and had several more in a suitcase. Postal authorities were called back in and arrested Sielsky again.

Souza said Sielsky had apparently continued the thefts although he was no longer with the post office.

Strong appeared in Marin Municipal Court yesterday on the burglary charge and the case was continued until today. Bail was set at $1,250. No bail has been set in the forgery booking.

Mill Valley postal officials said today persons from whom checks were stolen will be contacted as the investigation continues.

There has been no estimate of the amount of money involved in the stolen checks and Souza said some of the mail will probably never be recovered.

Immediate Tax Shifts Only The First Step?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration spokesmen told Congress today President Richard M. Nixon's wide-ranging tax reform proposals are aimed at quickly repairing pressing flaws in the system and more basic changes are planned.

Of equal importance to immediate reform, Treasury Under Secretary Charles E. Walker told the House Ways and Means Committee, are "basic structural changes that go beyond reform" which, however, must be approached more slowly.

He noted in his prepared testimony that the President has ordered a cellar-to-attic review of every aspect of the tax system to point up the areas where simplification—a major goal—may be possible.

Overall, Treasury officials said, revenue losses and gains will cancel each other out at roughly $4 billion each, though there should be a net increase in receipts after the first two years.

Some of the changes are designed to take effect immediately, others by stages, the Treasury officials said. Action on revenue-sharing and the tax incentives programs would not begin for at least a year, they said.

Once the program ending federal taxation of families below the $3,500 line, or individuals earning less than $1,735 a year, is fully operative, they said, the cost will be $665 million a year.

Dirksen Says Reds Given Sole Warning

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, leaving a meeting with President Richard M. Nixon, said today U.S. policy toward protecting American reconnaissance flights is "the traditional one of warning only once."

Dirksen's comments to newsmen came a short time after the Pentagon indicated U.S. electronic surveillance flights off North Korea, halted after a Navy reconnaissance plane was downed last week, apparently have been or are about to be resumed.

One of the topics during the GOP congressional leadership's weekly meeting with Nixon was the status of the Korean situation, Dirksen reported after the nearly two and one-half-hour conference.

Nixon suspended the flights after North Korea MIG fighters shot down an EC121 and its 31 crewmen April 21. But he told his news conference last Friday the flights will be continued and will be protected.

Asked today whether Nixon's statement constituted the warning, Dirksen replied: "Exactly."

Asked whether he was saying the United States is going to protect the flights or hinting there might be retaliation, Dirksen halted the question in midair and said he was saying only the planes will have protection.

Senators Hear Split Views On ABM Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former Pentagon official testified today that if Congress blocks President Richard M. Nixon's Safeguard missile defense system, U.S. negotiators "may be up against extremely adverse odds" in arms control talks with the Soviet Union.

But a University of California scientist said the system would only escalate the arms race—and put greater reliance on computers for "that ultimate decision about whether or not doomsday had arrived."

Former Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze and Dr. Herbert York were among those participating as a lineup of scientists debated the issue before the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Dr. W. K. H. Panofsky of Stanford University challenged both of the strategic assumptions on which Safeguard is based and its technical capabilities of defending Minuteman missile sites.

Noting the power of U.S. nuclear submarines, strategic aircraft and missiles, he said "It appears impossible that the Soviet Union can attain first strike power by the mid-1970s."

Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird had testified that recent Soviet long range missile developments indicate the Russians are aiming at a first strike capability knocking out the U.S. ability to retaliate.

York, a physicist at the University of California at San Diego, insisted the Safeguard system would accelerate the arms race, and termed the whole plan "technically questionable."

He questioned how the system could be designed to cope with surprise attack and still have "a stiff trigger so that it will never go off accidentally or without proper authorization."

Nitze, who now is at the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, urged prompt arms control talks along with approval of the $490 million the administration seeks for the Safeguard system.

He said the two are mutually supporting.

"... The executive branch believes it would be in a much stronger position in any talks on limitation of offensive and defensive systems if it had the backing of the legislative branch on its Safeguard program," Nitze said. He said he agrees.

Sirhan Jury Debates Fate

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The longer the jury deliberates life or death for Sirhan B. Sirhan the worse it looks for the slender Arab immigrant convicted of slaying Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, the defense said today.

Sirhan's chief counsel, Grant B. Cooper, said he feels lengthy arguments by the panel which resumed deliberations at 8:02 a.m. today made it less likely it is to be a life sentence.

The penalty phase of the trial went to the jury at noon yesterday after convicting Sirhan of first degree murder last Thursday. Cooper said he would have been optimistic if the panel arrived at a decision shortly after they adjourned to deliberate.

Job Corps Trainees Sue To Save Center

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Eight enrollees at Parks Job Corps Center in Pleasanton filed suit in federal court today to halt the scheduled closure of the center.

The petition, filed in behalf of the eight minors and all others at the center, said the Nixon administration's plan to close the facility July 1 amounted, in effect, to a breach of contract.

EAST-WEST TOGETHERNESS IDEA

University of California engineer T. Y. Lin has formed a nonprofit corporation dedicated to building a 50-mile-long $1 billion bridge across the Bering Straits, to enable a motorist to drive from San Francisco to Moscow or anywhere in mainland Asia or Europe. One proposed construction method is to build piers in the 150 to 180-foot-deep straits, then float into place spans constructed elsewhere, Lin said yesterday. (UPI Telephoto)

A Dentist's Tooth Pulling Role—Touchy

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Dentists have to break the news gently when it comes time to pull Americans' teeth. For the patients know it's a sure sign they really are getting old.

Dr. Alex Koper of the University of Southern California school of dentistry said yesterday that "the oral cavity ranks second only to the genitilia in importance to the individual."

He discussed the psychological care and handling of teeth-pulling yesterday at the 99th annual meeting of the California Dental Association. Some 10,000 dentists, hygienists, technicians and students are gathered for the huge conclave.

Dr. Koper said that natives of many nations regard loss of teeth as inevitable. "The American dedication to a cult of youth makes it different here," he added.

"The whole mouth is a very highly emotionally charged part of the body," Dr. Koper added. "At birth, it is already a highly sophisticated instrument for measuring sensations.

"If you've ever noticed when an infant picks up something, he first puts it in his mouth then he looks at it."

Dr. Koper said that because people regard their mouths as kind of "holy area," they resent dentists because of their "intrusion."

Contra Costa, State Feud Over Delta Plan

MARTINEZ (AP) — Spokesmen for the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors say the proposed San Francisco Bay-Delta Water Quality Program is "an apparent extension of Southern California control policies."

Kerry Mulligan, chairman of the State Water Resources Control Board rebutted yesterday: "I resent some of the implications by the board of supervisors and the congressman from this area that we are doing everything that would be harmful to the Bay-Delta system."

Mulligan told O.T. Smith of the Contra Costa County Water Agency that the state is required to maintain and enhance waters of the state.

Smith said, "Contra Costa County can't and does not accept the Bay-Delta report as written."

He said the report assumes use of the controversial state quality criteria for the delta and that results "could spell the death sentence for existing ecological environment afforded by waters of the Bay-Delta system."

The criticism of the plan being considered by the Water Resources Control Board involved the proposed Antioch termination of the San Luis Drain, which will dump central Valley agricultural waste water.

The Martinez hearing was the second of four being held by the board.

Paul Saltau of the North Bay Advisory Council said consideration should be given to protecting "home rule" of cities and districts within the Bay Area.

Flood Crest Moves South In Midwest

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The flood crest of the Mississippi River pushed southward today heightening the danger to cities in Iowa, Illinois and Missouri while farther north the waters were receding.

Concerted efforts by the entire populations of some towns, and by elementary, high school and college students at others, had fought back the worst of the flooding.

In Minnesota and the Dakotas, the flood crest had passed, and evacuated residents including more than 12,000 in Minot, N.D., waited for the water to drain away so they could return home.

In Neche, N.D., on one of the few rivers still rising—the Pembina—workers reinforced crumbling dikes.

A score of businessmen and as many convicts from the state prison joined forces in Stillwater, Minn., over the weekend to reinforce dikes threatened with undercutting by the St. Croix River.

The high-river mark of 15.7 feet was reached at La Crosse, Wis., but dropped to 15.5 yesterday. The level was more than two feet below the tops of La Crosse's seven miles of levees.

St. Louis, a few miles downstream of the junction of the Mississippi with the water-swollen Missouri, expected a crest of 32 feet — two feet over flood stage — by tomorrow. But the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers said the crest would not cause extensive damage around St. Louis or points south.

Downstream at the Quad Cities — Moline and Rock Island, Ill., and Davenport and Bettendorf, Iowa — high schoolers helped strengthen dikes in preparation for the crest expected next week.

Pelicans Facing Extinction Due To Pesticide Drainage

BERKELEY (AP) — Extinction of pelicans and probably other birds along much of the West Coast is threatened by pesticide contamination of ocean waters, says the Institute of Marine Research at University of California.

Dr. Robert W. Risebrough said yesterday that he and a team of researchers found that heavy concentrations of DDT emptying from rivers in farming areas of California were causing near disastrous nesting failures among pelicans.

DDT scooped from plankton and small fish upsets an intricate hormone-enzyme relationship and causes the pelicans to lay eggs so deficient in calcium that they fall apart, he explained.

On Anacapa, one of the Channel islands off Oxnard, the research group found only 12 intact eggs in 298 nests and hundreds of broken eggshells littering the ground.

Many still contained yolk material found in laboratory tests to be heavily infested with DDT, Risebrough said. On a return visit days later, all of the 12 originally intact eggs were found broken.

Many other varieties of sea birds also are being affected by the toxic flows, including cormorants, Risebrough said.

West Coast seagulls are safe for the time being, he added, because much of their diet is garbage from populated areas and "California garbage is probably cleaner than the ocean today."

The flow of pesticides is increasing, he said, and total extinction of many species of marine birds which feed exclusively in the ocean is the grim prospect.

Risebrough said measurement of the broken pelican egg shells at Anacapa and other areas showed they averaged only half as thick as a similar group of pelican eggs collected in the same locality 30 years ago, when 1,000 nests produced 2,000 to 3,000 eggs and young each year.

Hayakawa Sees Taxpayer Revolt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dr. S. I. Hayakawa of Mill Valley said last night Californians are refusing to pay more taxes for higher education because they are "alarmed and disillusioned by disruption on one campus after another."

Hayakawa, acting president of San Francisco State College, said in a news conference a taxpayers' rebellion is underway.

Hayakawa denounced the California Democratic Council, which adopted a resolution Saturday asking him to resign. He said the group was wrongly injecting politics into the running of the college system.

Johnson Delays Lectures On Campus

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Former President Lyndon B. Johnson has decided to defer until next fall his planned series of lectures at Rice University.

Johnson had hoped to discuss government in a series of talks during the current academic term, but a university spokesman said yesterday he had been unable to fix on a suitable date.

The average person inhales 438 cubic feet of air in a 24-hour period.

Reds Caught At River, 50 Killed

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Marines caught 150 North Vietnamese trying to cross a river southwest of Da Nang yesterday and killed at least 50 of them with the help of artillery and an aerial gunship, military spokesmen said today. One Marine was wounded.

It was one of two ground battles reported by the U.S. Command. The Viet Cong shelled 17 allied bases and towns last night, and a delayed report told of heavy material damage to the U.S. air base at Nha Trang, 200 miles northeast of Saigon, in an attack with rockets and recoilless rifles Sunday night.

The Marines sprayed the North Vietnamese with machine guns 16 miles southwest of South Vietnam's second largest city as the enemy attempted to cross the Vu Gia River in sampans. Mortar shells and artillery rained on the boats and a Spooky gunship raked them with 6,000 rounds a minute from its miniguns.

The Marines counted 50 enemy bodies floating downriver after the shooting, and only one Leatherneck was wounded, officers said.

In another action 27 miles northwest of Saigon, North Vietnamese regulars attacked a column of armored personnel carriers from the 25th Infantry Division in night bivouac. But they were beaten back in a 15-minute firefight, leaving 21 dead, the U.S. Command said. No American casualties were reported.

Carp were first imported in the United States from England in 1877.

Red Fleet Grows

NAPLES, Italy (AP) — The Soviet navy boosted its Mediterranean fleet to about 60 ships today, roughly the same number participating in North Atlantic Treaty Organization war games in the area.

New Irish Riots

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Rioters stoned two police barracks last night in Belfast and threw flaming gasoline bombs in the streets, but British troops guarding key installations in Northern Ireland stayed out of sight.

Police scattered the crowd of about 100, and by midnight the city was quiet. There were no casualties.

More than 200 British soldiers were stationed at power plants, fuel depots and similar plants to guard against saboteurs.

Air Crash Kills 44

CALCUTTA (AP) — An Indian airliner crashed last night while flying over East Pakistan, killing all 44 persons aboard, all Indians, an aviation ministry official said today.

The plane, a Fokker Friendship model, was on a flight from Silchar, in the East Indian state of Assam, to Calcutta.

Festival Marred

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — About 700 Negores roamed through parts of downtown San Antonio last night, smashing store windows and generally disrupting a river parade that was part of San Antonio's Festival celebration, police said.

Some looting was reported by police, including the ransacking of a pawn shop from which several guns were taken.

Husak To Kremlin

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's new Communist party chief, Gustav Husak, went to Moscow today, and his party's reform faction hoped he would return with some Soviet concessions.

Husak was welcomed at Moscow airport by Soviet party chief Leonid Brezhnev, Premier Alexei Kosygin, President Nikolai Podgorny and other top officials. This red carpet treatment indicated the Kremlin's pleasure that the pro-Moscow Husak had replaced Alexander Dubcek.

Mutiny Squelched

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — A U.S. Coast Guard boarding party took five armed, mutinous crewmen into custody aboard the West German freighter Helga Witt last night off the west coast of Puerto Rico, the Coast Guard reported.

A spokesman said there was no bloodshed. The ship was reported heading for San Juan with the mutineers.

The freighter first radioed a request for a guard for a man taken into custody. Later another message flashed: "Please assist as soon as possible, the men have arms."

Satellite Detects Planetary Radios

WASHINGTON (AP) — Earth and Jupiter have something in common: both emit low frequency radio signals, says the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

NASA's radio astronomy satellite Explorer 38 discovered the signals while orbiting 3,640 miles above the earth, a meeting of the U.S. National Committee of the International Union of Radio Science was told Monday.

New Jersey entered the Union Dec. 18, 1787.

Israeli Jets Hit Egyptian Radar Sites

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli warplanes streaked over Jordan again today, and an Israeli military spokesman said they knocked out the major part of Egypt's early warning radar network. Amman Radio said it was Israel's heaviest air attack in more than a year.

A senior member of the Israeli general staff said the attack on two Egyptian radar sites in south Jordan was a partial answer to Egyptian artillery bombardments over the Suez Canal during the past month.

Egypt, meanwhile, reported that its patrols crossed the Suez Canal again during the night to attack Israeli positions on the east bank.

Israel said its planes also hit two Arab guerrilla bases in north Jordan.

The Israelis said one plane was shot down and the pilot was presumed dead. Jordan said two other Israeli jets were damaged, and Red Crescent officials said they had been told the pilot of one parachuted into southern Jordan and was captured by Saudia Arabian troops stationed there.

foot was in the appraisal range for the site.

They argued that the automobile agencies would return substantial sales tax revenue to the city and would be the best use of the property.

It would bring Dexter's Toyota agency to the city from Larkspur, and would keep Viglienzone's Marin Bay Lincoln Mercury agency, now at Third Street and Lincoln Avenue, in the city, Roumiguiere said.

Councilman Fred E. Jensen, who opposed the sale offer, said the city is "duty bound and legally obligated to get the highest price possible.

Kennedy asked the council to delay the sale until his clients could make a formal proposal, and suggested that the city could take bids on the site.

"What other business could bring in more sales tax than an automobile agency?" asked Barbier.

Kennedy said the city has fiscal responsibility to taxpayers "and should make time available to someone else" to present an offer.

Bettini said there was no secret that the property has been for sale and there was time to make offers, but Jensen said it wasn't known that the city would sell "two pieces."

"I feel we're doing the best thing, with the best rate of return from the sales tax standpoint," said Barbier. "Over the long haul it will be a benefit to the taxpayers."

Councilmen agreed to proceed with the sales contracts in two weeks, but said Kennedy's clients could make their bid, since the door is still open legally.

There was no comment during the evening about the offer by Marin County to discuss exchanging the corporation yard property for the Courthouse Square.

Under the revised proposal Dexter will buy 2.25 acres for $262,143 with $15,000 down and the balance by the end of the year.

Viglienzone will buy two acres at $261,753 with $57,446 down and the balance in 30 months.

Originally Dexter was to buy 1.5 acres for $196,032 and lease a three-quarter acre frontage strip at $4,627 a year, and Viglienzone was to buy 1.75 acres at $229,446 and lease a quarter of an acre at $2,261 a year.

Double Jeopardy Ruling Denied

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court denied yesterday that a San Quentin inmate would be placed in double jeopardy by a trial on a charge of possessing a knife for which he has already been punished at the prison.

Discipline by a prison board does not prevent a person from being tried in a court, he ruled.

Judge Haley set a jury trial for Vido Vatelli for the week of July 28.

Ex-Fireman Faces Jury Trial On Arson

A jury trial has been set for the week of July 28 in Marin Superior Court for Craig James Gomez, 19, a former volunteer fireman charged with arson and entry to commit arson in connection with a fire Jan. 5 at Central School in Sausalito.

Gomez, a former member of the Sausalito Volunteer Firemen's Association, now lives in San Francisco.

George Drejes, 40, of 1934 Centro West, Tiburon, was placed on two years probation, and ordered to spend four days in jail and pay a $120 fine.

New Prison Bill Introduced To Correct Problem

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — A bill to allow prison-made goods to be sold outside the prison, thus correcting a problem in a 1968 law, has been introduced by Assemblyman William M. Ketchum, R-Bakersfield.

It was an amendment to Ketchum's own bill last year that restricted the sales to prison property, thus barring shows of prison art like the one held earlier last year in the Marin County Civic Center.

Ketchum's 1968 bill was simply to allow inmates to have the free use of scrap state material for handicrafts. The restriction was tacked on by the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee on the ground that the private sector needed protection because the inmates would be working with free material.

His new bill (AB 1796) would allow the sale of prison goods in public buildings, fairs or property operated by nonprofit associations.

Held To Answer On Credit Case

Phillip Charles Verheyden, 22, of Corte Madera, yesterday was bound over to Marin Superior Court on three counts of signing another person's name to credit card sales slips.

Judge Hadden W. Roth did not find evidence to hold him on two other similar charges after a preliminary hearing in Marin Municipal Court.

Verheyden was ordered to appear in Superior Court Monday.

Woman Sentenced For Marijuana Count

Wynn Martinez, 28, of Sausalito yesterday was placed on one year probation by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court and given a 30-day suspended jail sentence for possessing marijuana.

Miss Martinez was arrested Oct. 4 at her home.

Motorcyclist Hurt

Jerry Lewis, 20, of 1521 Buchanan Street, Novato, was reported in good condition today at Novato General Hospital, where he is being treated for a broken knee and vertebra, suffered at 5:05 p.m. yesterday on Sutro Avenue at Center Roas when, according to Novato police, his motorcycle collided with a station wagon driven by Stuart E. Ramsay, 17, of 110 Kaden Drive, Novato. Ramsay was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

VALLEY

work it our somehow. If we can't work it out as civilized people . . . you're vigilantes; you're Ku Klux Klan."

The vigilante mood appeared most plainly as Green took the floor. His cafe was partially burned early yesterday in what Bloom declared was definitely arson. It was at the cafe that an Easter egg hunt for children was organized which preceded the playing of loud rock and roll that disturbed some valley residents on Easter and last Sunday.

The day after Easter, the San Geronimo Valley Association board met in a special session and issued a statement decrying the noise, the egg hunt, and charging that foul language was used over the loudspeaker and indecent literature was passed out at the gathering.

Furdas repeated the indecent literature charge last night, although he later emphasized that nobody was charging Green with responsibility for it.

"During the last three weeks," declared Green, a thin, intense young man dressed in high mod style, "a shotgun blast was fired through the floor of my cafe, two shots were fired through the window." At this point someone applauded.

Turning paler, Green shouted "You are damn fools! Last night my place was set on fire." (Someone clapped again.) "It is open for business. It will remain open for business." (A round of applause.) "I have put up with malicious gossip." (Drop dead!" shouted someone.)

At this point Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, sitting with other county officials at the head table, arose to silence the interrupters. Green continued, shouting: "You've locked yourself into a lead closet, but my music is going to get into your closet and it's going to drive you out." (Shouted a woman: "Are you up for sale?")

As Green continued, defending the Easter happening as a good deed for the valley's children, timekeeper Jean A. Bevans announced loudly, "You're time is up." It was the first time he had called the three-minute rule for speakers which Furdas announced when the meeting opened.

"And your 30 years are up!" shouted back Green. "I have been shot at and I have been burned and I'll damned well take more than three minutes to yell about it."

Green protested he had been "slandered in the newspaper" by a report of the San Geronimo Valley Association's board meeting.

"You're a liar," shouted Furdas, adding, "The I-J is a liar, too." (Winifred C. Frederick of Lagunitas, who later made a plea for understanding between the embattled groups, reminded Furdas he was not present at the board meeting.)

It was after Green's outburst that Plant first took the floor to endores an earlier suggestion by Baar that the loud music lovers had their rights, but should find a better place for their entertainment than the main intersection of Forest Knolls. He and Mrs. Frederick succeeded in turning the meeting from vindictiveness to a search for cooperation.

Besides Baar, the meeting was attended by Supervisors William A. Gnoss and Peter R. Arrigoni Jr. The latter quipped, "I'm glad Bud Baar represents the San Geronimo Valley."

Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales and Mountanos earlier answered questions regarding law enforcement in the valley. Other officials present to answer questions represented county welfare, public works and health departments.

Charge Dismissed In Burglary Case

A burglary charge against Alexander Jose Semons, 20, of San Rafael was dismissed yesterday in Marin Superior Court at the request of District Attorney Bruce B. Bales, who said that Semons is serving a prison sentence from a Monterey County conviction.

Semons was accused of burglarizing a Sausalito residence on June 24, 1968.

Inmate On Work Permit In Custody

San Quentin Prison's new work-furlough program, marred by the disappearance of two of its inmate participants, had a clean slate again today.

Associatiate Warden James W. L. Park reported that William J. Arrowsmith, 25, one of two inmates who fled while out of the prison under the special program, was captured yesterday in Dallas, Tex.

Arrowsmith, who had been due for parole in nine weeks, disappeared Feb. 24 from a San Rafael gas station, where he had been working as an attendant at night, returning to the prison during the day. The next day, David R. Clutts, 31, another work-furlough inmate, fled. He was arrested earlier this month in East Peoria, Ill.

Park said Arrowsmith's arrest was reported by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, but details were not available. A state correctional officer would be sent to bring Arrowsmith back to California if he waives extradition and no charges are pressed against him in Texas, Park said.

There have been 10 inmates in the work-furlough program since it was started five months ago. In addition to the two who fled, two have completed the program and six are currently in it, according to Park.

Bennett Gains Hearing In Gas Antitrust Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today scheduled a hearing in the long standing antitrust suit against El Paso Natural Gas Co. despite the government's decision to drop the case.

The action came on a motion by William M. Bennett, of Kentfield, a former member of the California Public Utilities Commission, who accused the Justice Department of a "shocking disregard" of its responsibilities in failing to pursue the suit.

At issue is a lower court decision ordering El Paso to sell the $231 million Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corp., which it acquired in 1956, to the Colorado Interstate Gas Co.

The hearing, set for April 29, also may provide Bennett an opportunity to air his charges concerning services performed for El Paso Natural Gas by a New York law firm of which both President Richard M. Nixon and Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell were partners.

Stolen Syringes Lead To Arrests

Two men were booked into Marin County Jail last night on suspicion of burglary after they were found to have in their car about 10 syringes, believed to have been stolen from Larkspur's Greenbrae Pet Hospital, police said today.

Arrested were Hans Von Atzigen, 20, of 317 Fourth Street, Sausalito, and Barry P. Baukol, 21, of 220 Canal Street, San Rafael, with bail set at $6,250 each.

Police said they questioned the men at 8:45 p.m. in the 2000 block of the Redwood Highway frontage road and the men darted over the highway's pedestrian overcrossing. Corte Madera officer Clifford Niederer, called to assist, found the front door glass smashed at the pet hospital at 2104 Redwood Highway and later police found the syringes in the men's car parked at Lucky Drive and Fifer Road.

Death Is Due To Meningitis

The death of Stephen Peck, 17, of San Anselmo, on April 2, was due to a noncontagious type of meningitis caused by a colitis infection, Dr. Donovan O. Cooke, Marin County coroner said today.

The youth developed an infection in his bloodstream which brought on the meningitis, Dr. Cooke explained.

for moving expenses, would carry a price tag of $110 million this year and $100 million a year thereafter.

The limit on deductions for charitable contributions, currently 30 per cent of income for all but a few taxpayers, would be raised to 50 per cent at an annual cost in lost revenue of $10 million.

Reforms aimed at tax breaks widely used by the wealthy include imposing a 50 per cent ceiling on the amount of an individual's total income now sheltered from taxation by exemptions and loopholes.

The LPT, or Limit on Tax Preference, plan would tax income now exempted because of allowances for accelerated depreciation on real estate, certain farm losses and intangible drilling expenses in the oil industry.

An even bigger revenue boost, $500 million a year, would result from requiring a taxpayer with more than $10,000 in tax preferences to allocate his itemized deductions between taxed and untaxed income.

Present rules permit application of all deductions against the taxable portion of an individual's income. Under the allocation-of-deductions change, whatever fraction of income is nontaxable would be allocated a corresponding fraction of the deductions.

The administration also proposes treating mineral production payments as loans, increasing revenue after the first year by $200 million annually.

Cracking down on "multiple corporations"—corporate groups that remain fragmented in order to cash in on special tax breaks for small businesses — would eventually bring in $235 million more per year, revenue estimators said.

Los Angeles acknowledged that the short time for reaction of an ABM system against surprise attack is a severe problem.

"But it seems to me far better to place that burden upon a defensive system which would not trigger a nuclear exchange rather than upon our intercontinental ballistic missiles, which certainly would if they had to be launched on warning," McMillan said.

Youth Nabbed In Drug Probe

A 20-year-old San Rafael youth who, with a companion, parked on the driveway at the home of a Forest Knolls woman Sunday was arrested on suspicion of possession of dangerous drugs, sheriff's deputies said today.

Thelma V. Hansen said that when she arrived home two men in a red Volkswagen drove off from her home. She called a deputy because she said she thought one had a gun.

Deputy Weldon Travis, who stopped the men a short distance from her home, found no gun but said that Robert Sumner Jones Jr., 22, of 870 Estancia Way, San Rafael had five yellow capsules in a tin container tucked into his belt.

His companion, Harvey James Ross, 21, of $364 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, was not arrested.

Jones was freed from jail after paying $315 bail and was to appear in Marin Municipal Court tomorrow.

Burglars Loot Lagunitas Store

Burglars who stacked boxes outside the Lagunitas Store on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard in Lagunitas Saturday night to get to a high window entered the store and took an undetermined amount of merchandise, sheriff's deputies said today.

The window had been smashed, but the intruders apparently left through a rear door which they pried open.

The owner of the store, W. Michael Scott, had not yet determined what was missing, officers said.

Sen. McCarthy, TV Interviewer Plan To Marry

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, and Elizabeth Ann Nelson of Neskowin, Ore., will be married Saturday afternoon in Humboldt County, his office announced today.

It will be the second marriage for both.

Mrs. Nelson, 43-year-old mother of four, is familiar to Boise, Idaho, residents as a television interviewer and expert and lecturer on the Middle East, according to the senator's office.

McCarthy, 45, a state senator for 19 years, has seven children by his marriage to the former Ursula McCarthy. The couple was divorced last year.

The wedding, at the Benbow Inn near Garberville, will be attended by close friends and performed by Marin County Superior Court Judge E. Warren McGuire.

Although renting an apartment in Sacramento during the legislative session, the McCarthys will make their home in Marin County.

Architect Set For Classrooms

Kentfield School District trustees last night selected the architectural firm of Corlett and Spackman of San Francisco to design the proposed hearing handicapped classrooms at the A. E. Kent School.

The firm, the district's architects for 20 years, was chosen out of five applicants at a four-hour special meeting, Supt. Anthony G. Bacich reported.

The classrooms are sponsored by the County Schools Office, to cost between $175,000 and $200,000 and are expected ot be ready for occupancy in September 1970, Bacich said.

Murder Suspect Demands Only Best Attorney

OAKLAND (UPI)—"I want the best lawyer money can buy," said the Michigan man accused of slaying an Oakland dentist.

"You'll need him," replied Municipal Court Judge Martin Pulich yesterday as he put over until tomorrow the arraignment of Chester Johnson, 21.

Johnson was brought here from Michigan with his girlfriend Terry Phelps, 19. He is suspected of the Feb. 19 shooting of dentist Glenn Ivar Olsen, 54, as the victim pleaded for his life.

"Chester wanted to kill everybody he robbed." Miss Phelps told police. They said she also implicated Johnson in the Southern California slaying of Loren Silliphant, 18, son of TV writer-producer Stirling Silliphant.

TV Antenna Poles Denied

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night refused to grant an encroachment permit for two 30-foot cable television antenna poles on Beach Road at Belvedere Avenue, chairman George V. Banning reported.

The application by Robert D. Lewis of Mill Valley for the two poles to be spaced 18 feet apart was denied because of objections from more than 100 residents in the area, Banning said.

The commission also granted an encroachment permit to Walter G. Andres of 2 Bellevue Avenue to construct a pier across a one-foot strip of city-owned property.

Fire Bonds Backed

The Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce board of directors yesterday endorsed the Tamalpais Fire District's $800,000 bond issue for improvements to water mains and the Homestead Valley fire station, construction of a new station in Tamalpais Valley, two new trucks and a new alarm system, Mgr. Granville L. Beedle reported.

OBITUARIES

Margaret Shinn, 83

Margaret I. Shinn, 83, of Fairfax died last night at a local guest home after a long illness.

A native of Sacramento, Mrs. Shinn lived all of her life in California, last residing for 15 years with her daughter, Barbara Ruzicka at 36 Belle Avenue.

Mrs. Shinn was a member of the Marin Seniors Association and had worked for the Emporium in San Francisco for 20 years, retiring in about 1955.

She is survived by her daughter and two grandchildren.

Private family funeral and inurnment will be held Thursday at the Abbey of the Chimes in Vallejo.

MONICA MASSAGLI

Funeral for Monica Marie Massagli of Mill Valley will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Mount Tamalpais Cemetery in San Rafael. Friends may call at the Russell and Gooch Funeral Chapels in Mill Valley between 9 and 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Monica, the 4-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Massagli of 3 Plaza Drive died Saturday at a San Francisco hospital following a long illness.

She is survived by her parents and a sister, Jeanina Lee Massagli.

Contributions to the Regents Pediatric Renal Research Fund of the University of California Kidney Fund at the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco are preferred.

NICHOLAS GRAVEM JR.

Memorial services for Nicholas B. Gravem Jr. of Mill Valley will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Episcopal Church of Our Savior in Mill Valley. Inurnment will be private. Contributions to the American Cancer Society, Marin Branch, are preferred.

Gravem, an insurance broker, died last Saturday at a local hospital following a short illness. He was 47.

A native of San Francisco, Gravem had lived in Marin County for the past 15 years, most recently at 12 Bay View Drive.

He was a committee member of Mill Valley Boy Scout Troop 28.

He is survived by his wife, Jeannette Gravem; three sons, Nicholas B. III, Eric and Christian Gravem; two daughters, Annette and Laurel Gravem, all of Mill Valley; his father, Nicholas B. Gravem Sr. of Cloverdale; a sister, June Hazard of Frankford, Ind., and a brother, Otis Gravem of San Anselmo.

NORVAL MERRITT

Funeral for Norval D. Merritt, a retire paint salesman of 1118 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Kentfield, will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, with services to be conducted by Marin Lodge 191 Free and Accepted Masons. Private inurnment will follow.

Merrit, 74, died unexpectedly Saturday evening at his home.

A native of Blue Vale, Neb., Merritt had lived in California for 30 years, the last 25 in Marin. He was a paint salesman for 44 years, last with Morwear Paint Store, San Anselmo.

He served in the Army during World War I and in the Navy in World War II, as a cook in both wars. He had been a member of York Lodge 56, F&AM, York, Neb., for 50 years.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Clara M. Hagelin of Saratoga, Santa Clara County, and Mrs. Alta N. Beckert of Los Gatos, and two brothers, John D. Merritt of Berkeley and Alfred D. Merritt of Oakland.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Marin County Heart Association.

AMPARO ITURBI

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (UPI)—Amparo Iturbi, sister of pianist Jose Iturbi, and herself a well-known concert pianist, died today from an inoperable brain tumor.

Miss Iturbi, 70, a native of Valencia, Spain, had remained in a coma for more than a month.

She spent many years performing throughout Europe and had lived here for the past 26 years.

Miss Iturbi performed in Marin in Ooctober 1967, as a guest artist in an Atheneum showcase series at Cushing Memorial Theater on Mount Tamalpais.

On occasion she performed with her brother.

Petaluma Councilman Against Six Districts

The Petaluma City Council last night declared it wants no part of a plan to divide the city into six council electoral districts and that any charter amendament to that effect must come from an initiative petition.

Council candidate Donald P. Petro, who unsuccessfully attempted to gather enough names to place the measure on the June 10 ballot, last night asked the council to include it in the election to avoid a special election to decide it later.

The petition requires 15 per cent of the registered voters who cast ballots in the previous general election, of 1,234 valid names. Petro claims to have gathered 1,224 and promised to continue circulating the petition until he has enough names to call an election. If that is accomplished, the council, under law, must call a special election within 60 days.

City Atty. Edouard E. Robert questioned the legality of the document in circulation and said the district boundaries would be ever changing because of frequent annexations and the fast growth of the city.

Councilman Robert S. Lipman, candidate for mayor, called Petro's request "a last ditch effort" and said he had seen little support for the plan. Lipman urged Petro to refine the plan and prepare a better form for the council elections in 1971.

Councilman Phillip L. Joerger, candidate for reelection, also spoke in opposition, saying that having a councilman responsible to only one district would place the councilan in a bad position. "That's the type of system that creates little dynasties," Joerger said.

Warning the council that the issue will come to a vote no matter what it decides, Petro said, "When I get enough signatures — then it's done — there will be no more arguments."

The Petaluma City Council Also:

BOND ISSUES — Introduced an ordinance that will place five bond issues on the June 10 ballot. They include fire station improvements, police station enlargement, park development, widening of Petaluma Boulevard and the construction of a Caulfield Lane overcrossing of Highway 101 and a Second D Street bridge.

CHARTER—Approved a resotion to present two charter amendments to the voters on June 10. One would allow the library board of trustees to enter into a merger agreement with the county library system and the other would allow the council to introduce an ordinance by a two-thirds vote rather than a majority.

MAP FEES — Adopted an ordinance raising fees for the submission of tentative and final subdivision maps. Tentative maps will cost $5 per lot and final maps, $70 per lot.

BIDS — Awarded a contract for purchase of a pick-up truck to Western Motors at a low bid of $1,907 and the contract for a pool car to Westerterp Brothers with a low bid of $1,879.

APPEAL — Granted the appeal of Jim Rose Chrysler-Plymouth Auto Sales that reversed the planning commission decision that the firm must install public improvements of curbs, gutters and sidewalks at its property at 123 Petaluma Boulevard South.

STAFFING — Received letter from Samuel H. DeLisle, executive manager of the Plumbing, Heating and Cooling Contractors of Marin, Sonoma and Mendocino counties that the city planning and building departments are overworked and understaffed. The council promised to study the problem at a study session next week.

NAME CHANGE — Approved the changing of the name of Garfield Drive off Ely Road to Willow Drive to conform with new plans for the subdivision street design.

PLAYGROUND — Approved a supervised recreational program at Cherry Valley School at a cost of $1,200. The program begins June 16.

BOXING — Heard a request from Larry Forney, council candidate and ex-prizefighter, that he be given authority to form a boxing team to represent Petaluma at the Junior Olympics. The council turned the matter over to the city attorney to study the city's liability in such a program.

EMBANKMENT — Approved plans for the construction of an embankment on Magnolia Avenue and will call for bids. The project was estimated to cost $4,300.

TOUR — Received an invitation from the recreation, music and park commission to tour the city parks on May 7. The group will leave city hall at 6 p.m.

YOUTHS — Heard Lipman request a study session be held next week to review youth problems.

Civic Center Annexation Is Proposed

The 1969 Marin County Grand Jury has, in its first two resolutions, tackled fire and police protection problems of residents of unincorporated areas as well as double taxation which affects city residents.

The jury recommended that the Marin Civic Center be annexed to the City of San Rafael so that it will be protected by the San Rafael Fire Department. This would mean a saving in insurance premiums, the jury added.

There should also be more rigid building requirements in areas where structural fire protection is not available, and a county fire protection district with different zones for areas that most need structural fire protection, according the the grand jury report.

The grand jury further recommends a county police service district for unincorporated areas but indicated that city residents should not have to pay for these services.

The report also requested the board of supervisors to increase county building fees so that the county building inspection department will be self-supporting.

The cost of the county counsel should be apportioned among "its numerous clients," the report continued, and city taxpayers should be relieved of the cost of county subdivision, engineering, maintenance and repair of secondary streets.

The grand jury noted that juries of other years have made similar recommendations and concluded with a request that state legislators re-introduce Assembly Bill 929, (Blackwell Bill) which aimed at solving double taxation for city residents.

Innocent Plea To Drug Possession

John Jeffery Faircloth, 18, of San Francisco, pleaded innocent today in Marin Superior Court to possessing marijuana and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. A jury trial was set for the week of July 21.

Faircloth was arrested with a 14-year-old girl on Mount Tamalpais Dec. 28.

Laser Can Spot Nuclear Tests?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Laser beam instruments beat seismographs in detecting underground nuclear tests, and the new instruments might be profitably used to monitor Soviet subsurface nuclear activity, says a California scientist.

Dr. Joleroy Gauger of McDonnell-Douglas Corp said the laser beam instruments can detect underground tests more quickly and cheaply than seismographs.

"Laser equipment like this costs only about $20,000, whereas a massive array of seismographs which the government has indicated it's using out in Montana to detect Russian tests might run into millions of dollars," he said.

Driver's Condition Is 'Satisfactory'

Harold Robert McAfee of 5 Kristin Lane, Novato, involved in an automobile accident on White's Hill last Wednesday, was reported in "satisfactory" condition today at Marin General Hospital.

McAfee's wife, Marvel, reported that her husband did not drive over the embankment as was reported by the California Highway Patrolmen to the Independent-Journal. He became ill, parked his car in neutral in a parking lot on the hill and fainted, whereupon his car rolled down the 300-foot hillside. Doctors are testing McAfee for possible encephalitis, Mrs. McAfee said.

New Trial Slated In Prison Killing

A new trial was set yesterday for the week of Aug. 4 in Marin Superior Court for an inmate of San Quentin's death row whose conviction for killing a prison factory foreman was overturned by a higher court.

The California Supreme Court ruled on March 10 that Sanchez' confession to stabbing Ralph Canning, 54, of Oakland, was obtained by coercion.

Sanchez was convicted in Marin Superior Court in December, 1965, of the stabbing of Canning, who died of at least 18 stab wounds. The inmate was serving his fourth term for narcotics sales at the time of the stabbing.

Terra Linda Wins At Band Festival

Terra Linda High School's 103-piece band was named the outstanding band at the Central Coast band festival at Monterey during the weekend.

Both the school band and the school orchestra won superior ratings at the festival, which attracted 35 high school bands, reported Gordon Lowe, band director.

MARK OF EXCELLENCE

If you're casting a wider shadow these days you could be in trouble

People in our "Stress Society" tend to over-indulge and as a result overweight and high blood pressure are common problems. If you're in your 40's or 50's the odds are high you have one or both of these problems. If you identify yourself with this group you'd be wise to do something about it. Like getting regular check-ups, finding out your limits, and sticking to them. If you've been thinking about life insurance, and discovered that the cost in your case is high, or even difficult to get, Manufacturers Life may be able to help. We have always believed that life insurance should be available to the largest group of people possible and at the lowest possible price. You will find the Man from Manufacturers well qualified and helpful in your selection of a plan to suit your particular needs. Call him soon.

Today is Tuesday, April 22, the 112th day of 1969 with 253 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The morning stars are Venus, Mars and Saturn. The evening stars are Mercury and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1889, some 20,000 homesteaders massed along the border of the Oklahoma Territory awaiting the signal to start the Oklahoma Land Rush.

In 1898, Theodore Roosevelt resigned as Assistant Secretary of War to recruit members of his "Rough Riders."

In 1944, Allied forces invaded Dutch New Guinea in World War II.

In 1964, the New York World's Fair was opened by President Lyndon B. Johnson.

A thought for the day: American writer William Dean Howells once said, "They were Americans, and they knew how to worship a woman."

Plastic Bags Are Supplied

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) —A. Q. Quinn said he finally got tired of buying postage stamps and then later finding them all stuck together and useless.

Quinn, 79, called on the postmaster and complained that the post office "is the only business I know that sells customers merchandise without a package to put it in." The result: All Memphis post offices now supply stamp purchasers with a plastic bag big enough to hold several 100-stamp sheets.

HEART OPENED

West opened the king of hearts, and East played the encouraging eight. West took the ace of hearts and then obediently led a third heart.

After taking the queen of hearts, a kind-hearted East would cash the ace of clubs and put South out of his misery. But when the hand was played in a tournament some years ago, my friend Charlie Solomon, veteran Philadelphia expert returned a low trump instead of cashing the ace of clubs.

Solomon knew his club trick wasn't going to run away. South couldn't have a singleton club and a void in diamonds because then he would need 12 cards in spades and hearts combined. South had at most seven trumps because East could see three in his own hand and three in the dummy; and South couldn't have started with more than four hearts.

OPTIMISTIC PLAY

South won the trump return with the queen and saw hope for his contract if West had three or four diamonds headed by the king. So South optimistically led his singleton diamond and tried a finesse with dummy's queen.

Solomon took the king of diamonds and cashed the ace of clubs to collect 200 points instead of the 100 he would have earned if he had taken the ace of clubs earlier.

An extra hundred points doesn't mean much at rubber bridge, but a man is willing to harden his heart when it may earn him a national championship.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with 1-no-trump (16 to 18 points), and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ Q J 9 8 5 4 3
♡ J 7 6
♦ 4
♣ K Q.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid four spades.

Since you have nine points in high cards, the combined count must be 25 to 27 points. This should be enough for game, in view of your fine distribution, but is most unlikely to produce a slam. When you know the best final contract, bid it without delay. A long, complicated auction sometimes results in a misunderstanding, and there is no advantage in risking this.

KRUGERSDORP, South Africa (AP) — A white rhinoceros calf named Zibulo helped answer one of the animal world's best kept secrets. Zibulo's birth in a game reserve here enabled zoologists to determine that the gestation period of the rare white rhino is 483 days, (in this case, at least).

GETS AN ESCORT—Purdue University football star Leroy Keyes is escorted off the Lafayette, Ind., campus following his arrest yesterday. He was one of several students arrested for illegally occupying a campus building in a protest to an increase in tuition. (AP Wirephoto)

Sit-Ins, Strikes, Protests Spread In The Ivy League

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sit-ins, strikes and other protests have spread to more than a dozen campuses around the nation, including five Ivy League universities. The protests usually focus on racial or military issues.

About 2,000 students at Yale University voted last night to bar the Reserve Officers Training Corps program from their New Haven, Conn., campus.

The resolution is not binding on the university, whose faculty and trustees recently voted to withdraw academic credit from the ROTC. Yale has 8,300 undergraduate and graduate students.

At Harvard University, members of Students for a Democratic Society and their supporters moved into the administration building for the second time in two weeks. The five-hour sit-in by 100 students ended quietly when the protesters left as the working day ended.

SDS' announced purpose was to stop work in the building, and Harvard officials sent secretaries home and stood about debating the militants. SDS called the "mill-in" after students voted Friday to end a week-long strike, aimed at the administration's use of police to end an April 9 sit-in.

The protesters want ROTC banned from campus. The Faculty of Liberal Arts and Sciences has voted to make the program an extracurricular activity.

At Princeton University, scattered fistfights broke out when about 100 members of SDS blockaded two Marine Corps recruiters into a campus building. The officers were permitted to leave Clio Hall for lunch, but were prevented from returning.

Cornell University in Ithaca, N.Y. remained in a "state of emergency" today, as tension of a demonstration by armed blacl militant students pervaded the campus.

About 1,100 faculty members decided last night that the weekend seizure of a campus building by armed members of the Afro-American Society made discussion of discipline problems from earlier demonstrations impossible.

About 70 high school students staged an hour-long sit-in at Columbia University, demanding that the college open its doors unconditionally to graduates of four predominantly Negro high schools in New York City. Columbia officials promised to meet with the students to discuss the issue, which has been backed by SDS.

At Purdue University in Lafayette, Ind., officials granted amnesty to 41 students arrested yesterday in the administration building where they had gathered to protest an increase in tuition.

About 200 students had remained in the building until amnesty was granted. Among those arrected was Leroy Keys, All-American halfback.

Two campuses had a brighter outlook: students at Southern University in New Orleans, La., and at Mount St. Mary's College in Emmitsburg, Md., voted to end class boycotts and return to class.

Militant blacks at Southern University went back to classes after Gov. John McKeithen visited the campus, sa'd he thought their demands were justified, and promised to ask the district attorney to drop criminal charges against 21 students.

Sets Session

The Kentfield Fire District board will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the fire house. A budget discussion is planned.

Freeway Development Plans Win Approval

The Rohnert Park City Council last night approved plans to develop the west side of Highway 101 and awarded sale of bonds totaling $294,242 to finance the project.

City Mgr. Peter M. Callinan reported that the state Division of Highways has budgeted for 1970-71 to construct exit and entrance ramps on Highway 101 at the Rohnert Park expressway. He said construction will probably begin early next year.

Bonds were approved for sale to Stone and Youngbert at 7 per cent interest. The firm, however, said the sale was contingent upon Gov. Ronald Reagan's signature on Assembly Bill 76, emergency legislation to finance repairs to state highways damaged by floods. The firm said that if the bill isn't signed, some construction money might need to be diverted and that the local ramps may not then be built.

The council said it would consider awarding construction bids at the May 5 meeting. The project includes the construction of a new two-lane frontage road along Highway 101. It is expected that the road will be enlarged to four lanes when the interchange is completed and an overcrossing is under consideration.

The Rohnert Park City Council Also:

REZONING — Approved the rezoning request of Paul Golis to change agricultural zoning to residential on 60 acres south of Highway 101 and east of the city.

MOBILE HOMES — Approved the use permit application of Everett Giffin for a 40-acred mobile home park on Snyder Lane.

APPLIANCES — Approved the temporary use permit requested by Home Appliances Co. for a sales and service operation on the frontage road on the west side of Highway 101.

DEDICATIONS — Set May 17 as the tentative dedication date for the new municipal golf course and May 24 as the tentative dedication date for the community and recreation center.

STANDS — Appropriated $500 to finance the construction of a concession stand and announcing booth at Alicia Park.

SPRUCE-UP — Approved $85 to the chamber of commerce to help finance award decals for winning homes in the annual spruce-up campaign.

Auditorium In Need Of Funds

Another $500,000 will be needed to bring the Veterans Memorial Auditorium into first-class condition, board of directors of Fair-Marin Inc. estimated last night.

The auditorium, now under construction, will have 872 seats. The directors decided it would take another $500,000 in private funds to increase the seating to the full 2,100 and install complete stage, lighting and sound equipment.

The directors, headed by Harold Stockstad, discussed fund-raising possibilities, but reached no decision.

William Carter of the Mountain Play Association, chairman of the services committee, reported that his committee is trying to get an inventory of equipment owned by various performing arts groups in Marin and serve as a clearing house for the scheduling of events for the performing arts.

Healdsburg Driver Injured In Wreck

A Healdsburg man was injured at 2:10 a.m. today in a one-car accident on Highway 101 near Washington Street in Petaluma.

John Mills Jr., 24, was reported in satisfactory condition at Hillcrest Hospital with knee and facial injuries. The California Highway Patrol said Mills fell asleep at the wheel and struck a bridge abutment.

13th Annual Kite Day Set Saturday

The 13th annual kite day of Marin Country Day School will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday at the school's campus at 5221 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera.

Prospective students and their parents may also attend the event which will include a picnic and informal baseball games.

Sonoma Jury Repeats On Board's Pay

I-J Special Report

SANTA ROSA — The Sonoma County Grand Jury yesterday reaffirmed its decision that the supervisors' salaries should be increased from $13,200 to $16,000 in 1971, but that they should not receive any pay from any other county agency or board.

The supervisors, led by Ignazio A. Vella of Sonoma, had been considering asking for an amendment to an assembly bill that would pay them $50 per day as directors of the Sonoma County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, had said that if the proposed $2,600 salary for the directors is to be part of his bill revamping the water agency, the supervisors must request it by signed letter or by resolution.

The Irate Taxpayers of Sonoma County and the Sonoma County Taxpayers Association had protested both proposed increases.

The supervisors were scheduled to discuss their salaries today.

Douglass Anniversary On Bench Is Noted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Associate Justice William O. Douglas has become one of 11 men who have served 30 years on the Supreme Court.

In a rare departure from strict court procedure, Chief Justice Earl Warren noted yesterday that Douglas joins Associate Justice Hugo L. Black in the elite group. President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed Black Aug. 12, 1937, and Douglas April 17, 1939.

$4,000 Scholarship To Jennifer Davis

Jennifer Davis, a senior at San Rafael High School, has won a $4,000 college scholarship from Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

Miss Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis of 112 Rafael Drive, San Rafael, was one of 16 Northern California high school seniors to receive the award at a dinner Sunday night in San Francisco.

Miss Davis plans to major in history or journalism at Stanford University.

At San Rafael High School, she is student body secretary, was editor of the school newspaper last year, has served on the staffs of the school yearbook and literary magazine, is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation.

Runners-up — Jeff Godwin of 130 Highland Avenue, San Rafael, and also a senior at San Rafael High; Brian Carlisle of 2511 Las Gallinas Avenue, San Rafael, a senior at Terra Linda High, and Katherine Colwell, a Marin Catholic High senior of 22 Idalia Court, San Anselmo — each received five shares of PG&E stock.

Merritt Hostage Threat Subsides

OAKLAND (UPI)—A shouting, excited crowd of about 400 students at Merritt Junior College last night threatened to hold nine school trustees hostage.

"Nobody leaves till we get this settled tonight," shouted one of the student leaders, Larry Thomas, who then ordered his followers to block doorways of the auditorium where Peralta Junior College trustees were meeting.

But, the students gave way and allowed the board members to leave a few minutes later after an emotional plea by Merritt College President Dr. Norvel Smith.

Rehearsing a scene from "April Foolies," a musical comedy by William Carpenter of Novato, are (from left) Mrs. Leonard J. Genetin, Mrs. Leonard Pieraccini, Mrs. Charles Sahl and Mrs. Eugene Cordone, all of Novato. The production will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday at Our Lady of Loretto Catholic Church in Novato, sponsored by the Catholic Daughters. (Independent-Journal photo by Jim Kean)

56-Unit Santa Venetia Apartments Win Nod

A 56-unit apartment project in Santa Venetia, at North San Pedro Road and La Brea Way, won a unanimous go-ahead from the Marin County Planning Commissioners yesterday. (Another planning commission story, page 1.)

The commissioners approved P. J. Tarrant's apartment project on condition that that either a bond or a contract will be drawn up to assure the proper landscaping will be installed by the developer.

Walter Rudolph, president of Gallinas Village Community Services District, and Albert Vaccaro and William Loeber, representing the Gallinas Village Improvement Association, protested. But their protests were not nearly so intense as the battle they put up last December when Western Hosts tried to put in 55 units on the same site. The big difference was that the Western Host plan had three and four-bedroom units, whereas Tarrant's project is one and two-bedrooms.

Marin County Planning Commission Also:

VILLA LAGUNA — Approved plans for a 202-unit apartment complex called Villa Laguna Apartments on 11 acres of land on the north side of Seminary Drive, just east of Ricardo Road, Strawberry Point. Architect Morgan D. Howell of Hayward plans one and two-bedroom units, and recreational facilities including a swimming pool.

SERVICE STATION — Rejected by 5-to-1 vote a request for a service station next to Kentfield Fire Station at Kentfield corners. Michael Praszker dissented without comment. County Planner Wesley Wilkes said the north side of Sir Francis Drake is set aside for residential, and commercial should be concentrated on to the south of Sir Francis Drake and east of College Avenue.

STRAWBERRY COVE — Continued until May 5 a request by Leonard Fleishman of Belvedere to build a 112-unit apartment on seven acres of land south of Seminar Drive, east of Ricardo Road. This would be across the street from Villa Laguna Apartments.

'Swan Lake' Film Due Two Showings

A filmed performance of Margot Fonteyn and Rudolf Nureyev in the "Swan Lake" ballet will be shown at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in the San Rafael High School Auditorium and at 8:15 p.m. Friday in the Fine Arts Building at College of Marin.

The showing is sponsored by the college's community education office. Film distributors have made the movie available to colleges and universities before making it available commercially.

Tenor Substituted In Poulenc Opera

In a last-minute substitutuion, Allen Barker of San Francisco sang the role of the Marquis de la Force in place of David Johnson in the Friday and Saturday evening performances of Poulenc's opera "Dialogues des Carmelities" presented by the Dominican College Opera Theater.

For this reason the Independent-Journal's review on April 19 gave the name of David Johnson as printed on the program instead of Allen Barker.

Troupe To Open 'Impossible Years'

The Ross Valley Players' production of the Broadway comedy "The Impossible Years" opens at the Barn, Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross, this Friday at 8:30 p.m.

The play, starring Roger Garety and Jama Tegler as the antagonists on either side of the generation gap, will be presented at 8:30 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays through May 17.

Benjamin Franklin invented bifocals in 1784.

Planners Eye Better Image For Staffers

County Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, who was retained on his job by a 3-to-2 vote on the county supervisors last Friday, carried on as usual at the all-day meeting of the Marin County Planning Commission yesterday.

In order to improve the planning department's relations with the public, Commissioner Margaret Azevedo suggested that a document be prepared, "a sort of annual report to let the public know what the department is doing."

Her motion that this be recommended to the county supervisors passed by voice vote. Walter F. Freitas abstained because he said he needs more information.

Another proposal, by Eugene R. Trombley, was tabled for the time being. Trombley wanted to set up a grievance committee among the planning commissioners to listen to anyone who might have complaints about the planning director or staff.

"We already have a committee," said Dr. Upton. He was referring to a committee composed of himself, Chairman Hugh Dougherty and Niels Schultz Jr., to study the 1969 Grand Jury's criticism of the planning director.

State Challenging Title To Tidelands

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The state Attorney General's office has launched a legal campaign against the filling of San Francisco Bay.

Charles A. O'Brien, chief assistant attorney general, said the state has challenged the title to tidelands held by local communities and seeking to block all filling permits for nonmaritime uses.

He said the full-scale campaign was started with a suit filed against Westbay Community Associates, controlled by financier David Rockefeller. The group plan a two-mile long development on bay tidelands between Millbrae and Pal Alto.

The suit challenged local ownership of several hundred acres off Coyote Point in San Mateo County, contending the state granted the tidelands to the cities of San Mateo and Burlingame for prompt development with commercial navigational and fishing projects.

"We are saying the state has title to these lands and that the lands are subject to a trust," O'Brien said. "That trust does not permit the development contemplated by Westbay."

The state grant contemplated commercial maritime developments—such as ports and marinas—and not the residential and industrial sites planned by the Rockefeller group, O'Brien said.

He said if the state wins the Coyote Point case, it will similarly block major developments planned in the East Bay and elsewhere.

No date has been set for the trial, which was filed on behalf of the state Lands Commission against Westbay, San Mateo, Burlingame, San Mateo County and San Francisco.

Savings Association Displaying Photos

An exhibit of award winning photography is on display at American Savings and Loan Association, 550 Las Gallinas Avenue, San Rafael, through May 8.

The display includes the best photographs selected in monthly competition during 1968 by the Professional Photographers of Northern California Inc.

To Share Grant

Dominican College of San Rafael is among 19 California colleges which will share in a grant from the Babcock and Wilcox Co. The firm, which manufacturers such things as nuclear power systems, announced it would grant $178,900 for distribution among not more than 638 schools.

Church Granted School Permit

Valley Baptist Church will get a use permit for an elementary school in Los Ranchitos, but not for 175 children as requested, County Zoning Administrator Thomas E. Cordill ruled today.

Cordill announced he will approve the kindergarten-through-eighth grade school to be conducted in existing church buildings at 3 North San Pedro Road, near Merrydale Road. But he will limit total enrollment to between 80 and 100 pupils. "If they go over that, they'll have to have a new hearing and a new review," said Cordill.

The Rev. Warren A. Conrad of Valley Baptist Church asked for a school for 175 pupils, to be operated Monday through Friday.

The smoothest whisky ever to come out of Canada!

Compare Windsor with your usual American or Canadian whisky. Once you do, you'll never settle for less, or pay more!

Tonight, make the comparison: make one drink with your "usual," the other with Windsor. You'll be amazed at the sippin' smoothness of this remarkable new import. That's because only Windsor is made from hardy Canadian prairie grains and pure, clear glacial waters. And only Windsor is aged in Canada's mile-high, dry Rocky Mountain air. All this, yet Windsor is priced right in line with leading domestic whiskies because we import it, then bottle it here.

ON TOUR FRIDAY on the Peacock Gap Garden Club house and garden tour will be the newly completed house of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pinkus at 11 San Marina Drive. Upstairs is the loft with a breakfast setting for two and the blue and white master bedroom, furnished with Victorian wicker furniture. The house also features a sculptured cupid from the Old Fox Theater in San Francisco. From left are Mmes Pinkus, the hostess; Donald Schweitzer and James Graddy.

ELEGANCE IS the keynote of the Edward Snygg home at 152 Peacock Drive, which will be among the six houses and gardens on tour Friday at Peacock Gap. Most of its furnishings in the living room have been in the family for many years and a formal dining setting will be shown. Here Mrs. C. Connie Carpou, left, is shown the house by its owner, Mrs. Snygg.

Homes And Gardens On Tour

Six houses in the Peacock Gap area will be open for the Peacock Garden Club's spring house and garden tour on Friday. Tour hours are 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The tour homes have been selected for their variety of style, decor and family interests, and club members will do appropriate table settings at each residence for the day. Refreshments will be served in the afternoon.

Mrs. Eugene Schenk is ticket chairman, and tickets also will be available at each house during the tour.

Homes on view are:

The John Taylor home with stained glass windows in the double entry doors and a collection of family antiques. Built on the lagoon, the house has a flavor of the past combined with contemporary comforts.

The Joseph Bregante home on a hilltop with a wide view of the bay and hills. The master suite is built for convenience, and the owner has a complete workshop off the laundry area that is separate yet close to the rest of the house. Close by, also, are the pool and its garden courtyard.

The Edward Snygg home is done with a formal elegance featuring an antique Louis XVI console in the dining area and a Treiblj tapestry in the foyer. The breakfast room opens out onto a deck and gardens at the fifth fairway of the golf course.

The Nathan Pinkus home is a new modified A-frame with a fine view of the area from the dining and living room. Upstairs is a loft with the blue and white master bedroom with Victorian wicker furniture.

The James Culp home borders on the golf course and contains an ingenious table fashioned from a golf trophy in its living room. An electronic oven and built-in vacuum are among the house's modern conveniences. A dramatic living room opens onto the deck overlooking the golf course. A birthday party set up will be featured in the children's wing.

The Donald Ingalls home is distinguished by the paintings in the living room and contrasts are provided by the dining area on a balcony setting and the game room with its pool table and old fashioned player piano. It's a townhouse done in exhilerating color and contains objects expressing the originality of its owner family.

A MODIFIED A-frame just completed takes advantage of the wide view from the hill from its living and dining area. It's the Nathan Pinkus home with an interesting combination of furnishings and conversational objects. The house tour will be held from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Friday. Committee members are Mmes Pinkus, Schweitzer and Graddy. (Independent-Journal photos by Jim Kean)

Simple, Honest Rules Make Pool Sharing A Happy Time

The infamous man in the play who "came to dinner" has nothing on the people who uninvited and unthinking, invade a man's home to use his swimming pool, and because they are so eager to share this pleasure with him, they bring their friends, also uninvited.

According to the National Swimming Pool Institute, the pool owner who establishes some simple, honest rules for guests as well as family members before the first gallon of water is put in the pool, is the happy host.

FAMILY POOL POLICY

Rule 1. Guests should be invited with a firm indication that only the ones being asked directly are the invited ones.

Rule 2. A time limit should be set on the invitation, and the hostess should indicate whether a mealtime is included.

Rule 3. Each member of the family should have a special time for special guests, and this schedule should be carefully adhered to, unless a family decision is made to change it.

Rule 4. A "Pool Manners" chart should be hung where guests and family alike can read about what constitutes good manners in and around the pool.

GUEST POOL POLICY

Rule 1. Show you're grateful for being invited by not overstaying your time.

Rule 2. Unless you are specifically invited for a meal, don't try to promote one.

Rule 3. If you live close enough, come in your bathing suit with a robe or beach coat.

Rule 4. Be the kind of guest who brings her own beach towel, bathing cap (for females), sun tan oil and slippers.

Rule 5. Remember that pools are kept cleaner if you shower off sun tan oil before going in.

Rule 6. Don't ask to bring other people with you, when you've been invited by yourself or with other members of your family.

Suggestion: after you've been invited a number of times, you've proved yourself as a pool guest. Send or bring a poolside gift that's useful and imaginative.

HELEN HELP US!

New Jersey Group Encourages Self-Help Through SLANT

DEAR HELEN:

Because you have shown concern for the nation's increasing narcotics menace, I would like to bring to your attention the efforts of young people in Hudson County, N.J.

Encouraged by civic officials, teen-agers in high schools and junior highs have formed an organization known as SLANT — (Students' League Against Narcotic Temptation.) Although still in its early stages, SLANT has shown great promise and has become an energetic community endeavor.

Student leaders of SLANT intend it to be a preventive, not a rehabilitation venture. Therefore, we are inviting members of police departments, representatives of the local health board and ex-addicts to give talks at our schools. They are most cooperative.

In my town, North Bergen, town meetings are regularly held to keep the parents informed of the dangers illegal drugs present to their youngsters.

I would like to emphasize that the chief reason for the success of SLANT is that the students operate it. I would be happy to receive letters from interested readers who want to learn more about our organization, perhaps with the hope of starting a chapter in their own schools. — DENNIS E. RHODES

DEAR DENNIS:

Thank you for telling us about an organization which I'm sure will catch hold in many schools. The silent majority is finally making itself heard and this, more than anything else, will perhaps bring the wavering minority back to reason.

For further information about SLANT — "Students' League Against Narcotic Temptation" — please send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

DENNIS E. RHODES
506 - 80th Street
North Bergen, N.J.—H.

P.S. —I would also lke to hear from other schools where similar programs have been started. Hopefully, we can get a nationwide new SLANT on the drug problem, if all you interested students out there will cooperate. Do write! — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Your letter to "Scared" who thought he had VD, stated that in his state "Your parents will have to know if you are underage."

More and more states are changing this law, for it sometimes frightens juveniles away from needed treatment at venereal disease clinics.

In California, since October, 1968, minors 12 years of age or older can be examined and treated for VD without parental consent. This is a service performed by departments of public health at clinics throughout the state. The law states in part, "The consent of the parent, parents, or legal guardian of such minor shall not be necessary to authorize hospital, medical and surgical care related to such disease, and such parent, parents or legal guardian shall not be liable for payment for any care rendered pursuant to this section." — CALIFORNIA PUBLIC HEALTH DOCTOR

DEAR DOCTOR:

Thank you for clarifying my somewhat understated answer. Here's an added note to those who suspect they may have contacted a venereal disease:

Call your public health department or your family doctor and ask information on VD clinics near you. While physicians and health clinics make reasonable attempts to involve parents of minors, in many states these days, your secret will be kept, if you so request. — H.

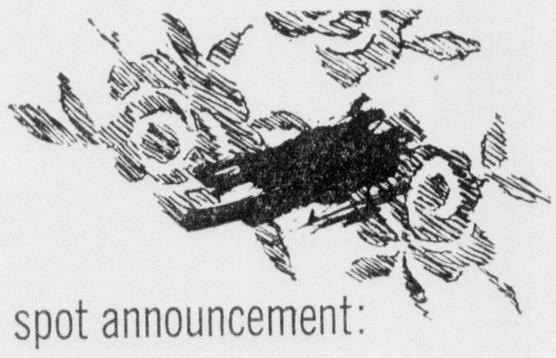
Go-With Jewelry

The jewelry to wear with jumpers, big on the spring fashion scene: low-slung pendant accompanied by a sleek chain rope. This emphasizes the long line of the jumper. If you want to add something that jangles, how about a wristful of bright bangles?



spot announcement:

MEADERS' spot detectives uncover spills and stains you may not even know about. Then it's up to Meaders' skilled spotter. In his laboratory filled with dozens of cleaning compounds he analyzes and removes spots from your garment before it goes into the cleaning machine—and again after, if necessary. Here's a safe bet: if Meaders can't remove a spot, it probably can't be done.

Youth And Agency Workshop Set On New Methods Of Volunteer Service

Invitations have been sent to Marin agency professional staff members to attend a youth-agency workshop, titled Kaleidoscope, to stimulate social welfare agencies to open new volunteer areas for participation by young people.

The conference will be held tomorrow from 8:30 a.m. at Dominican College, sponsored by the Volunteer Bureau of Marin. The day will open with breakfast at the dining hall and convene in Guzman Hall auditorium with a series of youth speakers who will discuss involvement of young adults in volunteer work.

The workshop will then break into small discussion groups with agency staff and youth to explore new approaches and ideas for volunteer service.

Special guests will represent such volunteer groups as the Mission Rebels, Huckleberry House, San Francisco Switchboard, Western Addition Youth and Community Service Institute of San Francisco State College.

Youth attending have been selected for their interest and involvement in volunteer work and their community.

The special guests will set up informational groups about their volunteer organizations during the afternoon on the lawn area for conference members to visit.

The workshop will end with "an irrelevant flick," says its chairman Alan B. Hansen, who attends Somona State College. Others on the committee are Horace White, Denise and Debby Fox, Christy Fairchild, Joyce Schriedman, Andy Otto, Barbara Figone, Sheryl Bernard, Mmes. William Morris, Lynn Jessup and Harvey N. Black Jr.

William Sarm Marries In Eastern Rite

William Geoffrey Sarm of Tiburon claimed Christine Rapetti as his bride at an 11 o'clock ceremony Saturday at St. Joseph Church in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Margaret Laffey of Swissvale, Pa., was maid of honor. William I. Sarm of Tiburon, the bridegroom's father, was best man. Paul and Edward Rapetti of Fox Chapel, Pa., the bride's brothers, were the ushers.

A reception at the Pittsburgh Field Club followed the marriage service.

Christine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joseph Rapetti of Fox Chapel. Her sisters are Barbara and Jeanne Rapetti of Fox Chapel.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William I. Sarm of Tiburon. He is a graduate of North Reading High School in North Reading, Mass., and of the University of Notre Dame in Notre Dame, Ind. He is employed by the Del Monte Corp. in San Francisco.

The bride was graduated from St. Agnes Cathedral High School in Rockville Centre, N.Y., and from St. Mary's College, Notre Dame, Ind. She has been teaching in Verona, Pa.

After a wedding trip to Hawaii the couple will live in San Francisco.

Mrs. C. J. Gay Elected By Strawberry Guild I

Members of Strawberry Guild I of Sunny Hills have elected a 10-year-member of the guild, Mrs. Charles J. Gay, president.

She previously served as vice president, secretary and has held various chairmanships in the guild. Members are working on plans for the dinner dance to be held in June. The annual event raises funds used to make the candy leis sold by the guild at the Grape Festival.

"Quite frankly in working for Sunny Hills I gain more than I can ever give," says Lotus Gay.

Her other activities include Cub Scouts, Brownies, Girl Scouts and Peace Lutheran Church where she has served as flower chairman on the altar guild and taught Sunday school. She has also served as a room mother and helped in the library at Strawberry Point School.

The Gays have lived in Marin for 19 years. Charles Gay is a body shop manager for an automobile dealer in San Francisco. Their children are Sharlee, who will be married in the fall; Dennis, 18, a student at General Motors School in San Leandro; and Kerry, 7, a first grade student at Strawberry Point School.

Mrs. Gay's hobbies are cooking, baking, gardening and bicycle riding with Kerry. She says she comes up with brilliant ideas and her husband, the talented one, has to carry them out.

"The latest project is reupholstering the furniture in our family room," Mrs. Gay explains.

Dental Health

Good dental health practices should begin in childhood. Instruct children to eat as many raw fruits and vegetables as possible and cut down on sweets between meals.

LINDA SMITH

Linda Smith To Be Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Smith of San Rafael have announced the engagement of their daughter, Linda Diane Smith, to Gordon Russell Hasler. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hasler of San Rafael.

Linda is the sister of Robert, David, Richard and Debbie Smith of San Rafael. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith of Vallejo are her grandparents. She is a graduate of San Rafael High School and Marinello School of Beauty, San Rafael.

Gordon is the brother of Georgie and Sherry Hasler of San Rafael and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hasler of San Rafael and Mr. and Mrs. William Tassett of San Francisco.

He also is a San Rafael High School graduate and is attending the College of Marin.

Oct. 25 nuptials are planned.

Flower Arranging Program Will Highlight Outdoor Art Club Tea

The Mill Valley Outdoor Art Club Guest tea Thursday at 2 p.m. will feature Mrs. Robert L. Tuckey of Kentfield in a flower arranging program.

DR. HAROLD GROVES

A member of the Floral Decorators of Northern California, Mrs. Tuckey is past president of the Bay Area Arrangers Guild and instructor in the flower show schools for the National Council of State Garden Clubs. She is the creator of the Decorations Guild at the Marin Art and Garden Center, teaches flower arranging there and in other cities and is often a judge at flower shows.

Mrs. Tuckey is also a potter, weaver, sculptor and jeweler. She has given programs in the western states, Australia, New Caledonia and Fiji. She is a former teacher of dental assisting at Los Angeles City College.

Tea chairmen are Mmes. John Giuliani and Lionel Farber, and decorations chairman Mrs. H. C. Kellers will be assisted by Mmes. J. Paul Hurd and Andrew Cassell.

Welcoming members and guests will be Mmes. William Perdue, Blyth Adams and Edwin Hildebrand. Pouring will be Mmes. Robert Cook, E. H. Laird, Edward Johnson and William Bacon.

MRS. NORMAN Kemp of Marinwood yesterday was installed treasurer of the Central California Council of B'nai B'rith Women, which guides activities of the 20 B'nai B'rith Women's chapters in the area. Marin members have provided Marin schools with a datebook noting all religious holidays as well as national and state holidays as a public service.

BICYCLE OWNERS may register their bicycles tomorrow from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the Larkspur - Corte Madera School, 20 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur.

Staffing chairman, Mrs. George Bond, announces West End School, Fifth Avenue at H Street in San Rafael will have registration Thursday from 9 a.m. to noon.

May 3 Santa Venetia Middle School, McPhail School and Oliver Hartzell School will have licensing from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and it will take place during family day festivities at A. E. Kent School.

Members of the Peter Pan Chapter of the Children's Home Society, who provide the service, maintain a file and a 24 hour answering service available to all Marin police departments to assist in locating bicycles.

Bicycles should be brought to the registrations so they can be listed with pertinent information.

KENTFIELD GUILD of the Boyd Marin Museum of Science will host its annual public benefit bridge luncheon in the home of four members Thursday at 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Donald Chapman is chairman, and hostesses in whose homes bridge will follow lunch are Mmes. John Hall of Greenbrae and Robert Maier, Reed Brockbank and Richard Grambow, all of Kentfield.

Mrs. Chapman is also reservations chairman.

ROSS VALLEY Council of Parent-Teacher Association will hold its annual luncheon Thursday at Bob's of Marin.

Mrs. Alonzo Ferrell will introduce guest speaker Dr. Harold Keaster Groves. Dr. Groves has been president of Golden Gate Baptist Seminary since 1952, is listed in Who's Who In America; was awarded the distinguished Alumnus Award from Souther Illinois University in 1966; and is the author of The Nature and Functions of a Church.

Robert Johnson, principal of San Clemente School in Corte Madera, will install the incoming officers of Ross Valley Council of Parent-Teacher Association: president, Mrs. Alonzo Ferrell; vice president, Mrs. Frank Sheets; secretary, Mrs. Derrell Crater; treasurer, Mrs. Marvin Buell; auditor, Mrs. Louis Cimina; and parliamentarian, Mrs. Robert Berry.

MEMBERS OF the Novato Newcomers Club are planning a day at Boreal Ridge on Thursday.

They will leave the Novato Fair Shopping Center at 7 a.m. and return at 6 p.m.

Chairman is Mrs. Anders Hiorth.

MRS. GEORGE J. Russo of Mill Valley, district chairman for the Rebekahs' and Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home in Gilroy, is soliciting donations of canned goods, tools, clothing and toys in good condition for the home. Pickup service may be arranged by calling her at her home, 71 Surrey Avenue.

NEW PRESIDENT of the Rohnert Park Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association is Mrs. Carl Kopp of Penngrove. Serving with her are Russell Kern, vice president; Ralph Azevedo, honorary vice president; Howard Hill, second vice president; Mrs. Jason Seale, secretary; Mrs. Lee Snider, treasurer; Mrs. Norman Richtik, historian; Mrs. Robert Brown, auditor; and Mrs. Dean Palmer parliamentarian.

MRS. HURLUFF Pedersen, district deputy president of Rebekahs District 61, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will pay an official visit to Blythedale Rebekah Lodge 305 at the Odd Fellows Hall in Mill Valley on Thursday. Mrs. V. N. Enrico of Sebastopol will accompany her.

The committee will consist of all past district deputy presidents or past district deputy masters. Chairman Mrs. Jack Clausen will be assisted by Messrs. and Mmes. Herbert Maxey and Al Hughes, Mmes. Richard Bennett and Chester Dudley, and Messrs. Bill Edmundson and Paul Hughes.

MILL VALLEY Bethel 119, International Order of Job's Daughters, will hold past honored queens' night tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the Mill Valley Masonic Temple. Refreshments chairman will be Kippy Younger, and honored queen Marsha Phipps will preside.

NEW OFFICERS for the Oakview School Parents Association have been elected for the year. Richard Bragg is the new president, assisted by Steven Hospodar, vice president; Mmes. Michael Kane, corresponding secretary; Thomas Lake, recording secretary; R. Clifford Vrooman, treasurer; and Jules Schechner, coordinating council representative.

"MODES OF MAY" is the title for the fashion show and luncheon to be held Thursday at 11:30 a.m. by the St. Raphael's School Mothers Guild. The spring event will be given at the school auditorium in San Rafael and will feature a Maypole dance by the fifth grade children in costume. Proceeds from the day will be used to purchase supplies for the school. Mrs. Richard Katerndahl is chairman, assisted by Mrs. H. B. LaRue, Mrs. James Huston and Mrs. Ray Cerutti are reservations chairmen.

THREE NEW provisionals from the Marin Circle will be among new members honored at the Thursday luncheon of the Florence Crittenton Home Auxiliary at Trader Vic's. They are Mmes. Melvin H. Brown of Sausalito, Richard W. Canady of Tiburon and Lawrence H. Westdahl of Mill Valley.

Speaker will be Miss Ruth Adams, principal of George Washington High School and a Crittenton Home board member.

Parson Forbids Picture-Taking

CROWLAND, England — A village parson has decided he's had enough of flashbulbs in the church.

He is now charging couples $2.50 if they want their photographs taken during wedding ceremonies in his 15th century abbey.

"I have had to do it because some guests think they have the run of the place if they have a camera in their hands," said the Rev. Cutler.

In the future, photographs taken inside the abbey will be allowed only when the bride and groom are standing at the chancel rails.

Use Permit For East San Rafael Dog, Cat Kennel Is Turned Down

San Rafael City Council last night denied a use permit for a dog and cat kennel in East San Rafael where an industrial park is planned. (Another San Rafael City Council story, page 1.)

The decision came after a two-and-one half hour hearing during which two councilmen absented themselves from deliberations.

Councilman Frederick C. Robbins left because he was on the planning commission when the matter was discussed in December, and Councilman Fred C. Jensen left because he spoke as an interested citizen when the commission approved the application Feb. 25.

The applicants, Stanely Goldberg and Robert R. Rudholm, had appealed the conditions attached to the permit, and adjacent land owners appealed the granting of the permit entirely.

Attorney Albert Bianchi, representing the applicants, argued that the kennel for 48 dogs and 20 cats at 535 Jacoby Street, between Jacoby Street and Highway 17, wouldn't be detrimental to the area.

Attorney Hugh Allen, representing Commerce Clearing House, owner of adjacent land being filled by soil and rocks from the Quail Hill development in the Terra Linda area, said the kennel would affect development of the area, he described as one of the main entrances to Marin County.

Robert Marquis, of Marquis and Stoller, architects for Commerce Clearing House, displayed a schematic plan for the area about 175 acres between Highway 17 and the ridgeland indicating an industrial park in the flat area, commercial and administrative - professional offices on higher land and garden apartments and green belts along the slopes. It illustrated potential development.

The land involved is owned by Irving Bartel, Armando Flocchini, Barney Norwitt, Quail Hill Inc. and Joseph Bonzani.

Marquis urged the council to look at total area, rather than act on small parcels in a piecemeal manner.

Councilman John A. Miskimen moved for denial and Mayor C. Paul Bettini and Councilman Harry A. Barbier agreed.

Councilmen authorized approval of state plans for construction of the new Highway 101 viaduct, which will require closing of the connection to Rice Road from the southbound 101 onramp.

City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen suggested approval not be executed until city staff meets with Division of Highway officials next week to see if an off ramp to Rice Road can be negotiated.

The San Rafael City Council Also:

SETBACK HEARING — Continued until May 5 at 8 p.m. a hearing on appeal of a planning commission decision to grant Allan C. Hock a frontyard setback variance (five feet instead of 15) at 279 Bungalow Avenue after protests from neighbors that it would create a traffic hazzard.

FIREMAN'S GROUP — Formally recognized the San Rafael Fireman's Association as a recognized employee organization for negotiations.

ZONING TEXT — Adopted three changes in the zoning ordinance, one adding ambulance service to uses in the general commercial district requiring a use permit, another correcting printing errors in a prior amendment, and a third to clarify the ordinance on uses requiring a use permit.

TUNNERL ALARM — Postponed until May 5 a proposed agreement with Northwestern Pacific Railroad Co. on placing a fire alarm circuit through the railroad's Puerto Suello Hill tunnel, which was destroyed by fire in July, 1961. City Manager Andersen said the proposed agreement wasn't ready for action.

CARNIVAL — Waived the license fee for a carnival to be sponsored June 7 and 8 by the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce for the benefit of the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum.

SEWER LINE — Granted Vukasin and Rigifion of Lafayette, Contra Costa County, a 60-day extension until June 29, to complete relocation of sewer lines in the vicinity of Clyde Avenue, Clinton Street and Tamlapais Avenue in connection with Highway 101 widening.

HEARING — Set May 5 at 8 p.m. for a hearing on rezoning of 1.89 acres on Northgate Drive, west of Faith Lutheran Church, from unclassified to administrative-professional as sought by Robert H. Busse, as the site for the central offices of Western Travelers Life Insurance Co.

HIRING — Approved the hiring of Mark C. Hedeen as a police cadet at $390 a month, effective April 18.

JOINT MEETING — Adjourned until a joint meeting with the San Rafael Sanitation District board at 7 p.m. tomorrow at West End Villa to discuss sanitation facilities, with the next regular session scheduled at 8 p.m. May 5 at city hall.

Johnson To Will Cash To Palace

SAN FANCISCO (AP) — Walter S. Johnson, who donated $2.3 million to the Palace of Fine Arts, says he is "arranging in my will for a million or two dollars to see that the restoration is finished properly."

Johnson, a retired businessman and financier, made the remark yesterday while opposing the installation of a statue by Spero Anargryos at the palace.

The palace was built for the 1915 Pan Pacific Exposition. Besides the money Johnson gave for its restoration, the state government has put up $2 million and the City of San Francisco $2.6 million.

OFFICE OATHS FOR MAYOR, COUNCILMEN

A mayor, two councilmen and two board of education members, victors in last Tuesday's elections, were sworn into office last night at San Rafael City Hall.

Mayor C. Paul Bettini and Councilmen Harry A. Barbier and Frederick C. Robbins were sworn into office for new terms.

Bettini, who called the margin of their victory a vote of confidence, pledged that the council would meet the city's problems.

Lawrence I. Kramer Jr. and Paul L. Jones, who were unopposed were sworn to new terms on the San Rafael Board of Education.

Seven Marinites Drafted In April

Seven Marin men were inducted into the Army in April by the Marin Selective Service Board, executive secretary Joy M. Kinzer reported today.

They are William H. Steel, William C. Markham and Ronald N. Pearson, all of Novato; James A. Smith Jr. and Bruce K. Billups, Marin City; Bernard J. Noel, San Rafael and Alan J. Mainini, Mill Valley.

The county draft quota for April was 43 while 38 men from Marin County have been ordered for induction in May. The quota is seldom filled, according to Mrs. Kinzer.

Alleged 1965 Bilking Case Set For Trial

The case of an octogenarian who said he was bilked of $120,000 in cash and property by two young women will come to trial in Marin Superior Court tomorrow almost three years after the death of the alleged benefactor.

In October 1965 Max Bootzin, a former Mill Valley man who was then 82 years old, filed the suit against Charmaine Klenman and Joan Taylor.

Bootzin died in June 1966, before the case came to trial, but since that time San Francisco attorney Vincent Hallinan has been named executor of his estate and is now plaintiff in the case.

Bootzin charged in his suit that the women moved into his home at 8 Robertson Terrace, Mill Valley, and that led by the promise Miss Klenman to marry hime, Bootzin gave her cash and property amounting to $120,000.

The suit asks recovery of alleged losses.

Jail, Probation Set

Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court yesterday placed Michael Louis Brandt, 22, former Novato resident, on one year probation for having marijuana plants at his apartment on Jan. 18, 1968. He also ordered him to serve 20 days in jail.

Business License Tax To Be Studied

The San Anselmo City Council will hear a report from the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce recommending an increase in the business license tax at its 8 p.m. meeting today.

Fleet Shift Curtails Viet Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vietnam naval air operations are being curtailed and the Seventh Fleet stretched to the limit with deployment of a 23-ship task force to protect U.S. reconnaissance missions off North Korea.

"We've got no slack," a Navy officer commented after the Pentagon yesterday announced assignment of an armada to the Sea of Japan where a Navy plane was shot down by North Korea last week.

One aircraft carrier and possibly other war ships of the Seventh Fleet have been pulled from the war effort to form a new Task Force 71 deploying somewhere off North Korea.

Officers said this means the Navy contribution to the U.S. bombing campaign in South Vietnam and Laos will be cut by roughly one-third. The United States has been keeping three aircraft carriers on the firing line in the Gulf of Tonkin; for the time being this will be reduced to two.

The Seventh Fleet's remaining four aircraft carriers are going into Task Force 71 along with three cruisers and 16 destroyers.

Thus, officers pointed out, all fleet carriers are now tied down on two fronts—the Sea of Japan and the Gulf of Tonkin. And officers described the 16 destroyers as a major share of the Seventh's heavy combat vessels.

How long the fleet can maintain both assignments under present conditions is a matter of concern to the Navy. With its six flattops occupied, the fleet has no replacement flexibility.

A photo display by Henry Miller is on exhibit at the Glad Hand Restaurant in Sausalito until April 30. Miller, an amateur photographer, has been in the Navy for the past five years, the last four in the Bay Area.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

SPRING'S UNWELCOME SIGHT

A heavy infestation of caterpillars—such as this attack on a tree outside 720 Idylberry Road in Marinwood—has struck Marin this year. The assault has been heavy and early, but officials are uncertain why. Phillip Economon, assistant Marin County agricultural commissioner, says the good weather may be attracting the pests. The larvae attack the foliage of oak, flowering plums and other trees, severely weakening them. Economon, whose department has been flooded with calls from conerned residents, said persons should telephone a pest control operator. If that isn't practical, a chemical named Servin may be bought at nurseries to combat the pests. (Independent-

Agricultural Tax Break Changes Eyed

Marin now has 86,400 acres in agricultural preserves, which enjoys lower tax assessments, Assessor Bert W. Broemmel reported today to the Marin County Board of Supervisors.

Total land eligible for agricultural preserve is 214,000 acres out of the 333,000 acres in Marin.

The tax impact, however, is small, said Broemmel. Other taxpayers must now pay an average of about 1 per cent more because of lowered assessments on the preserves. However, rural businesses in West Marin are affected as much as 13 to 20 per cent, said Broemmel.

The supervisors met this morning in a workshop session with Broemmel, County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney, Planning Director Paul C. Zucker, and rancher Boyd Stewart to discuss agricultural preserves and proposed new legislation.

Rancher Stewart, representing Marin Property Owners Association, reported that some ranchers like himself are staying away from agricultural preserves, mainly because they want to leave their land unclouded in case of death and inheritance taxes.

Supervisors asked Maloney to summarize amendments that are being considered for the California Land Conservation Act, which set up the agricultural preserves.

Work Of Vandals

Vandals who broke into the Sleepy Hollow Homes Association clubhouse Friday night broke windows, emptied fire extinguishers and dismantled sound equipment, sheriff's officers said today.

Bloomfield's Warring Bell Factions Handed Ultimatum

Bloomfield's feuding community club and volunteer fire department were handed an ultimatum last night by Tomales Bay School District trustees, custodians of the embattled Bloomfield bell:

Get together before 8 p.m. May 19 and agree on the bell's future, the warring factions were told, or the trustees will make the decision for them.

The hotly contested bell, which reached California around 1900 via sailing ship, was a part of the Bloomfield School at the time of the school's annexation to the Tomales district.

After annexation, it was spirited away by someone and kept hidden while the club insisted it go on a tower in the community's park and the firemen insisted it adorn their meeting place.

The school district became involved when it sought to mediate, claiming it had the power to do so since it was school property at the time of annexation.

Last night's Solomon-like judgment came at the trustees meeting at the school in the form of a resolution passed by a 3-2 vote, with trustees Robert L. Matteri and Jeanne Vilicich dissenting.

An earlier motion, spelling out what would happen in the event the club and the firemen couldn't agree, was defeated on the same voting lineup with trustees Walton Burbank, A. L. Cunningham and Walter S. Lawson in the majority. That motion would have put the bell up for sale.

Such a decision would have been somewhat in line with the understanding reached April 3 in Sonoma Superior Court. In that arrangement, the club, which had hidden the bell was to surrender it to the Marin County counsel's office by April 13, whereupon it was to be offered to the highest bidder on condition it remain in Bloomfield.

Burbank said that since the Bloomfield Community Club had not turned over the bell until last Saturday, well after the deadline the agreement between the district and the club to auction off the bell was now void.

After the board passed its motion last night, one of the 14 Bloomfield residents in the audience said that the Bloomfield Fire Department and community club could never get together on what to do with the bell.

After postponing the bell decision to their May 19 meeting, the trustees got down to the more usual business of the night.

Upper grade students are about national average, reported Charles R. Billings, county guidance consultant., according to Supt. Ralph E. Nixon.

The board adopted a resolution presented by Supt. Charles E. McCully of the Shoreline Unified School District board supporting AB 2293 which would add health and welfare benefits to teachers salaries.

The board hired Mrs. Ann Shaw at $7,487 per year for sixth grade teacher next school year.

Nixon reported that the district now had 240 in attendance compared to 213 last year.

Demolition Set For Old Home

An old Oakland mansion, the childhood home of Donald de Fremery, 81, of San Rafael, and his eight brothers and sisters, was scheduled for demolition today to preserve memories of the 92-year-old Victorian residence.

De Fremery, of 35 Dorian Way, the last surviving member of the William Cornelius Bastiaan de Fremery family, said his seven sisters wanted the house demolished after they died. "They didn't want it to become a third-rate rooming house or slum," he explained.

The house has been empty since the death last year of Susan de Fremery, 90-year-old spinster who lived in the 16-room, three-story home until she died. The property, at 77 Fairmount Avenue, a half-mile from Lake Merritt, as been sold to a group of Oakland businessmen who have not yet announced plans for it.

Corte Madera Panel Favors Flood Work

Corte Madera Town councilmen last night voted to urge Marin Junior College District trustees not to attempt to halt the Corte Madera Creek flood control project.

The vote was 4-to-1 with Harold Wagstaff absent.

Mayor Edward W. Colthurst said the town had received a letter from the Ross Valley Sanitary District board asking the council to take a position on the project which, though approved over a year ago, has had opposition from a picketing citizen committee and some college students since work began last Tuesday.

The Corte Madera Town Council also:

FIRST AID — Heard that a first aid course will be started for firemen next Tuesday and is also available to the public.

ATTORNEY FEES — Agreed to pay up to $600 in attorney fees for police officer Charles Newman who is named in a conspiracy suit by G. Dale Smith of 360 Corte Madera Avenue. Smith alleges Newman conspired to defraud him since he telephoned Smith asking him to pay his $35 car wax bill after Joseph D. Quinn, owner of Patio Car Wash complained to police that Smith hadn't paid the bill. Colthurst praised Newman saying he had recently been made a life member of the Parent-Teacher Association at Neil Cummins School for his fine work as juvenile officer.

EMERGENCY SERVICES — Adjourned to 7:30 p.m., May 1, to discuss emergency service choices for the town, including recommendations by the chamber of commerce, Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher and any other. Usher announced that copies of his report may be checked out for three-day periods at the Town Hall.

ONE-WAY ROAD — Agreed to make Meadowsweet Drive from Sausalito Street to 240 feet eastward a one-way street for safety reasons.

SOLICITORS ORDINANCE — Voted 4-to-0 to introduce by title a solicitors ordinance, patterned after the City of Larkspur's ordinance and requiring other than charitable solicitors to post a $1,000 bond. Councilman Robert P. Simmons said he did not favor completely prohibiting door-to-door soliciting since the ordinance would prohibit not only the itinerant but also county people who are in business.

PET APPEAL — Granted a 30-day extension to allow Christian V. Peetz and V. Carroll Paulson, time to dispose of their old Madera Pet Hospital building at 5800 Paradise Drive. The Planning Commission had set April 24 as date of disposal.

GREEN BELT — Urged Hidden Valley residents to act immediately once they believe someone is about to cut down trees in a city right-of way, George L. Comsani complaining that it is believed trees, falling within the town's "Green Belt" ordinance were cut at 5 Fairview Avenue.

HEARING — Set 8 p.m., May 5, for hearing on appeal of Corte Madera Town Planning Commission denial of Board of Design application for enclosure of upper rear deck at 48 Mariner Green Drive.

STREET RESURFACING — Approved resolution calling for bids, to be opened May 16, for resurfacing Golden Hinde, Staghound and Diamond Head Passages and a portion of Sausalito Street and Tamalpais Drive. Engineer's estimate is $16,743.

SANITARY BOARD — Sitting as a Town Sanitary Board, approved the proposed Terrence O'Flaherty annexation of one lot on Paradise Drive to the district.

PIXLEY STEPS — Deadlocked 2-to-2 on a motion by Councilman Simmons that $1,500 to construct the Pixley steps be removed from the budget, Simmons saying the project should be done with town forces or not at all. Byron D. White voted with Simmons and H. S. Norville and Colthurst voted "no" and the subject was continued to May 5 for a full council.

5 To 10 Pct. Pay Hikes Recommended

Salary increases for Town of Corte Madera employees in the amount of $26,000 for fiscal 1969-70 were recommended last night to the town council.

They include two-range increases — or 5 per cent — for 13 employees; three-range increases — or 7.5 per cent — for 19 employees and four-range increases — or 10 per cent — for five employees.

No action was taken by the council. A public hearing is set for 7:30 p.m., May 14. The 1969-70 budget is expected to be presented to the council at its next regular meeting, May 5.

The cost of living rise is sufficient to justify the 5 per cent increase which pertains to all employees, according to Town Mgr. Ronald L. Usher, who submitted the proposal.

Special considerations should be given to the positions of maintenance man I and police officer to grant them a 7.5 per cent increase. That is to put the maintenance man class at a "reasonable living" salary and a pay for police in recognition of growing complexity of their job requirements.

Ten per cent increases pertain to the chief of police, mechanic, assistant superintendent of public works, finance director and police lieutenant.

Usher recommends that the director of public works should be raised from the $974-$1184 salary range to $1,155-$1,405 range since he has recently been given the added duties of town engineer.

Fringe benefits recommended by Usher include time-and-a-half pay for callback overtime for emergencies in any department at an estimated annual added cost of $630; an increase from $90 to $120 in the uniform allowance to cost a total of $490 and increased insurance coverage from $5,000 for each employee to $10,000 at an annual cost to the town of $750.

Usher recommended to the council that it explore restricted investment plans in which employees might participate, saying this would be an aid to future recruiting, particularly at the department head level. This would be at no cost to the town.

Cost of salaries in the current budget is $331,896.

$6,000 In Funds For Boys Club

A fund drive by high school students to raise money to help the Boys Club of Southern Marin survive for another year may have netted as much as $6,000 Saturday, club officials said yesterday.

Although the estimated contributions were far short of the $40,000 the club needs to run another year, club officials were "very satisfied with what we got," according to Dick Skuse, publicity director for the club.

Preliminary figures indicated that $3,000 had been turned in with another $2,000 or $3,000 expected within the next few days. About 600 high school students helped collect the contributions in a countywide canvas Saturday.

Skuse said the club is working in other areas, including trying to get backing of the club from various big corporations, to raise the rest of the money the club needs.

Students from Tamalpais, Redwood, Sir Francis Drake, San Rafael, Terra Linda, Marin the prevailing situation in the schools participated in the drive.

Novato Parks Panel Backs Pre-History Museum Plans

The Novato Parks and Recreation Advisory Commission last night endorsed the Kiwanis Club's proposed pre-historic museum for Novato Creek Park.

The club has obtained a large old house at the northeast corner of Grant Avenue and Sixth Street which it wants to move onto the Novato Creek Park site near Novato Boulevard. Crocker-Citizens Bank, owners of the house, have offered to donate it for a museum.

The commission heard a report from Edward W. Adams, park and recreation director, saying the city should spend a minimum of $14,000 to construct a service road to the museum.

The commission cut this down to $3,000 for a paved walkway so that it would not take funds away from Pioneer Memorial Park, Adams said.

The commission asked the Boy Scout Council to see if the council could make plans for the half-acre tank site above Vallejo Avenue at Seventh Street for scout purposes. The North Marin County Water District, owners of the property, has given it to the city for a park.

After a joint meeting with the city beautification committee, the commission requested its own chairman, Jack Holsclaw, and the chairman of the beautification committee, William Olsen, to review the Army Corps of Engineers plans to see how they affect the trees along the city's creeks, Adams said.

Preliminary Budget Approved

The Tamalpais Fire Protection District board last night adopted a preliminary 1969-70 budget of $172,716, up from the current budget of $157,000.

Board chairman Carl H. Modell said the board does not anticipated any increase in the current tax rate of 89.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation. He said expected increases in assessed valuation in the district should absorb the increased budget. The district's growth rate has been about 10 per cent annually, he said.

Most of the increased money is reflected in salary increases and the hiring of an additional fireman next fiscal year, Modell said.

Small Brush Fire Labelled As Set

A small brush fire behind the F. W. Neads home in Tamalpais Valley yesterday apparently was the act of an incendiarist, Tamalpais Fire district officials said today.

Several rolled-up newspapers were stuck into the ground and set afire in the brush behind the home at 32 Homestead Boulevard. There also were several matches on the ground and the handle on a water spigot had been removed and thrown into the bushes, firemen said.

The fire, shortly after 6 p.m., damaged lawn furniture and a retaining wall.

Rocks Tossed Over Link Fence At Marin City

Two rock throwing incidents and the shooting out of the windows of an apartment into which a white family was moving yesterday were reported by sheriff's deputies in Marin City today.

Deputies said that several youths heaved rocks over the controversial 12-foot chain link fence along the Highway 101 underpass between Marin City and Sausalito at several Greyhound commuter buses shortly after 4 p.m.

Later, at 9:45 p.m., more rocks were thrown over the fence at passing cars, deputies said.

There was no reported damage and no arrests.

Deputies also said the windows of a low-rent unit at 215 Drake Avenue were shot out with B-B's or similar shot. "This happens about every time a white family moves in," a deputy said.

The shooting was reported by Donald O. Stutsman, executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority.

Alfred Bianchi Heads Dairymen

A Point Reyes dairyman has been re-elected president of the Sonoma-Marin Dairyman's Association.

Alfred J. Bianchi was selected for another term during the group's annual meeting Friday at Point Reyes Station with more than 200 dairymen from 11 counties attending.

Waldo Giacomini of Point Reyes was re-elected second vice president and Ray Gambonini of Petaluma and Armin Truttman of Olema were named new members of the board of directors.

Driver's Condition Is Reported Fair

A 27-year-old San Francisco man was reported in fair condition and improving today in Marin General Hospital, where he is under treatment for head injuries suffered Sunday when his car struck a large rock on Shoreline Highway.

The driver, Fred M. Degalan, had been admitted to the intensive care unit at the hospital in poor condition.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

7½-Hour Amateur Night With Everyone In Cast

It was another epic battle of white hats vs. black hats Friday at the Marin County Civic Center, and, as in all properly scripted westerns, the white hats won.

What they won is another matter.

There was plenty of suspense, centered mostly about a mild-spoken character who had not even figured as a lead player in the advance billing. What appeared to be the audience was really made up of hastily recruited bit players. They were all playing to one man: Supervisor Bill Gnoss. And the suspense during the seven and one-half hour drama hung on how Bill Gnoss would vote.

THE WHITE HATS, as always in Marin, were the Conservationists. The black hats were the (pardon the 10-letter word) Developers.

Through the hall ran the awful rumor that Gnoss had gone over to the black hats. And when the time came to vote, he admitted that it was so. But, returning to rectitude (after counting the house and noting Novato well represented among the white hats), he voted for Conservation. The audience (or bit players) cheered.

WHAT WAS THIS all about? Ostensibly, it was about whether Paul C. Zucker, a young man from the East only a few years in Marin, should retain his job as county planning director. But actually, he was only a symbol. The battle was over whether the forces of Conservation should continue to rule in the House That Wright Built.

They will.

IT IS PERHAPS presumptuous to criticize such a stupendous dramatic production. But there seemed to be a few flaws.

We thought the casting of Zucker as Horatio at the Bridge, single-handedly defying the hordes of Development, a trifle overdone. During the years he has reigned in the county planning department, the developers have not exactly been battering down the bastions to get into Marin. In fact, things have been at pretty much of a standstill in the unincorporated areas, which are all that Zucker controls.

Also, there was a rather odd remark by John Frederick McInnis, captain of the black hats. He said no one questioned the professional competence of Mr. Zucker. It was the man's rudeness and abrasive manner that made him unacceptable, suggested McInnis.

WE SHOULD HAVE thought Zucker's competence was what the ruckus was all about. We should have thought that lack of needed ordinances and specific, clearly spelled out policies to control development might reflect on the competence of the man hired as planning director. We should have thought that lack of planning by a large planning staff might be important.

Not so, it seems. Planning apparently has nothing to do with it. It is all a matter of whether the planning director has a soothing bedside manner.

SO WE HAVE to conclude that the latest white hats vs. black hats drama was considerably overblown. Although it decided (for awhile) who's boss, it decided nothing about any real issue.

But it was a whale of an amateur production—like Marin County planning. And like Marin County planning, it was mostly ad libbed.

Patches Of Gold

Overlooking Highway 101 above Sausalito and at many other places throughout our county, the hills are sprinkled with patches of gorse. These blossoms are a bright lemon yellow at first, turning slowly to a golden orange.

Through some perversity, gorse favors poor hillside soil. It can scrabble a good living out of soil where other weeds would find the living most difficult. Perhaps for this reason, gorse thrives in the dirt-poor regions of Europe, bordering the Mediterranean.

Gorse, with its tough, rubbery, dark green foliage and stems, grows to the size of a large shrub or a small tree. It has lived here for so many generations that it should qualify as a native plant.

Three More Super-freeways For Marin On Traffic Plan

By PAUL E. PETERZELL

It may surprise some of the local citizenry to hear that three eight-lane freeways between Highway 101 and West Marin will still be needed in the next decade, according to a new review of the state's freeway and expressway system.

The review by a highway lobby-dominated advisory committee of the California Department of Public Works showed no change in the system's 10-year-old plan, which envisions full freeways roughly along the present alignment of Shoreline Highway, a new Highway 17 west from the San Rafael area, and a Highway 37 west from the Novato area.

The review did not mention the Marin County Board of Supervisors' resolution of January, 1968, asking that Shoreline Highway be a two-lane scenic road. It also was silent on the Novato City Council's adopted master plan, which specifically excluded Highway 37 from Novato.

IT WOULD TAKE legislation to delete the freeways designated in the plan, but the California Highway Commission decided last fall that the supervisors' resolution was "premature until the county's balanced transportation study had progressed to a point where travel desires and transportation modes have been determined."

The study is to be completed in the summer of 1970, so local and state officials can dodge the issue at least until then.

THE SYSTEM included 12,400 miles of roadway as drawn by the Legislature in 1959, but because of sharp inflation in the cost of construction, only 2,800 miles have been improved to the standards in the system, the committee founud. This is only about half as much as was expected by this year, it noted.

The report on its review predicted the system faces a $3.7 billion revenue gap by 1980 — a sure sign that it will be used to bolster the highway lobby's argument for increasing the state's gasoline tax, now at seven cents a gallon.

Alternate modes of transportation, such as rapid transit, were brushed off as unproved "panaceas," perhaps because only one of the 16 members on the committee represented public transit. The committee, incidentally, was set up by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, "father of California freeways."

A BUNCH of flowers goes to the Presidio of San Francisco for changing its working day to start at 7:30 a.m. instead of 7:45 a.m. More than 1,000 cars cross the Golden Gate Bridge from Marin to the Presidio each weekday, and bridge officials report the time change definitely eased morning traffic jams.

What Jehovah's Witnesses Believe

Would like to thank you for your article of April 12 written by Mr. (Louis) Cassels on the subject of what Jehovah's Witnesses believe. However he misunderstood a few points. We do believe Christ was of divine origin and was the son of Jehovah God. We are not substituting the name Jehovah but restoring it as it was rendered in the original Hebrew text.

Original Records On Bay Discovery

There seems to be a divergence of opinion concerning the discovery of San Francisco Bay and the time of the first ship into the bay. May I offer some substantiated facts on this matter.

I have a copy of a book, "The March of Portola and the Log of the San Carlos" published in 1909 by the California Promotion Committee at the time of the Portola Festival. This book contains detailed information on the march of Portola, the discovery of San Francisco Bay and Carquinez Straits, and a summary of the transcript of the certified copy of the original which is now in the Archives of the Indies, Seville, Spain. It also included a description of the Bay of San Francisco, and a report of the pilot of the San Carlos, Don Jose de Canizares, who wxplored and mapped the bay as far as the junction of the Sacramento and San Joaquin Rivers. Also included is a copy of the original drawing of the first survey and map of the Bay of San Francisco, which was attached to the log of the San Carlos, a packet boat.

It shows that the first sighting of the bay was made by Ortega (Portola was sick in camp with many others of the expedition), and his attempt to go around the bay to reach Point Reyes, only to be stopped by the Straits of Carquinez. The discovery date was Thursday, Nov. 2, 1769.

The log of the San Carlos shows that Ayala left Monterey July 26, 1775 and anchored at Fort Point on Aug. 5. Subsequent anchorages were made or attempted around Angel Island . . .

Since these records come from a translation of the original, they should be conclusive as to who discovered the bay and when, and what ship entered the bay first, and when.

Zucker Needs Dale Carnegie?

The eight-hour hearing on whether to retain Paul Zucker as Marin's planning director impressed me that a main difference between those supervisors who voted to keep him and those who voted to replace him lay in how much importance was assigned to the "rudeness and arrogance" about which Zucker himself said, "I know I'm outspoken but don't mean to be rude," and County Administrator Alan Bruce said, "He was hired in late 1965 by the supervisors, with full notification from me that he was abrasive and came on strong, and yet today he is being accused of having these same qualities."

In voting to keep Zucker, Michael Wornum said toughness was required of any planning director worth his salt and complaints against him were "normal gripes" from developers. In voting to replace Zucker, John McInnis said he had come to the conclusion that these qualities were "contributing to poorer, rather than better planning in Marin, by discouraging the more capable and responsible developers and leaving those who have no other choice."

Perhaps the answer lies in the suggestion of the spokesman for Gallinas Village Improvement Association, who staunchly defended Zucker and then offered to buy him Dale Carnegie book on winning friends.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

Two very small boys were playing marbles together when a very, very pretty little girl walked by. One of the boys exclaimed fervently to his pal, "Brother, when I stop hating girls, she's the one I'm going to stop hating first!"

Mr. Shtuss reported to the man who had just sold him a new car. "The motor makes such a racket I can barely hear my wife backseat driving. Can't you make it louder?"

MARQUIS CHILDS

Pres Nixon's First 100 Days: Waiting, And One Perilous Act

WASHINGTON — There is no built-in magic in the first hundred days of a new administration. The opener can be used as President Nixon has used it — to order his priorities, get his ducks in a row — or it can mean a great upsurge of new programs, the evidence of creativity and imagination.

Nixon concluded that the public was fed up with the vain sound of promises unfulfilled. Caution, restraint, the lowered voice are the order of the day. He may be right, although his initial rating in the polls was below that of his two immediate predecessors, John F. Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson.

THE THRUST of the first hundred days has, however, an important bearing on momentum. Here is the evident weakness of the Nixon approach.

For President Nixon this has a very special meaning. He can never forget that he is the first incoming president since James K. Polk in 1848 to win election without bringing in majorities, however thin, in both houses of Congress. Nixon must, therefore, confront committee chairmen entrenched through years of seniority, most of them southerners, who have little, if any, sympathy for one of the president's top priorities — rehabilitiation of the cities.

Wilbur Mills of Arkansas, overlord of the House Ways and Means Committee, has announced that he means to make a spending ceiling a condition of keeping the 10 per cent surtax in force. With stopping inflation another top priority set in the first 100 days, Nixon claimed a cut in the Johnson budget of $4 billion and a surplus of $5.8 billion.

Mills calls the surplus merely sleight-of-hand, with the actual reduction in the administrative budget, the budget that counts, only $1 billion. Therefore, the chairman set a target of further cuts of $5 billion. This means the president must dance to the tune of stringent economy in his domestic programs if he is to toe the anti-inflation line.

THE ARITHMETIC of the president's electoral vote in November throws a sharp light on his dilemma. Eight southern and border states gave him 87 electoral votes for his victory. The grand marshal of the southern strategy was Sen. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina. In light of this the president can hardly challenge the entrenched southerners who sit at the toll gates of legislative power. In a very real sense he is their prisoner.

The most important decision the president has made in his first 100 days is to proceed with deployment of the anti-ballistic missile as a "safeguard" for intercontinental ballistic missiles against the threat of Russian first-strike capability. It is a decision cutting across everything he must undertake at home and abroad. Dividing not only the country but his own party, the AMB issue promises to frustrate his principal aims in domestic and perhaps even in foreign policy. It may be true, as the president said, that the Soviet Union will not interpret deployment of the ABM as a new round in the nuclear arms race and, therefore, an impediment to arms negotiation in the early summer. Yet it is hardly a portent of success for those talks.

Sec. of Defense Melvin Laird, the front runner for ABM, put the cost at $6 billion to $7 billion. But like most Pentagon price tags this is only a starter. Along with a whole series of new weapons systems Laird has been persuaded to buy, it is one of the reasons he puts the savings when the Vietnam war is ended at only $7 billion as against nearly three times that amount, which was the estimate of the previous administration.

BY PRESENT count, 11 Republican votes in the Senate are opposed to deploying the ABM or are leaning strongly in that direction. They will provide the majority, currently estimated at 52 or 53, against appropriating funds for deployment.

Arm twisting by the White House and the Republican National Committee may change this count. But a narrow victory of three or four votes can be as harmful for the Nixon administration as a narrow defeat. A case can be made that the latter is even preferable, since it would take the issue out of public notice. A marginal victory on a matter so vital for the future of mankind can scarcely be a reason for dancing in the streets.

Normal Day In Britain With All Unsatisfied

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

For the Labor government of British Prime Minister Harold Wilson it was a fairly normal day.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Roy Jenkins had no good news to impart in his annual budget message. Instead, he told Britons they still were spending too much and demanded even more belt tightening.

Neither the labor unions nor the Conservatives liked government proposals for labor reforms.

Labor was horrified that the government intended to limit its right to strike. Conservatives didn't think the reforms went far enough.

AT AN ENGINEERING plant in Corby in the Midlands, workers pondered the case of a 20-year-old apprentice welder suspended because he refused to trim his shoulder-length hair.

A quickie walkout on the issue had been settled by compromise —the apprentice could keep his long hair but would move to another plant out of sight of management and customers, and would stay out of the company cafeteria. In return he would receive an extra hour at lunch so he could eat at home.

The day's events were not the culmination of Labor's troubles but only part of a chain of happenings which have plagued the Wilson government for more than a year and now threaten a crisis within the party.

A YEAR AGO it was devaluation of the British pound which forced Labor to cut back on its own cherished welfare program.

Wilson's efforts to enter the European Common Market had failed. The question of breakaway Rhodesia remained unsolved and a Wilson trip to Nigeria in an attempt to mediate that civil war also had failed.

The party then had met a string of defeats in parliamentary by-elections and public opinion polls gave the Conservatives better than a 20 per cent edge in popularity over the Laborites.

NOW THE HOTTEST issue was labor reform strongly supported by a public tired of labor abuses.

Since January the country had seen a damaging 24-day strike at the big British - subsidiary of Ford Motor Co., affecting Ford production not only in Britain but on the continent as well.

Twenty-four hour strikes had paralyzed mail delivery, slowed telephone service and interrupted banking services.

Ford presented a capsule of British labor turmoil.

It is estimated that 90 per cent of British strikes are of the wildcat variety, costing the country upwards of $100 million a year.

FORD SUCCESSFULLY had negotiated with the 15 unions in its plants for raises bringing the average weekly wage to $67. Included were vacation bonuses tied to curtailment of wildcat strikes. Shop stewards then defied their leaders, called the bonus agreement a "penalty" plan and the walkout began.

An attempt by Ford to take the unions to court failed when a judge ruled that labor pacts are gentlemen's agreements and not binding contracts.

Proposed government reforms are mild by U.S. standards, and contain no hard and fast rules to make a labor contract binding.

If You Like To Look At Phones, New Directory Is For You

Residents of the northern two-thirds of Novato, served by Western California Telephone Co., last week received their new telephone directories.

Instead of being a thing of beauty to attract the eye, the cover was a feeble attempt at being commercial. Other telephone directories to the north and south of Novato have beautiful local pictures on their covers. Not so those of Western California Telephone Co.

Last year the directory had pictures of six telephones on the front; on the back were two men trying to point out how to plan to use more telephones by pointing at a piece of paper.

This year there were pictures of two telephones on the front and five men on the back.

THE NOVATO Teachers Association, affiliated with the California Teachers Association, maintains an office at 7373 Redwood Highway, Novato.

This small office is a beehive of activity after school when the teachers are there. After it closes, the calls that come in are not met with the usual recorded request to leave name and address, along with a message.

Instead, the caller is given a short recorded message on current aspects of education. This may include problems in the Novato district or legislation which concerns education and is pending in Sacramento or Washington.

DEFEAT of the proposed additional 77-cent tax for new buildings in Marin Junior College District leaves the future of the Novato campus in doubt.

The junior college district has a beautiful piece of property at the end of San Jose Boulevard in Novato for this campus. It could be enlarged with much more land that is available in the area.

As Will Rogers used to say, "I see in the papers that . . .", I see where the University of California is reconsidering a possible campus in the North Bay.

With construction of the Novato campus of the junior college fading into the future, it might be well to consider offering the site to U.C. The university could easily add the needed acreage.

A full university campus within the county boundaries might be more of an asset to the county than another two-year college campus.

NEWLY ELECTED trustee Carolyn Crabtree of Novato Unified School District has found a way to perpetuate her name in the city.

She has volunteered to purchase two trees for pioneer Memorial Park if the city will plant them. They are a prunus Caroliniana and a flowering crab tree.

Sex Education At Soda Fountain –Look At What It's Done To Us

WASHINGTON — There is a big flap going on in the United States right now over the question of teaching sex education in our schools. The educators are mostly for it and the ultra-conservatives, including the John Birchers and the DAR, are mostly against it. I usually like to stay out of controversial matters as I hate to answer my mail, but in this case I have to come out for teaching sex education in the schools.

This is a very personal matter with me. I had no formal sex education when I was a student, and everyone knows the mess I'm in. If there had been a Head Start program in sex education when I was going to public school, I might have been a different man today.

WHEN I WAS going to Public School 35 in Hollis, N.Y., we got all our sex education at the local candy store after 3 o'clock. The information was dispensed by 13-year-olds who seemed to know everything there was to know on the subject, and we 11- and 12-year-old believed every word they told us.

Some of it, I discovered later on, did not necessarily happen to be true. For example, I was told as an absolute fact that if a girl necked with you in the rumble seat of a car, she would automatically have a baby.

This kep me out of the rumble seat of an automobile until I was 23 years old.

THERE WERE SOME other canards of the day, including one that the method of kissing a girl on the mouth decided whether she would become pregnant or not. Every time I kissed a girl after that, I sweated for the next time months.

The sex experts at Sam's Candy Store had an answer for every problem that was raised at the soda fountain. These included warnings that if you did certain things you would go insane. Most of us were prepared to be taken off to the booby hatch at any moment.

There was obviously no talk about birds, bees, flowers or animals. We couldn't care less what happened when they were doing it. Our only concern was what happened to human beings, and from what our 13-year-old isntructors could tell us, it was all bad.

THOSE OF US who escaped insanity and shotgun weddings were told we would probably wind up with a horrendous disease that would be passed on to our children and their children for generations to come. There were 25 ways of catching this disease, including shaking hands with someone who knew someone who had it.

You can imagine the nightmares these tales produced. There seemed to be no escape. You were doomed if you did, and you were doomed if you didn't. After one of these sessions at the candy store, I seriously contemplated suicide. There didn't seem to be any other way out.

NOW THE WORST part of my sex indoctrination was that when I turned 13 I became an instructor myself and passed on my knowledge to 11- and 12-year-olds at the same candy store. They listened in awe as I repeated word for word what I had been told by my "teachers," and I was amazed with how much authority I was able to pass on the "facts" of sex education as I knew them.

Upon becoming 13, they in turn taught the younger students. Heaven knows how many generations of Public School 35 alumni went on through life believing everything they had learned about sex at Sam's Candy Store.

The fact is that, while the sex education at Sam's served a purpose, we were all emotional wrecks before we got to high school.

So, on the basis of my own experience, I don't think we have much choice in this country when it comes to sex education. In order to avoid the agony and pain my fellow classmates and I went through, we either have to teach sex in the schools, or close down every soda fountain in the United States.

Salary Report Set

Trustee Curtis P. Kamai will report on current teacher salary negotiations at the Larkspur School District board meeting at 8 o'clock, Thursday, in the district office. The 1968-69 annual audit is also on the agenda for approval.

Simple Majority Is Sought On Sales Of Sewer Bonds

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO — Legislation to allow sanitary and sanitation districts to sell bonds with approval by a majority of the voters in the district, instead of by two-thirds, has been introduced by Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael.

The lower vote margin, however, would only be allowed if a district were ordered by a regional water quality control board or by a county health officer to improve its facilities. Petaluma, $103,370, and Rohnert

In Marin, only the Novato Sanitary District is under an order by the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board to stop polluting Novato Creek and the Petaluma River.

Tougher standards being set and enforced by the regional board could find other Marin districts under pressure to make expensive improvements — which would be easier to finance under McCarthy's bill than under current law.

The other districts that would be affected by his bill are the Ross Valley, Corte Madera, Tiburon, Richardson Bay and Las Gallinas Valley sanitary districts, and the San Rafael Sanitation District.

McCarthy also has introduced a bill to increase from $3,500 to $4,500 the limit of an expenditure for a sanitary district project before it must be put to a competitive bid.

In other legislation, McCarthy introduced a measure to consolidate several state bodies under a new Department of Commerce. The new department, itself to come under the Agriculture and Services Agency, would include the California World Trade Authority, the Division of Economic Development, the Museum of Science and Industry and the Office of Tourism and Visitor Services.

The new department was provided in the governor's omnibus reorganization plan last year, and McCarthy's bill would implement this provision of the plan.

SACRAMENTO ROUNDUP

Unruh, Alioto Trailing Reagan; Staged Riot Crackdown Voted

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A private poll taken for Democrats says Republican Gov. Ronald Reagan is regarded much more highly by California voters than his two potential Democratic challengers — Assembly Minority Leader Jesse M. Unhur and San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto.

The poll reported the governor, likely to run for a second term in 1970, is rated highly or mildly favorable by 63.8 per cent of the voters. Considering him in an unfavorable light are 33.3 per cent of those polled.

Unruh, former speaker of the Assembly and a longtime power in party affairs, is considered favorably by 49.2 per cent and unfavorably by 37.6 per cent.

Alioto, a well known antitrust attorney serving his first term as mayor, is given a favorable rating by 44.3 per cent and an unfavorable rating by 19.2 per cent.

Unruh, however, has a better rating among Democrats than Alioto — a key factor if both men compete for the Democratic nomination in next June's primary.

Alioto is considered favorably by 49.7 per cent of the Democrats surveyed compared to 61.8 per cent for Unruh.

The poll, made available to The Associated Press by Democratic sources, was taken early in February among 1,004 people selected throughout the state.

The survey says that Sen. George Murphy, R-Calif., who has announced he will run for another term next year, is looked upon either mildly or highly favorably by 57.4 per cent and unfavorably by 30.7 per cent.

Rep. John Tunney, the young Riverside Democrat who has indicated he will challenge Murphy, would enter the race far less known than the incumbent, the poll said.

It reported 87.6 per cent of Republicans and 49.4 per cent of Democrats have a high opinion of Reagan. But 47.6 per cent of Democrats regarded him unfavorably.

On other matters, the polls found that 50.2 per cent of those surveyed considered the Vietnam War the major national problem, with race relations second at 40.8 per cent and social unrest third at 26.4 per cent.

CURB VOTED

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Under a Senate-passed bill, newsmen may find themselves on a journalistic tightrope, fearing the consequences of stories they write or broadcast.

Despite objections that it was suppressing or infringing upon the right of a free press, the Senate voted to penalize newsmen who turn out incorrect stories which could result in violence.

The bill headed for the Assembly Criminal Procedure Committee today after it received the minimum 21 votes needed yesterday to clear the upper house. Nine senators were absent or did not vote and 10 voted against the bill.

The most significant section of the measure reads:

"Every person who willfully publishes or causes to be published or broadcasts or causes to be broadcast any statement concerning a breach of peace which is known, or which by the exercise of reasonable care, should be known to be false or misleading, and which at the time and place of publication or broadcast produces a clear and present danger of breach of peace or unlawful acts of force or violence or the unlawful burning or destroying of property is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Those convicted would face a maximum six months in jail and a $500 fine. Harmer said the measure was prompted by reports of television newsmen enticing persons into staging demonstrations for the benefit of their cameras.

Sen. George Moscone, D-San Francisco, gave a hypothetical case of newman being confronted by a man who has been beaten. The victim contends he was beaten by police but police deny the accusation.

If the newsman reports both sides of the story impartially, violence occurs and the police denial of the beating later turns out to be the truth, the newsman and his editor can face punishment, Moscine said, in objecting to the bill.

"You are placing the burden on the news reporter who does not know if it is false," he said.

WELFARE RULING

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Supreme Court's decision to invalidate residency requirements for welfare recipients will hike welfare costs in California, say several state officials.

Yesterday's decision came as California, appealing a year-old federal court ruling, was seeking to have its own residency provisions reinstated.

The decision seemingly doomed the appeal to the Supreme Court, whose action specifically dealt with the laws of Connecticut, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia but was applicable to similar regulations in about 40 states including California.

Spencer Williams, head of the state's Human Relations Agency, and State Welfare Director John Montgomery both predicted California's welfare costs would continue to rise sharply.

Both said that since the federal court overturned the state's residency requirements a year ago, more than 3,000 persons have joined the welfare rolls. This, they said, has hiked welfare costs by $26 million this fiscal year and will raise them by an estimated $35 million in the next fiscal year.

APPOINTEE STALL

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Sen. John C. Schmitz, R-Tustin, says he will conduct a one-man investigation into the sex education views of two of Gov. Ronald Reagan's new appointees to the state Board of Education.

Schmitz, an opponent of sex eduction in the schools, told the Senate yesterday he wanted to question Henry T. Gunderson, San Jose, and Dr. James R. Ford, San Diego, before voting to confirm their appointment.

Other Reagan nominees to various state posts received routine Senate confirmation but the names of Gunderson and Ford were delayed for a vote later.

Schmitz, a member of the John Birch Society, told newsmen later he was concerned about the unanimous vote by which the board earlier in the month approved guidelines for sex eduction from kindergarten through high school. Ford was author of the motion to endorse the guidelines.

BILL CHANGED

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill proclaiming Jan. 14, the birth date of Negro leader Martin Luther King Jr., as "Black American Day" in California has won the approval of the Assembly Education Committee.

The committee yesterday sent to the floor on a split voice vote the measure by Negro Assemblyman Willie L. Brown Jr., D-San Francisco, which also calls for suitable observances in public schools on that day.

The proposal was a sharply amended form of Brown's original bill that would have designated April 4, the date of King's assassination in Memphis, Tenn., as "Martin Luther King Jr. day."

Before approving the amended version, the committee strongly rejected an attempt to eliminate all reference to the Negro advocate of peaceful revolution and simply allow the State Board of Education to fix a date for "Black American Day."

Brown opposed the amendment offered by Assemblymen John Stull, R-Leucadia, and John L. E. Collier, R-Los Angeles.

Mayor Hit On Minority Appointment

Failure of Mayor Dean M. Meyer to appoint a Negro to the Mill Valley Human Rights Commission last night precipitated angry criticism from the commission's acting chairman.

Roger J. Fleischmann told Meyer that his failure to name Iniece Bailey to the commission "seriously affects our own effectiveness."

Fleischmann noted that Mrs. Bailey had been nominated by the commission at Meyer's suggestion that the group might recruit minority members.

Fleischmann criticized Meyer for naming another candidate never mentioned by the human rights group.

Meyer stuck by his appintment of William E. Williams to the vacancy created by the resignation of chairman Charles P. Guichard, saying he had indeed solicited Mrs. Bailey's nomination but in the final choice had selected Williams.

The mayor said he would consider Mrs. Bailey's nomination for the next vacancy.

The council endorsed Williams' appointment on a 4-1 vote with Councilman Rodric L. Robinson dissenting.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

THE ASSEMBLY

Adjourned in memory of Assemblyman Alan G. Pattee, who died in a weekend auto wreck.

THE SENATE

Bills Passed

Press — Provided criminal penalties for newsmen who publish or broadcast false information that could cause violence-SE 82, Harmer, R-Glendale.

Campus — Makes it a misdemeanor to obstruct students for faculty trying to enter state college or University of California campus; SB 496, Short, D-Stockton.

Physicians — Waives law requiring tests for physicians to permit one physician to be licensed;SB 270, Harmer.

Boards — Forbids junior college board member from serving on high school board in same area;AB 321, Burgener, R-San Diego.

Trustees — Makes appointments to State College Board of Trustees subject to confirmation by two-thirds vote of the Senate; SB 48, Richardson, R-Arcadia.

Mill Valley Debates, Backs Plan For Youth

An ordinance establishing a youth commission for the city was given first-reading approval last night by the Mill Valley City Council on a 4-1 vote.

Dissenting was Councilman Robert H. Andresen, who said he believed there were more imaginative and effective ways to involve youth in city government.

The ordinance will be reviewed again by the council on May 5 before final adoption.

Warning that his statement might be unpopular, Andresen said the council's thinking had been "channelized" and had lacked "original creative thought." If youth is going to serve in government, he said, its participation should be broadcast throughout the city. He suggested instead of an 11-man youth commission, the city appoint youth representatives to each of the city's existing commissions and committees.

"Each of our commissions should serve all segments of the city rather than having the council establishing a commission to serve only one segment," Andresen added. "At this rate I can envision a senior citizens commission, a merchants commission and a dog owners commission."

Councilman Rodric L. Robinson criticized Andresen for presenting his suggestions immediately prior to the vote and following an hour-long debate. "Now it's really almost too late," Robinson said.

Councilman George Wickham, supporting the commmission, said "If the youth of this community are willing to accept the responsibility, then I'm all for it. But if they go off on a tangent, contrary to what's legal and moral, I'll do everything I can to dissolve the commission."

As approved, the 11-member commission will consist of eight persons under 21 years of age and three over 21 with each commissioner serving for a one year term. Adults will be limited to no more than four consecutive terms.

The commission's purpose will be to recommend programs and methods for involving youth at all levels of planning, decision making and implementation of youth-oriented activities.

The only debate came over whether one of the goals suggested should include a phrase which said "to recognize that youth may have standards of behavior which differ from those of the adult community and to encourage acceptance of such standards provided they are legal and moral."

Youth representativies from Tamalpais High School asked that the "and moral" phrase be stricken since it would be difficult to define morality to everyone's satisfaction.

Andresen and Wickham objected to deleting morality and Councilman Jerome C. Hauke suggested instead the entire goal be stricken from the ordinance. The council agreed.

"Well, that's one way to face up to an issue," Robinson commented.

The Mill Valley City Council Also:

GARBAGE — Set a hearing for May 5 to discuss the Mill Valley refuse Co.'s request for an extension of its franchise with the city.

STREET LIGHTING — Asked City Engineer Stanley M. Bala to investigate the cost of hiring an independent street lighting consultant for the Miller Avenue street lighting project.

SYCAMORE AVENUE LIGHTING — Tentatively approved the Sycamore Avenue project over the objections of Andresen and asked for clarification of cost details from the city's architectural advisory committee and the Pacific Gas and Electric Co.

BANNER — Approved a request by the Mill Valley Center for the Performing Arts to hang a banner over East Blithedale Avenue to advertise the group's latest play, "Trojan Women."

APPLICATION — Authorized an application for state flood relief money to repair street and flood damage from the winter's rains.

QUARRY — Approved a request by contractors for the Mill Valley School District to quarry 5,000 cubic yards of soil from the Enchanted Knolls ridge for middle school fill.

POSTPONED — Postponed consideration of the city's park use policy, landscape plans for East Blithedale and Miller avenues and a report on city street needs because of the late hour.

Fairfax Firemen Will Burn Home

The Fairfax Fire Department will burn down a house at 62 Berry Trail Sunday morning, under an agreement with the owner, W. W. Wilcox.

Fire Chief Charles M. Thornton said the house is situated on the side of Manor Hill and the fire will probably be visible throughout a large area.

Permit Approved For Nursery Sales

San Anselmo Planning commissioners last night approved a three-week use permit for Safeway Stores to display and sell sursery stock outside the south side of its store at 900 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

The commission also approved a variance application to allow Paul Miersch Jr. to build an addition to his house at 1 Parkside Court to within five feet of the required eight foot sideyard setback, assistant engineer John T. O'Rourke reported.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Denver Surgeon Obtains Good Results In Liver Transplant

VAN DELLEN

Dr. Thomas E. Starzl of Denver and his surgical team have performed 17 human liver transplants. Many of the recipients are still alive, and two lived almost a year before they died.

The results have been basically encouraging since the procedure is loaded with technical difficulties.

One of his youthful patients has undergone two transplants. The first was done as a life-saving measure. But, within a month, it was obvious that the donated liver was not working.

Death threatened for a second time, but another organ was available so the first transplant was removed and replaced.

At the time of this writing the girl is up and about, and very active. This is another first for Dr. Starzl.

THE BEST CANDIDATE for a liver transplant is the person harboring an hepatic malignancy that has not yet spread beyond the liver.

One individual with this type of cancer died 13 months after the operation. The surgeons did not think that the malignancy had spread, but apparently it had. Death was due to metastases from the original tumor.

This person may have lived much longer had the cancer been confined to the liver that was removed.

Victims of progressive liver failure with cirrhosis also may benefit from this operation. Certain requirements, however, must be met. They must be otherwise healthy and not at an age when hardening of the arteries and heart trouble are common.

THE LIVER is second only to the brain in its sensitivity to lack of oxygen. When used as a transplant, it must be removed and cooled within 15 minutes after the death of the donor. After 15 minutes without a blood supply, serious damage occurs.

Timing and planning are crucial.

There is no artificial liver comparable to an artificial kidney or heart to keep alive a person dying from kidney failure (uremia). As a result, 95 per cent of the candidates for liver transplantation are lost before a suitable replacement can be obtained.

(Questions on medical topics will be answered by mail if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

SKIN SPOTS AND LIVER

A reader writes: I am plagued with liver spots although I haven't eaten liver and onions for years. What other food might be causing these blemishes?

REPLY

These spots have nothing to do with the organ or the food. You are perpetuating an idea that goes back 50 or more years. So-called liver spots are really chloasmic patches that are caused by too much sun and a little age. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for our leaflet on chloasma.

AN INFECTED NAVEL

M. M. W. writes: What would cause the navel of a 56-year-old woman to become red and sore and give off an odor?

REPLY

A fungal infection is a good possibility, assuming the navel is otherwise normal. Some persons develop an opening in the floor of the navel due to a cyst or infected urachus.

PILLS REPLACE INSULIN

D. P. writes: I used to take insulin for diabetes but now the doctor is giving me pills. Is it safe to stop taking insulin?

REPLY

Yes. Many diabetics have been able to switch from insulin to the tablets.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

1.1 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, will receive sealed Proposals until 2:00 p.m., May 5, 1969 for: the furnishing of all labor, materials, equipment, transportation and services required for the alteration and remodeling of the Manzanita School Child Care Center, 620 Drake Avenue, Marin City, Marin County, California.

The work shall be done in accordance with official plans and specifications prepared in reference thereto which may be seen at the Office of the Department of Public Works, County of Marin. Requests for forms or information shall be addressed to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

1.2 Drawings, Specifications (but not including Standard Specifications or other documents included by reference) and Proposal Forms may be obtained by prospective bidders upon payment of a deposit of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) cash or check made payable to the Department of Public Works, County of Marin, to guarantee safe return of the plans and specifications within ten (10) days after bid opening. Failure to so return the plans and specifications will cause forfeiture of the deposit to the County.

1.3 All bids must be submitted on the Proposal Form obtained from the Director of Public Works and shall be accompanied by a Proposal Guaranty of at least ten per cent (10%) of the bid. Guarantees shall be in the form of a Certified or Cashier's Check or a Bidder's Bond. Failure of the successful bidder to execute and return the Contract, or to file acceptable bond, as required, within the time allotted shall be cause for the annulment of the award and the forfeiture of the Proposal Guaranty. All guarantees not so retained by the County shall be returned to the bidders within fifteen (15) days after the award of the Contract. Bids are required for the entire work described herein, and neither partial bids nor contingent bids will be considered.

1.4 Proposals shall be filed with George H. Gnoss, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Room 315, Administration Building, Marin County Civic Center, San Rafael, California.

1.7 Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, or local law thereto applicable, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages in the locality in which this work is to be performed, for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute this Contract.

WAGE SCALE —Summary

This section lists the minimum wages that may be paid for work on this project in conformance with the Statutes of the State of California.

SCHEDULE EXPLANATION

A. The prevailing rates are based on an eight (8) hour day, forty (40) hour week unless specified otherwise and currently in effect. Existing agreements between the Building Trades and Construction Industry Groups relative to overtime, holidays and other special provisions shall be recognized.

B. Verification and further inquiries with respect to these rates and for classifications or trades not listed should be made at the Building and Trades Council, Marin County, California.

C. The wage scale is kept current by the Building and Trades Council as changes are reported from time to time. The following rates were in effect on July 1, 1968.

D. The attention of the bidders is directed to the provisions of the specifications relative to labor.

GENERAL PREVAILING WAGE SCALE, Marin County, California

SKILLED LABOR CLASSIFICATION	RATE PER HOUR
Carpenter	5.710
Electrician	6.750
Glazier	5.250
Laborer, Group III	4.425
Linoleum Layer (per day)	44.800
Painter	5.570

1.8 EMPLOYEES AND NON-DISCRIMINATION

Contractor shall not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, religion, color or national origin. This shall include employment, demotion or transfer, recruitment or recruitment advertisement, layoff or termination, rates of pay or other compensation, and selection for training and apprenticeship. Contractor shall post, in conspicuous places during period of contract and available to applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of this clause. Contractor shall insert the foregoing provision in all subcontracts hereunder, except subcontracts for standard commercial supplies or raw materials. The hiring of all labor for work shall be in accordance with applicable directives of the Fair Employment Practices Commission of the State of California. The contractor shall forfeit, as a penalty, in addition to any other penalty provided by law, to County, the sum of $25.00 for each calendar day, or portion thereof, during which the contractor knowingly allows any conditions of discrimination to exist in connection with the work, provided however that such penalty shall not be imposed without a full investigation and determination by the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Contractor shall cooperate fully with Marin County and affected Unions to promote and insure the maximum employment of Negroes and Spanish-speaking minorities, with particular emphasis on residents of Marin County, in all phases and at all levels of the work. Contractor shall encourage maximum utilization of apprenticeship and other on-the-job training programs to achieve this goal.

TV REVIEW

'Spoon River' Is Lovely, Artful Hour

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Although sharply truncated, CBS-TV's last night production of "Spoon River," adapted from the classic free verse volume by Edgar Lee Masters, was a lovely and artful hour.

The recollections and views by persons buried in a cemetery in a mythical small town in southern Illinois were acted splendidly by Charles Aidman, Jason Robards, Jennifer West and Joyce Van Patten.

SPECIAL POIGNANCE

This quartet, plus the delightful folksinging by Naomi Caryl Hirshhorn and Hal Lynch, brought a special poignance, a rare flavor of Americana and a frequently earthy humor to the long-awaited video production.

As with the stage version of "Spoon River," the driving force behind the television production was Aidman, who not only starred in it but adapted and directed it also.

It was Aidman and Miss Van Patten who produced the dramatized version of Masters' "Spoon River Anthology" while members of the Theater West Workshop in Los Angeles.

CRITICAL HIT

Under the name "Spoon River," the play—basically a collection of acted-out readings—then moved to Broadway, where it was a critical hit in 1963-64.

Masters, who died in 1950 at the age of 82, was a lawyer who once was a partner of the famous defense attorney Clarence Darrow. And the anthology of verse, which caused a literary sensation when published in 1915, enraptured Aidman since his student days at Indiana University a couple of decades ago.

UPSTAGES ROBARBS

As excellent a performer as Robards is, the night's acting honors must go without question to Aidman, whose variety of impressions were indelible.

Miss Van Patten, of course, was very good too. And Miss West, a lady of stunning beauty, is that rare combination of looks and talent.

The mood folk songs that were woven throughout the CBS-TV production grew on the viewer until' at moments, they were sublime. Aidman wrote the lyrics, and Miss Hirshhorn composed the music. And Miss Hirshhorn's soul-piercing voice as an acting feat all by itself.

Nixon Asks General Kept In Top Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army Gen. Earl G. Wheeler, now serving an unprecedented fifth year as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has been nominated for another one-year extension as the Pentagon's top military man.

The Pentagon disclosed yesterday that the Nixon administration has sent a proposed joint resolution to Congress which would retain the 61-year-old four star general as chairman until July 1970.

Powell's Son To Marry Socialite

NEW YORK (UPI) — The mother of Beverly Slocum, Newport socialite and 1960 debutante of the year, confirmed yesterday the engagement of her daughter to Adam Clayton Powell III, son of the controversial Harlem congressman.

Mrs. John J. Slocum, who can trace her ancestry back to Miles Standish, said Beverly, 26, and Powell, 22, would marry sometime in May.

Powell, a producer for the Columbia Broadcasting System, is the son of Pianist Hazel Scott.

Antipollution Penalties To Be Reviewed

I-J Special Report

OAKLAND — Proposed penalties against water polluters, including court orders to bar a violating public agency from granting sewer connection permits and from annexing new areas, will be considered for adoption by the San Francisco Bay Regional Water Quality Control Board at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in Napa City Hall, Napa.

Under current law, the regional board can do little about a public agency that defies its orders to cease polluting.

Also on the agenda are reports from San Quentin Prison and the San Rafael Sanitation District on their progress in meeting standards set by the board. Both are to submit time schedules outlining their plans to meet the standards.

Tam Board Approves Curriculum Revisions

The Tamalpais High School District board last night gave hesitating approval to three major revisions to the district's curriculum for the 1969-70 school year.

In a meeting which lasted until after midnight, board members finally approved the unique "On Location Education" program for Tamalpais High School; a new, liberalized English department for Redwood High School and a new optional grading system for all district seniors.

So lengthy was a couple of the reports which preceded action on curriculum, the board was forced to hold over its discussion of the 1969-70 budget until tonight when it will meet at 7:30 p.m. in the district office in a special meeting.

The "On Location Education" program was discussed for nearly 90 minutes before trustees gave approval. The program is aimed basically at non-motivated students who are apparently not deriving any benefit from the regular school program, and are possible dropouts.

Under the program — which will be run by one teacher, Roger A. Griffith — 20 to 25 students will be selected for the class. The students will be exposed to many different situations and learning processes, including many field trips.

Cost of the program will be $2,745 for the coming school year. Tamalpais High will pay the entire cost of the program except for bus transportation, which will be funded by the district.

The new English program at Redwood High calls for many new courses and allows the student much greater latitudes in selecting which courses he would like to take. The department will be broken down into three groups — media, literature and composition.

A student will be required to take at least one course from each grouping, but will then be allowed to sign up for any of the other classes during the last three years of high school.

Included are eight composition courses, ancient literature, modern literature, poetry, myth and epic, dramatic literature, black literature, American literature, American novel, art of the film, mass media, beginning journalism, contemporary books and science fiction and fantasy and satire, to name a few.

Trustee Frank L. Miller led the first resistance to the English program, noting that "today's graduates are already having enough trouble doing the basics, spelling and putting together good sentences," he said.

"I'm all for progressive education, but I feel that there should be more control over what courses a new freshman should have to take."

Miller, however, voted "yes" along with the other three board members present — Gloria Melbostad, Bette Wallace and David D. Ring. Newly-appointed board member Robert W. Corlett, was not present.

The board's approval of the modified grading system will allow senior students to specify whether they want to be graded on the A through F scale or a credit or no credit basis.

The grading system will be optional in each individual class. The new program means that students will be free to take certain classes without risking their grade point average by merely requesting a credit — no credit grading for themselves.

The new grading system is hoped to allow students to "branch out" without jeopardizing the grade average.

The Tamalpais High School District board also:

NEW EMPLOYEES — Hired two new librarians, Virginia G. Richardson of Ross and Richard H. Bradshaw III of San Rafael. Mrs. Richardson will receive $9,530 per year and Bradshaw $10,300. The board also hired a new teacher, Robert A. Piro, Corte Madera, to teach chemistry at Redwood High at $7,750 per year.

APPOINTED — Officially appointed Robert W. Corlett to the board, replacing William B. Lewis who resigned. Corlett was elected April 15 to the board effective July 1, but was appointed to fill out the remainder of the Lewis term.

Water District To Seek Federal Funds

Two applications for federal funds will be considered by the Marin Municipal Water District board at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in the district office, 220 Nellen Avenue, Corte Madera.

The district will ask about $50,000 in land and water conservation funds for recreational facilities and about $20,000 in disaster funds to repair a slide at the Bon Tempe treatment plant, if the board acts favorably on the requests.

Makes Eating With FALSE TEETH Up to 35% Easier

Clinical tests prove you can now eat and chew better—make dentures average up to 35% more effective—if you sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. FASTEETH holds uppers and lowers more firmly so they feel more comfortable. FASTEETH is not acid—doesn't sour. No gummy, pasty taste. Helps check "denture odor". Dentures that fit are essential to health. So see your dentist regularly. Get FASTEETH at all drug counters.

Sausalitan Goes To Vacaville

Richard Bruce Schwartz, 24, of Gate 6 near Sausalito, yesterday was sent by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Superior Court to the state medical facility at Vacaville for a 90-day evaluation period.

Schwartz, who was on probation from an earlier conviction, had pleaded guilty to two charges of car theft, possessing a bad check with intent to defraud and possessing a hypodermic needle.

The judge revoked his probation from the earlier case.

Schwartz was arrested Jan. 16 by Mill Valley police.

$200,000 San Francisco Blaze Takes Three Lives

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A 35-year-old mother, her young daughter, and their housekeeper were killed early today when a four-larm fire burst through five sets of flats in the Richmond District doing at least $200,000 damage.

Found dead on the floor of their Arguello Boulevard flat were Mrs. Joan Sutton and her 7-year-old daughter, Susie. The charred body of the housekeeper, Mrs. Elsie De Roche, 57, was found still in bed in an adjoining room.

The first alarm was turned in at 1:50 a.m. and firemen responding to the call found three buildings, including the Sutton residence, already enveloped. Searchlights lit the smoke-filled sky as firemen fought the blaze from aerial ladders. By the time the fire was under control shortly before 3 a.m. 180 firemen and 36 pieces of equipment were on the scene.

A couple who jumped from the second floor of one of the structures received slight ankle injuries. Frank Fee was taken to Mission Emergency Hospital while his wife was treated at the scene. They lived in a flat adjoining the victim's residence.

Two dozen persons were displaced by the blaze, and many of them stood standing coats thrown over their pajamas and watched as their homes were fully or partially destroyed. Red Cross officials on the scene promised to find temporary dwellings for those affected.

Bond Vote Study

The Bolinas-Stinson School board will hold a special meeting at 8 p.m. today to discuss whether to cancel the June 10 bond election.

FUTILE CONFRONTATION

Umpire Emmett Ashford and New York Yankee manager Ralph Houk have a verbal go at each other during a second inning rhubarb. The discussion came about after first base umpire Ashford was asked his opinion on a bunt attempt by Mel Stottlemyre. Ashford called it a strike and Houk disagreed. (UPI Telephoto)

Dodgers Dump Giants 7-5; Rematch Tonight In L.A.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Willie Mays is happy with his old, familiar position in the Giant lineup but he's not too enthused about his club's current position in the National League West Division standings.

Especially after what happened to them last night at Dodger Stadium.

Mays was back at his No. 3 spot in the Giant batting order last night—and he responded by collecting two hits in four trips and upping his average to .333. But it was still not enough to overcome a couple of costly errors and timely Dodger hits. All of which added up to a 7-5 Los Angeles victory, their sixth straight at home and one which kept them right on the heels of the league-leading Atlanta Braves.

SADECKI

The two-game series concludes tonight when Ray Sadecki of the Giants opposes Don Drysdale. The game will be televised on Channel 2, starting at 7:55.

"I enjoyed batting leadoff," Mays remarked, "but I think it will be better for the ball club if I bat third. Although I was getting on base (12 times in 19 appearances as a leadoff hitter) I wasn't driving in many runs (3 in 10 games)."

The decision to return Mays to the no. 3 spot was made by Giant manager Clyde King because of Ron Hunt's slump. Hunt has been batting second in the order but has been unable to move Mays along once the ageless Giant super star had gotten aboard.

BONDS

Hunt was not in the starting lineup Monday and Bobby Bonds took over leadoff duties.

"Batting leadoff will help Bonds, too," Mays asserted.

The Giants, now 6-6 and tied for third place in the west division with the Cincinnati Reds, committed two costly errors in the sixth inning when the Dodgers exploded for five runs to move into an insurmountable 7-0 lead and knock Juan Marichal out of the box for the first time since June 19, 1963.

All five runs in the inning were unearned but the Dodgers also received timely run-producing hits from Ted Sizemore, Andy Kosco and pitcher Bill Singer.

2-0 LEAD

Willie Crawford's second homer of the year and a run-scoring single by Paul Popovich accounted for the first two Dodger runs.

The Giants made it close with a single run in the seventh and finally chased Singer with a four-run burst in the eighth. But Jim Brewer and Al McBean put out the fire.

Singer, meanwhile, chalked up his third straight victory. He struck out eight and walked three before leaving the scene in the eighth with the bases loaded and none out.

Jaycees Expand Golf Tournament

JIM SHORTS:

San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce, which in the past few years has sponsored a San Rafael City golf championship, has expanded it to become the Marin County Men's Amateur Championship.

A 36-hole medal handicap affair, the tourney will be held July 25-26 at San Geronimo National course. Field will be limited to 150 players on a first come, first served basis. Entries will be open sometime in June. It should be a well-run tournament because San Geronimo pro Bob Ellsworth will direct things as they should be directed.

There'll be an estimated $2,000 in merchandise prizes plus a new car and boat for anyone shooting an ace on special holes.

A Modified Hippie Version

SOPHOMORE GOLF pro Ron Cerrudo, who picked up a cool $4,116 in the Tournament of Champions the other day, is pictured in the May issue of Golf Digest in a section devoted to hair — the various fashions seen along the professional tour.

Golf Digest says: "Ron Cerrudo affects an only slightly hippie version."

SKIN DIVING and underwater photography expert LeRoy French of San Rafael is owner of the Bamboo Reef and not the Bamboo Hut as noted in an I-J sports feature last week.

No Trout For Bon Tempe

THE DEPARTMENT of Fish and Game has canceled plans for stocking trout in Bon Tempe Reservoir, explaining:: " . . . because the water district which operates the reservoir plans extensive use of copper sulfate to control algae. When used in large quantities, copper sulfate is deliterious to fishlife." I guess they mean it's harmful.

FORMER MARIN CITY resident Mel Gray, now a football-track star at University of Missouri, blazed across 100 yards in 9.3 seconds Saturday to break a Kansas Relays record at Lawrence, Kan. A crowd of 20,000 saw the performance which broke the former mark of 9.4, held since 1930 by Cy Leland of Texas Christian and tied only twice by Bobby Whilden of Texas in 1956 and Jim Hine of Texas Southern in 1957.

BLESS 'EM ALL . . . Clergymen representing the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths will be aboard the U.S. Navy vessel D. D. Twinning Sunday morning for the annual blessing of the fleet on the opening of yachting season.

All boat skippers and passengers who particiate in the parade through Racoon Strait will receive scrolls commemorating the blessed occasion.

THAT SUPER STOCK drag meet at Sears Point International Raceway Sunday attracted only 3,500 spectators, a low count attributable to poor advertising and publicity.

Sears officails had nothing to do with the promotion as they contracted the meet to an independent promoter who neglected to notify a large segment of the news media.

Next big deal at Sears is the 150-mile late model stock car race sanctioned by the National Association for Sport Car Auto Racing. Sears is trying to lure a big, BIG name driver from the deep south for this 'un.

Pearson In Front

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C., has moved eight points out front in the late model drivers' point standings of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR).

Pearson's third place finish at North Wilkesboro, N.C., Sunday broke the tie with Richard Petty of Randelman, N.C., for the lead in the standings. Petty's engine failed 12 laps from the finish and he placed seventh.

After 15 races of the 1969 season, Pearson has 1,211 points and Petty 1,203.

James Hylton of Inman, S.C., is third with 1,041; Neil Catles of Charlotte fourth with 998 and Elmo Langley of Landover, Md., fifth with 951.

Oaks Romp To Victory Over Bucs

OAKLAND (UPI) — At the rate the Oakland Oaks are going, they're liable to go through the rest of the American Basketball League playoffs without another loss.

And that includes the ABA finals.

The Oaks made it 2-0 in the Western Division finals last night with a 135-124 victory over the New Orleans Buccaneers.

BETTER PLAY

"We're playing better ball overall than we did during the last two months of the season," an elated Alex Hannum said of his Oaks' effort. "Our players are really up now that we're in the playoffs."

Up is the word. Superb reserve guard Henry Logan and Warren Armstrong paced the Oaks in their initial victory. In yesterday's contest, it was the work of forwards Gary Bradds and Doug Moe which paced Oakland.

CONTROL

And again, the Oaks displayed an outstanding all-around game. They controlled the backboards, 76-45, and also outshot the Bucs from the foul line, converting 45 of 64 to 35 of 46 for the Bucs.

Bradds and Moe combined for 31 of Oakland's 41 third quarter points to give the Oaks the needed boost. Bradds pumped in 17 of his game-high 35 markers during the period and Moe got 14 of his 18 total markers.

SLIM LEAD

Oakland held a slim 69-67 halftime lead but after the Bradds-Moe blitz, upped the margin to 110-96 at the three-quarter mark.

Three other Oaks scored in double figures. Logan had 26, Armstrong and Jim Eakins 21 apiece. For New Orleans, Jim Jones had 31. However, 17 of those points came on free throws.

The two teams meet tomorrow and Friday in New Orleans.

ATHLETICS VS. TWINS

Young Fingers Gets Try

MINNEAPOLIS - ST. PAUL (UPI)—Young Rollie Fingers makes his first major league start today and Manager Hank Bauer couldn't have picked a tougher spot to pitch the Oakland righthander.

The 22-year-old Fingers will be thrown against the slugging Minnesota Twins, who have won seven straight games and are the current leaders in the American League's Western Division.

The Twins, who dropped their first four games of the season, piled up an 8-1 lead on the strength of a five-run, third inning yesterday to dump the A's, 8-4, and keep the streak going.

Two-run singles by Harmon Killebrew and Graig Nettles highlighted the five-run frame off loser Chuck Dobson.

Rick Monday scored the first Oakland run in the sixth when he doubled and came around on an error and Ramon Webster's sacrifice fly.

PUT IT AWAY

But the Twins added two runs in their half of the sixth and another in the eighth to put it away.

Tom Reynolds, who has rapped out six hits in the last three games, started a three-run ninth inning rally for the A's with a double. A wild pitch, walk and Danny Cater's single scored one run and another wild pitch and Monday's hit added the final two runs.

CHANCE WINS

Dean Chance, who pitched hitless ball for five innings, gained credit for the victory, his first of the year. However, he only worked seven innings in the game which was played in 50-mile-an-hour winds.

CONFIDENT BAYLOR SAYS . . .

Lakers Can Stop Celtics

INGLEWOOD (UPI) — Elgin Baylor has accomplished almost everything in his brilliant National Basketball Association career—almost everything but winning a championship.

In his 11 pro seasons, he has been frustrated five times in the NBA finals by defensive genius Bill Russell.

Baylor and the Los Angeles Lakers face Russell and the Boston Celtics tomorrow night in the opener of a best-of-seven game series for the NBA title. But this time Baylor has Wilt Chamberlain on his side.

NULLIFY HIM

"The Celtics are a great team and Russell is a great player but I think Wilt will nullify him," the greatest scorer in NBA playoff history said.

"In past years, Russell has hurt us both offensively and defensively. He was the difference in the playoffs. Now with Chamberlain in there, I don't think we have to worry about Bill's scoring. There's not much doubt that Wilt is the best center we ever had."

For the first time, the Lakers will have the home court advantage in the finals over the Celtics, who won three of the previous five series in seven games and two in six contests including the one a year ago.

24.8 AVERAGE

Baylor, who averaged 24.8 points a game in leading the Lakers in scoring during the regular season, isn't sure how important the home court is.

"The only difference playing at home is the crowd reaction," the 34-year-old veteran said. "Of course, it's always good to have people on your side."

Baylor averaged only 12.2 points a game in the Lakers' first 10 playoff games this season. That compares with his 30.7 playoff record in 10 previous playoff years.

He snapped out of the drought Sunday by pumping in 29 points as the Lakers gained the finals with a 104-96 victory over the Atlanta Hawks.

ROAD TO FINALS

While Los Angeles beat San Francisco and Atlanta to win the finals, Boston got there by eliminating Philadelphia and New York.

The Lakers won the Western Division title while the Celtics, called too old by some, finished fourth in the Eastern Division in the regular season race.

The Forum will be the site of the second game of the series Friday night.

The series moves to Boston for a nationally televised game Sunday afternoon and the fourth contest is set at the Boston Gardens Tuesday night, April 29.

If necessary, the fifth game will be held here Thursday, May 1; the sixth game at Boston Saturday, May 3, and the seventh encounter here Monday, May 5. All would be night games.

'Shoe' Wins Anniversary Horse Race

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Bill Shoemaker has earned millions during a spectacular jockey career, but his 5,803rd triumph ranks as one of his memorable ones.

Shoemaker rode his first winner at Golden Gate Fields in 1949. He returned to the California track yesterday for a 20th anniversary assignment and won the $15,000 added Native Diver Stakes aboard Berry Patch.

The three-quarter length victory that beat Slippoo and resulted in a $3.80 payoff was the 464th stakes win for "The Shoe."

"This has to be one of my biggest thrills in racing," Shoemaker said. "It was also a lucky day for me because when my colt ducked over, his saddle slipped and I almost came off."

Sparma Blanks Nats; Stottlemyre 4-0

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Joe Sparma, an in-and-outer during his five-year major league career and a doghouse occupant even in the year of the Detroit Tigers' first world championship in 23 years, thinks he's become a winning pitcher because he has found a new pitch.

Joe calls it a strike.

"My strike pitch," the powerful right-hander shouted last night after pitching a 2-0 victory over the Washington Senators. "My strike pitch is my best pitch."

Sparma, 10-10 last season and almost thrust into outer darkness after criticizing Manager Mayo Smith for giving him a quick hook, held the Senators to two hits last night. He yielded a double to Bernie Allen in the fourth inning and a single to Eddie Brinkman with two out in the ninth while striking out six batters and walking eight.

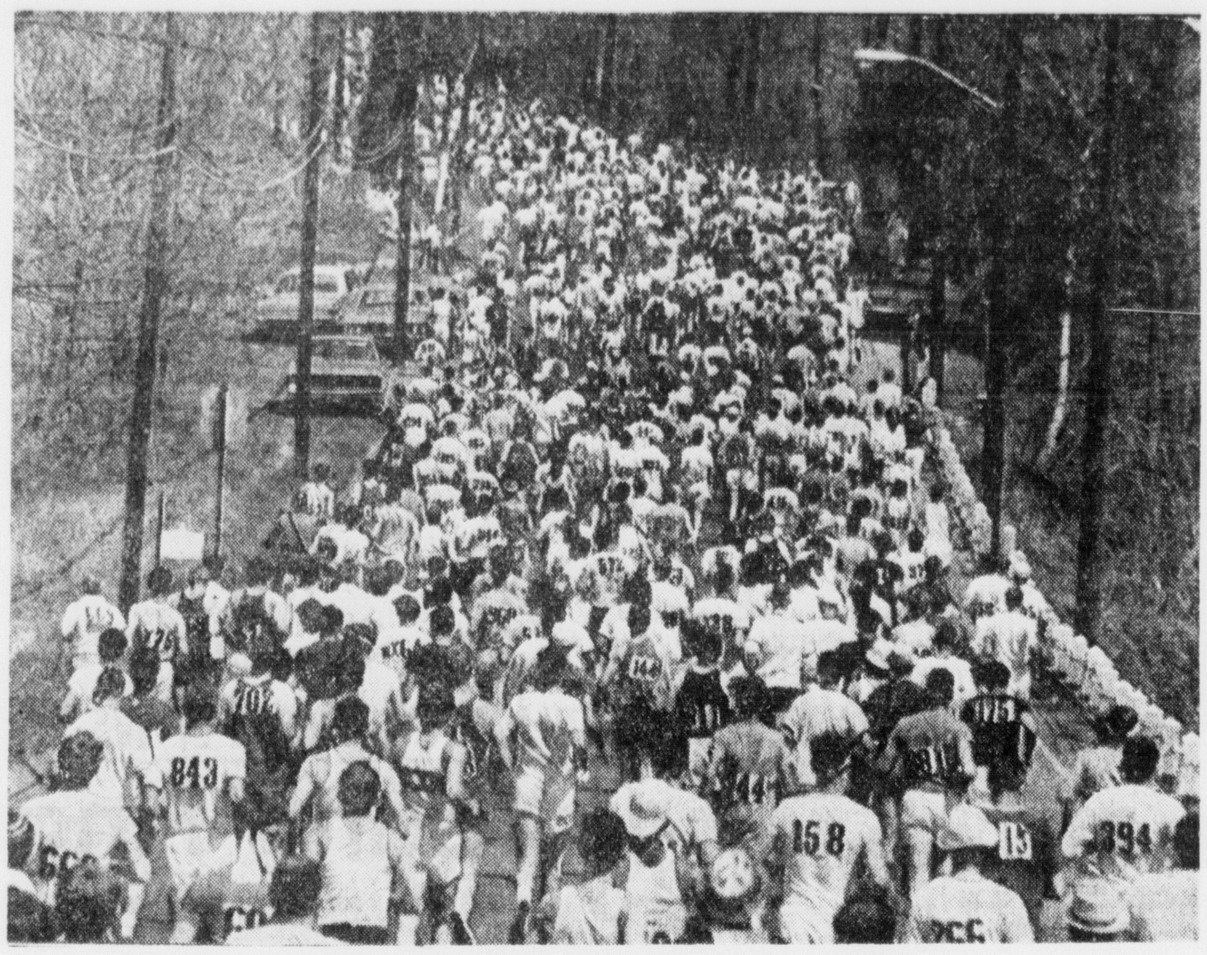
The Tigers gave Sparma a 1-0 lead in the second inning when Willie Horton singled, went to second on a walk and scored on a throwing error by Allen. Al Kaline's third homer of the season produced their other run in the sixth.

The Baltimore Orioles routed the Cleveland Indians 11-0, the Minnesota Twins downed the Oakland Athletics 8-4, the New York Yankees defeated the Boston Red Sox 6-4 and the Seattle Pilots beat the Kansas City Royals 4-1 in other American League games.

Brooks Robinson's two-run double in the fourth inning and Merv Rettenmund's three-run homer in a six-run seventh made it easy for Jim Palmer to win his third straight victory. Palmer, who was sidelined for the entire 1968 season with a back ailment, allowed four hits, struck out five and walked four.

Mel Stottlemyre received credit for his fourth straight victory, with relief aid from Lindy McDaniel, as the Yankees used their new-found speed to help them to victory.

Winning pitcher Mike Marshall hit two run-scoring singles and won his first game of the season although Jack Aker had to get the last putout in the Pilots' victory. Steve Jones suffered the loss for Kansas City.



A ROAD FULL OF RUNNERS

Two Surprises, One Old Problem For Athletics

OAKLAND — The first couple of weeks of the season have produced two small surprises and one continuing, grim reality for the Oakland Athletics.

The nice things have happened to the starting pitching rotation, which was an abomination in the spring, and to second baseman Dick Green, who was marvelous in Arizona but didn't figure to continue hitting like a superstar.

In their first 10 games, for example, the A's had only one sub-par pitching job from a starter—a wild display against Kansas City by Chuck Dodson. And in that same number of games, Greenie was remarkable at the plate — with 10 RBIs and an average near .400, a shade below his springtime work but still rather acceptable.

So much for the goodies.

ON THE gloomy side is the continued failure to hit against — and defeat — left-handed pitchers. This inability against southpaws has passed the allergy stage. It has become a two-year communicable disease among the White Shoes.

Last year Oakland opened with five left-handed hitters, power hopes Rick Monday, Reggie Jackson and Ramon Webster, John Donaldson and "ping" hitter Jim Gosget. So it perhaps made sense that four lefties beat this lineup in the first fortnight of 1968.

Donaldson now plays behind Green; Gosger, who has trouble hitting anybody, is now gone to Seattle. Webster, who spent much of '68 on the farm, is now a reserve first baseman; which leaves Jackson and Monday as the only regular left-handed batters.

THUS ONE is inclined to wonder why opposing managers keep tempting fate by throwing — repeatedly throwing — lefties against the A's. Wonder verbally in front of Kansas City manager Joe Gordon, and he provided this insight:

"The A's main power threats are Monday and Jackson. And lefties can handle them. But another big advantage of using lefties against Oakland is to contain their speed. They have a very fast club — guys like Campaneris and Jackson and Monday — and a southpaw can keep them close to first if they reach."

BILLY MARTIN, who manages the Minnesota Twins, agrees with Gordon's reasoning. But Billy finds another favorable dimension.

"A lefty's fast ball can do some strange things. And on a young club like the A's, the kids just aren't used to seeing those strange hops on the fast stuff."

JACKSON AND Monday, particularly, can look bad on fast balls, although the casual baseball observer might think this is the most hittable pitch.

Not according to St. Louis manager Red Schoendienst. "A real good fast ball is the hardest pitch to hit," sayeth the once fine-hitting Schoendienst, "because you have the least time to react. You can learn to plot the time and course of a curve, and to adjust. But if a good fast ball is fast enough to keep you from getting all the way around on it, there's nothing you can do."

MANAGER HANK BAUER is trying to do something, though. Like bench Jackson against lefties.

And if that doesn't work, if southpaws continue to defeat the A's at the 36-26 rate of 1968 and the same sort of ratio this year, which has been the case so far, Bauer can petition for further rule changes. Perhaps at the Coliseum, lefties should be required to pitch from foxholes.

Heart Fund Net Tourney Slated At Sleepy Hollow

Registrations are now being taken for the first "Tennis for Heart" men's singles tournament.

The tournament will be June 7-8 and 14-15 at San Domenico School for Girls, Sleepy Hollow, proceeds going to the Marin County Heart Association.

Open to Marin County residents and members of Marin County tennis clubs, entries may be obtained from the Marin County Heart Association and Stan's for Sports in San Rafael, and Crocker-Citizens Bank, Montecito branch. Entries, at $10 each, are limited to 64 players, in order received.

Matches will be best of three sets, with first round losers playing in consolation matches. Trophies and prizes will go to winners. Co-sponsoring the event are Stan's for Sports and San Domenico School for Girls.

Entries close June 3, according to tournament director Herb P. Clark, tennis professional at Harbor Point Club in Tiburon.

Redwood Golfers Top Marin 'Cats

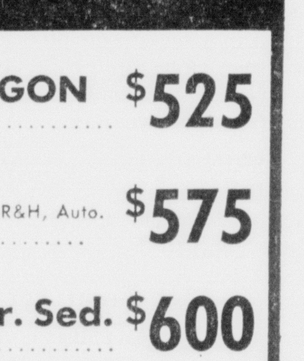
By MARION LADEWIG



A too-large hole can cause a sore thumb, because it forces the bowler to exert extra pressure to hold onto the ball. The same thing can cause sore fingers. If your ball fits correctly and your fingers are still sore, try a bowling glove, which can take some of this pressure off the thumb and fingers.

NATIONAL LEAGUE HIGHLIGHTS

Mays And Brock Back To Normal

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Willie Mays and Lou Brock are back to normal now—and that has to be bad news for the National League pitchers.

Mays was back in his familiar No. 3 spot in the lineup last night after manager Clyde King quietly abandoned his heralded experiment of turning the San Francisco star into a leadoff hitter.

Mays, who hit .317 in 11 games as a leadoff hitter, was .500 in his first game back in the No. 3 spot in a 2-for-4 night that raised his average to .333. But the performance went for naught as the Giants lost to Los Angeles, 7-5.

TWO HITS

Meanwhile, Brock, who started the season in a 4-for-45 slump and was hitting just .089, collected two hits for the second staight game as the St. Louis Cardinals recorded their first victory of the season at home by edging Montreal, 5-4.

Elsewhere in the National League, Philadelphia edged New York, 2-1, Cincinnati clubbed Houston, 11-5, and Atlanta nipped San Diego, 5-2.

The Dodgers scored five runs in the sixth inning, knocking Juan Marichal out of the box with the help of a pair of errors, and built up a 7-0 lead while beating San Francisco.

HOME RUN

Brock homered in the sixth to tie the St. Louis-Montreal game and then started a ninth inning rally with a single that ended when reliever Dan McGinn walked Tim McCarver with the bases loaded and two out to force in the winning run.

Pete Rose, Bob Tolan and pitcher Jim Merritt hit two-run singles to lead Cincinnati to its 11-5 victory over Houston. Tolan wound up with three hits and three RBIs.

BREAK TIE

Tony Taylor singled in Larry Hisle from second base with one out in the 11th inning to snap a 1-1 tie and give the Phils the victory over the Mets. Hisle hit his first major league homer for the Phils' first run.

The Atlanta Braves pounded five San Diego pitchers for 13 hits including homers by Clete Boyer and Orlando Cepeda to beat the Padres. Ron Reed got the victory with a 7 1-3 inning performance.

Cal's Steakhouse, Jaycees Triumph

Cal's Steakhouse and the Jaycees turned up winners yesterday in the slow pitch division of San Rafael Recreation Department softball league yesterday at Albert Field.

Cal's Steakhouse shut out the Harding Gophers 4-0 and the Jaycees topped Wright's Richfield 7-2. In a B division softball game, Salt's Fish and Chips nicked Trailor Boat 5-4.

Arden Jensen, sophomore field goal kicker, set an Army season mark with 11 in 1968. Two of them were 46-yarders.

Here Are The Reasons For Mussel Quarantine

On April 15 the State Department of Public Health announced a mussel quarantine order to be in effect from May 1 to October 31. This quarantine is established for all species of mussels from Oregon south to Mexico in the ocean, San Francisco Bay and all other bays, inlets and harbors. During this period, mussels may concentrate a toxic material that is highly toxic to man.

In addition, the public is warned that clams should be cleaned and washed thoroughly before cooking. All dark parts of clams should be discarded because the poison present during May through October would be concentrated in the dark parts.

EACH YEAR wardens of the department of Fish and Game receive calls from persons asking about the above toxic material in clams and cockles. We advise to discard the dark parts of all clams. The question, "What causes this toxic condition" is more difficult to answer. Most people have heard about "Red Tide,", but few people really know what causes it, or what it is. I will try and explain.

THIS PHENOMENON is a result of the development of enormous numbers of minute pigmented organisms which give a red color to the water. A sample of red tide held in the sunlight will reveal millions of specks which cause the red color. Always present in small numbers, these organisms multiply to astronomical numbers when conditions are favorable for their growth. All the forms which produce red tide are members of the group called plankton, which are microscopic floating plats, animals and borderline forms of a simple unicellular nature which shellfish filter out of the water.

RED TIDE indicates a nutritious condition of the water, highly favorable to marine life. Tides of a reddish brown color are produced by any one of a number of different organisms, but one called Gonyaulax has produced red tides that were sometimes toxic.

STUDIES IN California showed that mollusks and crabs can develop a potent toxin from ingesting Gonyaulax. Human deaths in California have been attributed to the eating of mussels which had been feeding on Gonyaulax. Typical symptoms of human shellfish poisoning includes a tingling and numbness in the mouth region, followed by headaches and paralysis of the limbs. The severity of the effects depends on the amount and toxicity of the mollusks eaten. Cooking reduces the toxicity and canning even more so. Mussels absorb more of the poison than clams and this is probably the reason that what is dealt with here is called "Mussel Poisoning."

IT IS IMPORTANT to note that the mere appearance of a red tide is no occasion for alarm since a wide variety of innocous forms produce most of our red tides. Only when the red tide is due to the abudnance of Gonyaulax need harvesting operations be suspended until the red tide has disappeared and the shellfish have had time to rid themselves of accumulated poisons. Regular inspections are made by the county and state health departments during the possible periods of red tide occurences.

MARIN SPORTSMEN will be interested to learn that William H. Beckett, skippr of the fishing boat "Paul G.," has been fined $3,500 and sentenced to six months in jail on six counts of chumming with live bait in a prohibited area off the Pacifica Beach, south of San Francisco Bay, and for failing to keep proper records.

Judge Charles Becker of San Mateo County Municipal Court, before whom Beckett was convicted by a jury last month, suspended the jail term, suspended $450 on each of the seven counts and placed Beckett on probation for two years.

Judge Becker also pronounced sentence on three of Beckett's crew who were involved with him in the live chumming case and convicted by the same jury that found Beckett guilty.

Frazier Is Heavy Favorite

HOUSTON (UPI)—Unbeaten Joe Frazier puts his share of the world heavyweight boxing championship on the line tonight against rugged, but unpolished Dave Zyglewicz. Frazier is a decided favorite to make short work of the challenger.

Frazier, recognized as champion in six states and two foreign countries, is so sure of having his way with Zyglewicz that he is already considering a June fight with Jerry Quarry that could bring him a half million dollars.

The fighters weigh in at 1 p.m. EST, and will have at each other over a scheduled 15 rounds beginning at 9:50 p.m. EST.

The fight is expected to bring in a near-capacity crowd at the 12,000-seat Sam Houston Coliseum. The gate is forecast to come to $150,000. Frazier will get 40 per cent of that and Zyglewicz 20 per cent.

The fighters will get the same percentage of the money gained from a 20-city television hookup.

Phoenix Suns Sign Neal Walk

PHOENIX (UPI) — The Phoenix Suns, who were short on height last season, will be looking a little taller next year with the addition of Neal Walk, the No. 2 National Basketball Association draft choice.

Walk was believed to have signed a three-year, $300,000 contract yesterday with the Suns, last place finishers in the Western Division in their first NBA season in 1968-69.

He is 6 feet, 10 inches tall and weighs 240. Walk averaged 24 points and 18 rebounds a game for Florida last season.

He was believed to have turned down a higher money offer from the Carolina Cougars of the rival American Basketball Association.

Race Expected To Draw 1,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — More than 1,000 distance runners are expected May 25 for the 59th annual "Bay to Breakers" race sponsored by the San Francisco Examiner.

Last year, more than 800 runners finished the seven-mile race. It was won by Ken Moore of the Oregon Track Club, who beat Tom Laris of the New York Athletic Club in the last 70 yards.

Entry blanks can be obtained from race director Frank Geis at the Pacific Association-AAU, Room 602, 942 Market Street, San Francisco.

Harrelson To Join Indians?

BOSTON (UPI)—The retirement of Ken "the Hawk" Harrelson in major league baseball was expected to come to an end today.

Harrelson, the defending American League runs-batted-in king, announced Sunday he would retire from baseball rather than accept the trade which sent him and two other Boston players to the Indians in return for two pitchers and a catcher, Boston's weak spots this season.

But the 27-year-old Harrelson, who made almost as big a name with his mod clothes as he did with his bat, had 72 hours from the time he was traded to actually join the club and all indications were he would join the Tribe before today's 4 p.m. deadline.

Telephone negotiations between Cleveland President and General Manager Gabe Paul in Baltimore and Harrelson in Boston yesterday appeared to have convinced the colorful Hawk he should abandon his brief self-imposed exile from baseball.

The expected agreement would unsnarl one of major league baseball's wildest tangles in which Harrelson's plan to retire jeopardized a six-player deal between the Indians and Red Sox.

The Red Sox and Indians were impatiently awaiting Harrelson's decision because of a ruling by Baseball Commissioner Bowie Kuhn that the other five players involved in the deal would not be permitted to play for either team.

Harrelson and pitchers Dick Ellsworth and Juan Pizarro were traded to Cleveland for catcher Joe Azcue and pitchers Sonny Siebert and Vicente Romo.

*Regular trade-in price, two whitewall Silvertown 660's. Federal Excise Tax $1.95 to $3.32 per Radial Tire, $1.86 to $3.01 per 660.

HERE'S WHY.
• Silvertown Radials are built a new way. The 4-ply belt reduces tread scuffing. So BFG Radials roll easier. And your car's engine doesn't work so hard.
• BFG Radials deliver up to twice the mileage of our "new-car" tires — yet cost just 40% more. You can save 60% of the cost of tires. Plus hundreds of gallons of gas!
• Also, BFG Radials have flexible sidewalls for better traction and cornering. And a smoother high-speed ride. They resist punctures and blowouts better, too!

BFG Radials are built with Dynacor® Rayon Cord.

GUARANTEE. Every new B.F.Goodrich passenger car tire not branded "second" is guaranteed for the life of the original tread, regardless of age or mileage, against defects in material and workmanship, and in normal non-commercial passenger car service, against failures caused by road hazards (not including repairable punctures, tires irregularly worn, tires damaged by running flat, fire, wrecks, collisions, chain cuts or obstructions on the automobile, nor does it apply to tires when used on vehicles other than a passenger automobile). If such tire fails under this guarantee and is so damaged beyond repair, the owner will receive full allowance for remaining tread toward the purchase of a new tire of our manufacture at the then current retail "trade-in" price.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Adviser Confidence Is Key To Success

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. Last year I invested $30,000 through an investment-counseling service. My goal was to offset inflation. They bought 3M McDonnell Douglas convertible 4¾s of 1991, 5M U.S. bonds, American Standard, Boston Edison, Cincinnati Gas & Electric, IBM, National Steel, Norfolk Steel, Norfold & Western and Union Oil of California. When the U.S. bonds were redeemed in February the service bought Dayco. I wondered why they switched from bonds to stock. I also wonder if these counseling firms have their own interest uppermost when making recommendations. How do you feel about it? — G. J.

A. Any firm offering counsel or advisory service is regulated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Very strict rules on trading by the firm or any of its employees and their relatives would seriously hamper the unscrupulous person who might try to take advantage of clients.

You appear to have very little confidence in the firm, yet you are entrusting them with the management of a sizable amount of your capital. I would say it was time for you to carefully reappraise your thinking.

Since your stated goal is growth sufficient to keep pace with inflation, the move to common stock was a necessity. The type of short-term bond that was redeemed is often used in order to keep funds earning interest until a suitable investment opportunity presents itself. Bonds do not normally appreciate in price as do stocks. In fact, in recent years the bond market has moved consistently downward as interest rates increased.

Your two utility issues are attractive primarily for their generous yield but could benefit from proposed plans to form holding companies. Norfolk & Western is also an income stock, but real-estate holdings and a pending merger add appeal to the shares.

National Steel, operating in the Midwest, ships 55 per cent of output to the automotive and conatiner industries. Earnings of $5, up from $4.65 a share, are looked for this year. American Standard should benefit from increased construction activities and Dayco from several recent acquisitions. Your other two stocks are fine growth issues and should be held.

G.M. Officers, Directors Lead Auto Pay Salaries

DETROIT (AP) — Officers and directors of General Motors Corp. received a record $17.7 million in salaries and supplemental compensation in 1968.

The increase, disclosed in a proxy statement last Friday, was 18 per cent over 1967's compensation.

James M. Roche, board chairman, received the highest amount, $794,934, including $225,000 salary, $427,500 in cash bonuses and $142,434 in contingency credits payable over five years.

Its 63 officers and directors received salaries totaling $4,936,916, bonuses of $9,896,012 and contengencies worth $2,906,572.

Officers and directors received a total of 14,906,481 in 1967, with $3,938,039 of it in salaries, $8,504,786 in bonuses and $2,463,656 in contengencies.

Ford Motor Co. reported a week ago its 52 officers and directors received $10,009,612 in salaries and supplemental compensation last year.

Henry Ford II, chairman, topped the Ford list with $200,000 in salary and $400,000 in supplementary compensation.

Edward N. Cole, who succeeded Roche as president in 1967, and George Russell, named vice chairman at the same time, were second in the General Motors list, tied at $727,490 each, with $202,500 in salaries and $386,250 in cash bonuses and $128,750 in contingencies.

G.M. executives also were granted options to purchase at below-market prices 101,811 shares of stock, with Roche's 5,211 topping the list.

Travel Service

MINEOLA, N. Y. (UPI) — A new subsidiary called Tra-Vel, Inc., has been formed by Designatronics, Inc., to engage in general travel services.

One share of the new company will be issued to Designatronics shareholders for each two shares held as of May 12. About $2 million in funds is being provided as working capital.

Retirement Cruise For Executives

NEW YORK (UPI) — Retirement can be traumatic, especially for the executive who revels in authority, status and the privileges his position brings.

It's such a fact of corporate life today that two travel companies are betting executives facing retirement will be willing to spend up to $10,000 on an ocean cruise designed to condition them, and their wives, to life away from the executive suite.

Prelude, Inc., of Newark, N.J., and Thomas Cook & Son, the international travel agency, are sponsoring a million-dollar cruise designed as pre-retirement therapy. They say inquiries and some reservations already have been received, even though the cruise is a year away.

Price of the 47-day cruise around South America, for facilities alone, start at $2,310 per person and $4,620 for a couple. Rates go up considerably from those levels.

A faculty of 16 eminent physicians, psychiatrists and other savants will give daily lectures on how an executive and his wife should prepare for a happy retirement during the man's last working year. The fee for this advice will be $2,400 per couple.

Included on the faculty are Dr. Paul Dudley White, the Boston cardiologist who treated the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and Dr. Hans Selye of the University of Montreal, considered the foremost authority on stress and tension. Dr. Prescott Thompson ,director of the retirement and aging study program at the Menninger Foundation in Topeka, Kan., will be from slowdown in activity.

About 200 top-level executives and their wives are expected to sail on the liner Argentina and listen to the daily lectures and discussions on how to develop intellectual and other interests for retirement.

Bad News Continues; Wall Street Declines

NEW YORK (UPI) — President Nixon's request for elimination of the 7 per cent investment credit touched off renewed selling on Wall Street today, and prices on the New York Stock Exchange finished lower for the second consecutive day in moderate turnover.

Also pressuring the list was a drop of more than 4 per cent in new factory orders for durable goods in March, monetary uncertainties in Europe and the virtual state of war in the Middle East.

Shortly before the final bell, the UPI stock market indicator was off 0.38 per cent. Of the 1,540 issues traded, 780 declined and 476 advanced.

Volume approximated 9 million shares.

Marin's Share Of License Fees At $686,710

Marin and Sonoma counties and cities will receive portions of a $139,193,200 vehicle license fee distribution, State Controller Houston I. Flourney has announced.

Marin County will receive $686,710, while Sonoma County's share will be $667,985.

Marin cities and their shares are: Belvedere, $12,133; Corte Madera, $38,268; Fairfax, $34,417; Larkspur, $38,529; Mill Valley, $55,782; Novato, $134,871; Ross, $12,917; San Anselmo, $61,382; San Rafael, $170,353; Sausalito, $31,267, and Tiburon, $28,421.

Southern Sonoma cities and their shares are: Cotati, $6,608; Petaluma, $103,370, and Rohnert Park, $23,450.

The distribution represents 75 per cent of the vehicle license fees the state expects to receive during the six-month period ending May 31, Flournoy said.

Holding Company

NEW YORK (UPI) — Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corp. has announced it proposes to create a new holding company to branch out from manufacturing into various commercial enterprises to be kept independent of the company's large scale government contract work.

Fishing, Camping Equipment Mail Order Firm Sets Opening

A new mail order business to open at Northgate Industrial Park May 1 is International Sportsmen, Inc., now located temporarily at the Merchandise Mart in San Francisco.

The company, headed by Leo T. Schober of Terra Linda, has leased space through William W. Hoey and Co. at 20-30 Mark Drive. It plans to engage in nationwide mail order activities and will specialize primarily in fishing and camping equipment. Advertisements will be run in outdoor magazines, later "flyers" will be mailed out and a full-line catalog is expected to be published about the first of next year.

Schober, formerly of New York, was with Abercrombie and Fitch for 25 years. He formed his own company only last December. Toward the end of May or first of June he plans on looking for part-time help for packing and shipping and possibly clerical.

ANOTHER FIRM to lease space here through Hoey and Sthymmel Realty is S. K. Marine Sales and Service, removed from 111 Verdi Street, San Rafael.

And Hoey has also leased 5,000 sq. feet to Fairchild Semiconductor for additional storage space. This leaves 4,000 square feet in the building still unoccupied.

ALLAN HEMPHILL of Guerneville has been elected president of the Sonoma County Wine Growers Association, succeeding Edmund A. Rossi Jr., who has held the post for four years. Rodney Strong of Healdsburg has been named vice president and Mrs. Esther Gowans of Sonoma has been reappointed secretary-treasurer.

BRUCE M. GLASSNER of Mill Valley has joined the creative staff at the San Francisco office of Meltzer, Aron and Lemen, Inc. He was previously a copywriter for Dailey and Associates, San Francisco and Earle Ludgin and Co., Chicago.

NEW OWNERS are expected to take over Pini Hardware at 1107 Grant Avenue, Novato on May 1.

The 26-year -old business has been purchased from partners Baxter Hovis, C. J. Nelson and D. D. Phillips by another partnership trio — C. B. Young and Arlan Branson of Novato and Edward L. Thompson, co-owner of Marin French Cheese Co., Petaluma. Young expects to close his Marin Interiors business and stock some of his goods at Pini.

Pini Hardware originally was a part of the H. Pini and Co. general store. In 1943 Hovis and Nelson pruchased the hardware portion and operated it on the side of the present Novato Theater. The building burned down in 1945 and the store was operated at Grant and Sherman Avenue until 1947 when the present location was taken.

INSURANCE. Randell W. Sanders of Fairfax has been appointed a consultant at Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. He was recently transferred to Marin County from Chicago. . .

Bankers Life Nebraska general agent James W. Conley of San Rafael and associates James R. Harvey of Fairfax, Frederick J. Santos of Novato and James C. Tonge Jr. of Corte Madera were among members of the San Francisco agency at a four-day sales leaders seminar in Phoenix last week.

A LECTURE SERIES for retired widows and widowers and those soon to retire will be held next Thursday and the following Wednesday, April 30, at 7 p.m. at the Community Church, 8 Olive Street, Mill Valley. The series is free and is being presented by the investment firm Kelly and Morey, Inc. through account executive Walter E. Steinmann of Mill Valley. I am told that for those who require a ride, transportation will be provided by the Marin Senior Coordinating Council and other civic organizations.
